Hendricks County Flyer (Avon, IN) - Wednesday, October 29, 2008

Regina Louise (Showalter) Campbell died Oct. 24 at her home at Providence Horizon House, Spruce Cottages, in Anchorage, Ala. Mrs. Campbell was born in Lancaster, Ohio, to Russell and Anna Louise (Timmis) Showalter. She graduated from the Chicago Art Institute. Until her marriage she was a fashion designer/illustrator. Her talent is displayed in the artwork she has passed to her family and friends. Mrs. Campbell was a long-time resident of Plainfield, prior to moving to Alaska in April of 2006. Survivors include daughters Diana Louise Cummings and Pamela Sisk-Licaretz; a son-in-law, Dennis P. Cummings; grandchildren Jack H. Trucks, Kristen L. Sisk, Marie Louise (Trucks) Brown, Jessica Sisk, and Olga Lorann (Sisk) Striker; great-grandchildren Delores Regina Trucks, Andrea Louise Mills, Thomas Edward Brown III, Kelsey Sisk, Charles Alexander Sisk, Nicholas Striker, Christen Sisk, and Sarah Sisk; great-great-grandchildren Ezra Trucks and Xander Trucks; and several nieces and nephews. Preceding her in death was her husband of 50 years, Charles Walter Campbell; parents Russell Showalter Sr., and Anna Louise (Timmis) Showalter; and siblings Russell Jr., Raymond, Lillian, Johnny, and Francis. Services are 10 a.m. Saturday at St. Marks Episcopal Church. A graveside vigil will follow at 2 p.m. in Portland Cemetery. Calling is from 5 to 8 p.m. Friday at Hall-Baker Funeral Home in Plainfield. Memorials may be made to the Providence Horizon House Foundation Chapel Fund, 4140 Folker St., Anchorage, AL 99508. Online condolences can be made to the Campbell family at www.bakerfuneralservice.com.

Contributed by Jane Edson