

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Friday, August 22, 2003

Services for James Habegger will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Bridge Community Church, Decatur, with Pastor Mo Hodge officiating. Burial will follow in M.R.E. Cemetery.

Habegger, 52, Geneva, died Sunday at fishing lodge near Sioux Lookout, Ontario, Canada. Born on Jan. 31, 1951, to Lester and Ella (Schlatter) Habegger, he married Linda Moser on July 24, 1971. She survives.

He was a member of the Bridge Church, Decatur, and was an employee of Fleetwood Motor Homes, Decatur, in the service department.

Other survivors include two daughters, Nicole Chaffins, Berne, and Natalie Habegger, Geneva; one son, Chad Chaffins, Geneva; a brother, Ted Habegger, Berne; two sisters, Sandi Habegger, Mandeville, La., and Mrs. Brent (Sharon) Whited, South Haven, Miss.; and one grandson.

Visitation is Saturday from 2 to 8 p.m. at Yager-Kirchhofer Funeral Home, Berne, and Sunday one hour prior to services at the church.

Memorials may be made to the Bridge Church or the Family Hospice of Northeast Indiana.

Contributed by Jane Edson