

Certificate
No. 7836.

The United States of America,

Surveyor General's Certificate,
No. 107.

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas

Robert Brackenridge, ^{Register of the Land Office at} Fort Wayne, Indiana

has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate of the Surveyor General, at Cincinnati, Ohio, whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said Robert Brackenridge according to the provisions of the act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the Public Lands," for the East fraction of the ^{second} South East quarter of Section twenty, in Township twenty-eight, North of Range fourteen, East of the Meridian, in the District of Lands subject to sale at Fort Wayne, Indiana, containing Seventy-four acres, and Seventy — hundredths of an acre according to the official plat of the survey of the said Lands, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said Robert Brackenridge

NOW KNOW YE, That the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant, unto the said Robert Brackenridge and to his heirs, the said tract above described: To have and to hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities, and appurtenances of whatsoever nature, thereunto belonging, unto the said Robert Brackenridge and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, Martin Van Buren

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these Letters to be made patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the twentieth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven and of the Independence of the United States the Sixty first

By the President: Martin Van Buren

Hudson M. Garland

Recorder ^{By} A. Van Buren Sec'y
Commissioner of the General Land Office.
