" 1863 } Complaint
Elmira Shumway for Divorce

Almond Shumway complains of Elmira Shumway and says that they were intermarried on the 31st day of December 1862 and lived and cohabi-ted together as man and wife until the 16th day of June 1863 at which time Defendant abandoned Plaintiff without cause or provocation on the part of said Plaintiff. With the intention of final abandonment and has ever since remained absent from Plaintiff at all times refusing to return to Plaintiff. Plaintiff further says that he is and has been for two years last past prior to the filing of this complaint a resident of Adams County and State of Indiana. That there can be no reconciliation made between these parties and Plaintiff therefor prays the Court to Grant him a bill of divorce and other proper relief
