In the matter of the guardianship of Leander Johnson.

Petition for sale of personal property at public sale.

Comes now the undersigned, Daniel W. Erwin, guardian of the above named Leander Johnson and shows to the court that he was duly appointed the guardian of said ward on the 22nd day January 1906.

That there was no court in session at the time of said appointment nor has there been any court in session since that date until the 5th day of Februry 1906, the day just prior to the date of fileing this petition and therefore theis guardian could not procure an order of court to sell said property sooner.

That at the time of the appointment of this guardian the said ward was not at his home in Union Township, but was absent with his horses, cattle and other live stoc k owned by him without any one to care for same, and the same was suffering for want of care and feed and was greatly depreciating in value. That this partitioner as the guardian of said ward and to protect the said property from damages prepared to sell the same, by making an inventory of the same, which he has filed in this court.

That more than ten days ago he caused notices to be printed and posted same in more than six places in said Union Township, where said ward and at various places in said county of Adams and state of Indiana resided and where said property was located, giving notice that on the 7th day of February 1906 he would offer for sale at public sale the articles mentioned in said sale bill and as mentioned in the inventory filed herein.

Wherefore the said petitioner prays the court that he may be allowed an order authorizing said sale on said 7th day of February 1906.
