

1934 Scrapbook, image 42

(Handwritten: Monday, June 4, 1934)

Miss Mildred Habegger, talented soprano soloist, of this place will go to Indianapolis Friday evening where she will appear several times on the program at the annual banquet of the Indiana University School for Nurses Alumni Association. Miss Elizabeth Gottschalk, formerly of Berne, is a member of the program committee for the banquet. Mrs. C. E. Luginbill, also well known here, will be toastmaster at the gathering.

Miss Habegger will sing this evening at Bluffton for Psi Iota Sorority. Miss Elaine Baumgartner will accompany her at the piano.

(Handwritten: Monday, June 11, 1934)

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hanni moved from the Mrs. Mary Kerr property to an apartment at the Delmas Feasel home, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Habegger and children, Vera and Chester, and the Misses Barbara and Agnes Habegger motored to Indianapolis, Friday noon, and returned Friday night accompanied by Betty Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Habegger. Betty Jean has been a patient at the Riley Hospital for the past two weeks.

(Handwritten: Monday, June 11, 1934)

Dr. H. O. Jones is the owner of a new Plymouth coach, purchased from Mettler and Baumgartner.

Ferd Wiens and Homer Niederhouser are the owners of new Ford V-8 automobiles. The cars were delivered by A. J. Moser and Company.

Adams County Historical Museum
1934 Scrapbook, image #42
Transcribed by Karin King