

One Is Killed, 12 Injured In Accidents

Mon. Sept 2, 1940

Rudolph Schwartz, 46, New Haven, Suffers Skull Fracture In Fall.

Injuries he suffered in a fall from the rear porch of a residence were fatal to Rudolph Schwartz, 46, Rural Route No. 1, New Haven, and 12 other persons were hurt in accidents of various kinds in and near Fort Wayne over the week-end.

Mr. Schwartz was aiding his brother, John, also of Rural Route No. 1, New Haven, to paint his residence when he fell about 12 feet to the concrete steps below a porch. The mishap occurred at 10 a.m. and the injured man, who suffered a skull fracture, died at the Methodist Hospital at 1:45 p.m.

A verdict of accidental death was returned in the case by Dr. A. P. Hattendorf, Allen County coroner.

The body was taken to the Walter Funeral Home, Spencerville.

Infant Buried In Sat. Sept 21, 1940 Berne Cemetery

Burial was made in the M. R. E. cemetery west of Berne for Milo Fuchs, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Fuchs who died Tuesday afternoon, September 17. The baby was born Sunday, September 15.

Surviving besides the parents are two sisters, Dolores and Irene and two brothers, Ivan and Herman. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hirshey and Mr. and Mrs. William Fuchs, A. H. Fuchs,

VINTON RAY IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Tues. Oct. 8, 1940

Man Injured In Freak A cident May 13 Dies

This Morning

Vinton "Skippy" Ray, 41, of Dixon, Ohio, died this morning 8:25 o'clock at the Adams county memorial hospital.

Death was attributed indirectly to an injury sustained in a freak accident on May 13. On that day Mr. Ray suffered a severe skull fracture when a truck tire blew out and the rim struck him on the head.

He was confined in the hospital here for several weeks in a critical condition, but apparently recovered and was released. Last Tuesday he became ill when he suffered from exposure in a rainstorm. He was re-admitted to the hospital. The attending physician attributed the death to chronic encephalitis known as sleeping sickness.

The deceased was born in Geneva, Va., Oct. 2, 1899, the son of I. and Mrs. George Ray, who still reside there. Surviving also are a widow, Pearl Hendricks-Ray, three children, George, Chester and Geraldine; three brothers, Clyde, Convoy, Ohio; Jude of Eaton and Marion of Muncie; and two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Lough of Geneva and Mrs. Helen Passwater of Ft. Wayne.

Funeral services will be held at the home near Dixon Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Simon officiating. Burial will be in the Stuebaker cemetery near Geneva.

IRETA EGLEY TO WED 1940 EARL HARMON OCTOBER 12

The approaching marriage of Miss Ireta Egley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Egley of Monroe, and Earl Harmon, son of Mrs. M. Harmon of Decatur, was announced today.

The ceremony will take place October 12 at 4:30 p. m. in the Luke's Evangelical and Ref.