

Thursday, October 1, 1942

Wed Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gehrig of near Woodburn will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Sunday at their home with a basket dinner at noon for relatives and open house in the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock for friends. A special service will be given in their honor Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Woodburn Missionary Church.

Mrs. Gehrig is the former Miss Emma Wetter. The couple were married near Berne and have no children.

*****

Saturday, August 29, 1942

Local Couple Marks 64th Anniversary

Judge and Mrs. James T. Merryman today marked an occasion which few couples in Decatur have the opportunity to celebrate.

The Merryman's, prominent local residents, observed their 64th wedding anniversary at their home on North Second Street.

The observance was quietly marked, with the couple receiving congratulations and well wishes from a host of friends and relatives.

Adams County Historical Museum

1942A Scrapbook, image 90

Transcribed by Jim Cox