BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.    Brazil City and Township.

FRED NUSSEL was born in Clay County, Ind., January 8, 1858, and is the youngest of a family of eight children of George and Barbara Nussel, both natives of Germany, who emigrated to America in 1842, Fred spent his youth upon a farm, but was given the best educational advantages, entering college at the age of eighteen years, at Merom, Ind., where he remained one year. Being compelled, by failing health, to rest awhile from study, he left, but the following year entered the Central Indiana Normal College at Ladoga, graduating in 1881. For several years, he had been studying medicine, and after graduating in his collegiate course, he attended lectures at Rush Medical College, Chicago. He then practiced medicine in Ashersville, Ind., successfully and profitably, until January 1883, when he came to Brazil and purchased a drug store, and is doing a thriving business, being considered a skillful chemist and druggist, and one of the prominent young men of the county. In politics, Mr. Nussel is a Republican. He is also a member of the Masonic fraternity, Lodge No. 541.

George Adam NUSSEL

GEORGE ADAM NUSSEL is a native son of Posey township, born on the farm on which he now resides in section 24 April 23, 1854, and is of German parentage. His father, George Nussel, was born and reared in the fatherland, and coming to the United States about 1844 he made his way to Indiana and first bought eighty acres of land in Posey township, Clay county, to which he added from time to time until his estate numbered two hundred and fifty-five acres, all of which he cleared with the help of his sons and placed the land under an excellent state of cultivation. He at one time also owned forty acres which is the present Apple Grove, but sold that tract, and also owned land in Jackson township. He died April 15, 1892, on the old Nussel homestead, now the home of his son George A. In Clay county he married Anna Barbara Fleishman, born and reared in the fatherland of Germany, and their family numbered eight children, six sons and two daughters, George Adam being the sixth born, and all with the exception of the eldest was born in Clay county, Indiana. Mr. Nussel, the father, was a Republican.

In his early life George Adam Nussell assisted his father in clearing his land, in the meantime attending the district schools of the neighborhood, and he is now the owner of eighty acres of the old homestead farm, on which he has made many and valuable improvements, and although his residence has twice been destroyed by fire he has each time rebuilt and now has a pleasant and attractive home, he raises and sells stock and is engaged in general farming pursuits. In politics he upholds the principles of the Republican, party, but votes independently at local elections

In Posey township, February 10, 1878, Mr. Nussel was married to Willielmina Heck, a native daughter of Indiana, where her father was a coal miner. Nine children have been born to bless this union, six sons and three daughters, all of whom had their nativity on the Nussel homestead. The family are members of the United Brethren church.
