Thomas Albert Morgan, born 25 Aug 1805 and John Morgan, born 26 Aug 1811 brothers were born in Wheeling West Virginia and settled in Indiana in 1826 at Fredericksburg, IN John's son (K) Gimble and Volney were the first to settle in Daviess Co. IN.

Richard George Morgan was born at Terri Haute, In 8 Feb 1836. His parents moved to Fredericksburg in the Spring of 1841, opening an general store and harness shop in the old building recently torn down to give place to Julians new building. At that time Washington Street was the State road. A brick hotel that stood near the wall on that street, the brick building now occupied by Thomas Richards and a few cabins constituted the town. Mr Morgans father (John) soon erected an old fashioned English inn, where H.L. Siegs residence now stands. It was a very large building, containing more than twenty rooms, had great double porches and was built with a view to the convenience and comfort of the traveling public. It was destroyed by fire about 1855.1

John B. Morgan Sr. was born in Virginia, presumably in the Shenandoah Valley. In 1815 his, parents moved to Floyd County Indiana, in 1815, where he was raised and educated. He entered the saddle and harness trade with his brother Thomas in 1825 in Fredericksburg, IN. and the business proved profitable. The 1850 centus indicated that he had $2,000 to his name, which was quite a bit for that period. 4

Had Harness and Saddle Shop in Fredericksburg,Ind. Mrs. Francies Everman says General Store and Harness shop opened soon after arriving in Fredericksburg in 1841

OLD NOTES: old bible record says Grandfather Morgan and Uncle Tom born in Louisville, KY TIME LINE Ohio Co. KY Wash. Co. W VA IN 1811 1841-1852

NOTE: Review I have held on to b. Wheeling, but really the only source for this is Frances Evermans records with no documentation. If Thomas was in KY at age 4 or 5 John would have probably been born KY. Some references say he was. I need to work on this possibility.5

Volney Edgar Morgan

(2) 1.7a Volney Edgar Morgan*1.15,24,9,17,6,18

Birth: 8 Dec 1849, Fredericksburg, Washington Co., IN1,6
Death: 15 Apr 1935, Lexington, Dawson Co., NE1
Burial: St. Ann's, Lexington
Occupation: Farmer
Education: none
Religion: Methodist

The obit for Volney Valentine Edgar Morgan.... Valentine Morgan grew to manhood in Fredricksburg, IN. He was left an orphan when he was a mere child and had to make his way however he could. As a result he was not able to obtain so much as a grade school education. He could not read a book or write a letter. But he did pick up a surprisingly good practical education in his own experience. However the lack of education seriously limited him all through his life and this, together with much bereavement he experience, caused him to be very quiet and reserved. In the years 1895 he came to Dawson County (NE) and he has resided here ever since.

.....While he himself belonged to no church , so far as is known, ....He himself attended worship in the Morgan Family History Report

Methodist church of Lexington until he was no longer able to do so.

...In 1871 Mr. Morgan married Elizabeth Bruner in Fredericksburg, IN. To this union 2 daughters and a son were born. These survive their father. They are Mrs. Bertha Lee, Forrest Park, IL. Mrs Henry Miles, North Platte, NE and Mr Edward Morgan of Oshkosh NE. The mother of these three passed away in about 1885.

In April, three years later, Mr. Morgan married Mary Miles in Washington IN. To this union 10 children were born. One daughter, Nettie passed away in 1893 at the age of 3 years. This Mrs. Morgan passed away in 1910. The 9 children who survive their parents are, Joseph W. Morgan and Mrs Mary Dunlap of Lexington, William A. Morgan, San Diego CA. Oscar J. Morgan Fr. Collins CO. Andrew and Frank Morgan Cheyenne WY, Mrs Marjorie Sieoff, Ainsworth, NE, Mrs Bea Humphal, Ravenna NE and Dr. Harry Morgan, Ship Surgeon on the USS Grant at sea.

Then years after Mrs. Morgans death Mr. Morgan married Julia Fox in Lexington NE. This was in April 1920. Two years later Mr Morgan was again bereaved of his wife.

Five years later in 1927, Mr Morgan married Junetta Gullick in Lexington. Mrs Gullick-Morgan survives her husband.

When Volney married his first wife Christina Bruner he used the name Volney Morgan in 1877. Then when he married Mary Ann Miles he used the name Valentine Morgan in 1888. His son Thomas Edgar Morgan said his fathers name was Volney, so that is what I use. (Barbara McTygue Scanlon) 15

An Oral Tradition handed down in the family....

Volney Morgan was a young man living in Indiana when a knock came at the door. He opened the door and a woman handed him a baby and said, Here is your daughter! She turned and walked away. This daughter was Florence Isabelle Morgan. I have no idea who her real mother was, so she is listed as the oldest daughter of Volney and Christina Morgan. Florence was born 19 Feb 1875 and Volney and Christina were married in 11 Feb 1877. Told to me by Thomas Edgar Morgan, brother of Florence Morgan.

Ed Morgan, who was a homesteader in Nebraska, marks 94th birthday....Take from a newspaper story in Washington IN

..... Ed Morgan was 11 years old in 1895 when his family left their farm east of Washington IN and traveled to Nebraska. It was easier to get on out there, he said. More room and good farmland.
They went by train with their household goods and horses and milk cows loaded in a box car. They rented a farm for seven years, came back to Indiana and promptly went west again. It was quite a change back here. Our fields out there were half a mile long, and here they were 40 rods.
After 1902 the young Ed worked for his uncle (Kim Morgan) a while and on a ranch and in 1911 homesteaded in the sand hills of Nebraska. His house there was part wood and part sod, but he had built and lived in several sod houses. The only trees in that country were ones the farmers set out in a grove, he explained. Sod houses were not only easier to come by, but were cool in summer and warm in winter with walls two feet thick.
The Morgan photograph album has a picture of Ed -plowing with a six house span and he remembers the first late model threshing machine he used threshing 1,000 bushels in half a day.
In 1916 he traded a pair of horses for a model T Ford, but when his children by his first marriage went to school he remembers that they drove the three-and-a-half miles in a buggy.
The Old West wasn’t like the picture shows, he said They show cowboys out chasing cattle on the run. I’ve worked with men but I never saw them running. And in all my time there I only saw two fellows carrying guns. They just had rifles on their saddles in case of coyotes going after the calves.
In 1937 Ed came back and married Ethel Prosser, a childhood neighbor. The two of them had gone to school together in the Wathen school north of Billings crossroad, the neighborhood where Ethel grew up. She had been a member of Bethany Church.
They farmed here until 20 years ago when they sold the place and moved to town. Their furnishings include an elaborately carved settee and other pieces from Mrs. Morgans family that are over 100 years old.
Both of the Morgan are more interested in the thing they have planned for the coming months than in the way thing were long ago, but the memories are there.
I gave up chewing tobacco when I was 18, Ed said. The young fellows all chewed tobacco out in Nebraska because if a snake bit you, you could smear your chaw on the bite. But one time I started in on a double wad and it made me sick. I never chewed again. Its been 73 years since I smoked a cigar and I never smoked a cigarette.
When I was in the Platt River Valley near Lexington, Nebraska, the migrating geese came through in the spring.
When we sowed grain it had to be disced in before night or youd come out the next morning and the geese would be there eating all the seed.

Before there were trucks to haul away your grain or livestock for sale, I lived 30 miles from the railroad. To get there meant an overnight stop on the way with the teams and wagons.

Mrs. Morgan who whizzes through a daily schedule that many women half her age couldn't manage, laughs when she remembers how sickly she was as a child.

When I was three years old, the family never thought Id make it and they got a burial dress ready for me. The little white dress dress, stiff with elaborate embroidery that nay museum would love to have, is among her belongings. She turned out not to be sickly after all.

Ethel was the childhood sweetheart of Grandpa Morgan. He returned to Washington IN to marry her after raising his family in NE.

A note from a cousin Shriley Wood....
Barbara, Just a quick note to tell you that it was 49 years ago this month that your great grandmother Sadie died. She lived in the Morgan house in Portland and I did too. She and I were "buds" for several months. Your grandmother, Lucille and my mother Doris, came to Portland and I picked them up at the airport and also took them back for their flight back to Lexington. The funeral was in Vernonia, Oregon and the cemetery is beautiful.

notes from Kena Jacobs --

Esther & Lewis were near and dear to the hearts of my siblings and I. They had a beautiful home on Mt. Tabor in Portland. It was so large that in my mind as a child I was sure they were quite wealthy. They lived in only a portion of the main floor of their house. The upstairs and basement were converted into separate apartment units. I think Lewis’ mother lived in one of those units for a number of years. There was a large parlor on the main floor that was normally closed off. I remember being in it only once and marveling that a room so grand stood quiet, unused, throughout the year. It was at their house that I first saw color TV and a "radar range" (microwave). One of the things we liked best about their home was Lewis's horse collection. He had horses lined up all along the walls of more than one room of the house - bronze, wooden, ceramic, you name it! If it was good quality and western in theme, he had it. I particularly remember a bronze stagecoach with riders and its teams of horses. I think that piece was a lamp on an end table.

Lewis loved to do stained glass. The house in which they lived in Portland still has several stained glass windows that he made. I lived on Mt. Tabor just three or four blocks from the house for three years (about 3 yrs ago now). I enjoyed walking past the house and looking at it. I never knocked on the door, though. My memories of the interior are so connected to those beautiful horses and my aunt & uncle that it just wouldn't be the same.

Lewis also loved to collect rocks. He collected thunder eggs and a wide variety of agates, jasper, gneiss, and other stones. He cut slabs of the rock (slices about 1/4 inch thick) and had beautiful tables constructed to display them embedded in and covered by a clear layer of plastic. The tables were supposed to go to his granddaughters, but my parents have them. I don't know whether the girls didn't want them, but Don put them in the estate auction. Nobody bid on them. My parents ended up casting uncontested bids and getting them for perhaps $5-10 each.

During the early 70's, Mt. Tabor attracted quite a few hippies. There's a beautiful, forested park at the top of the mountain. It attracted quite a few of them. Esther & Lewis's house was just a short distance from the park. Some of the free spirits decided to take up residence under the front porch of their house. It's on a hill, so they had a fair amount of clearance. The front door leads into the parlor which they never used. As a result, Esther & Lewis had no idea that they were living there. One day, a neighbor asked Lewis why he was letting all those people live under his porch. He opened the door to the area under his porch and found numerous sleeping bags, campstoves, etc. He hauled it all out onto the lawn and posted a notice saying something like "Come get your things, no questions asked." No one came to claim their equipment.

E-mail from a cousin Shirley Wood......

Barbara,

The Morgan house was very beautiful. 6733 SE Morrison. Mt. Tabor is also very beautiful. Darlene Morgan had a friend by the name of Gayle Johnson who, at that time, was with "young life". Gayle and I always played tennis on Mt. Tabor.

The house had 33 rooms. Aunt Sadie lived upstairs. After she died, Esther had a friend from Janzen living in the house and she smoked. Early in the morning the smoke filtered its way clear to the basement where Lewis and I had built my room. A one car garage went down into the basement and Darlene parked her car down in the garage.

Although Darlene was very crippled with polio, she and I would have some very interesting ping-pong games. You can tell that I have very fond memories of that house as well.

Darlene nicknamed me "Agnes" as she thought Shirley sounded too much like a girl.

When Lucille Adeline and Lewis Valentine Morgan, the twins, were born in Sept 1908. Jeff Adams and Bill Saulsbury rode their horses about 8 miles to see the twins. They were born on Aunt Maude (Hendrix) and Uncle Huston Adams farm between Overton and Lexington Nebraska. Bill Saulsbury was about 8 years old at the time. He later married Lucille Morgan. -- from Jean Saulsbury McTygue her daughter.

Lucille A. Saulsbury was united in marriage to William Saulsbury Nove. 24 1924 at St. Anns Catholic Church in Lex. They resided in the Overton-Lexington area all of their lives. She was employed as a store clerk at Frosts and McDonalds clothing Stores.

They applied for a marriage license, but the priest failed to record the marriage with the county. St. Ann's Church in Lexington does have a record of the marriage.
