

MOTHER OF DR. M. C. JOHNSON PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Mary A. Johnson Died Friday Morning at Home of Her Son on Busseron Street After Short Illness.

Mrs. Mary A. Johnson, widow of the late Benjamin F. Johnson, passed away Friday morning at the home of her son, Dr. Morris H. C. Johnson, 1339 Busseron street. Death terminated an illness of a few weeks, and was due to complication of diseases incidental to old age. She was aged 75 years, 11 months and 5 days at the time of her death.

For the past four years Mrs. Johnson had been making her home with her son, Mr. Johnson in this city, coming to Vincennes a short time after the death of her husband.

The following children survive: Dr. Morris Johnson, Bert Dodd, Martin H. Johnson, F. A. Johnson and W. W. Johnson, of this city; Bert Ernest Johnson, of San Francisco, Calif.; Miss Sallie Johnson, of Dale, Ill.; Mrs. Emma Sharp, of Terre Haute. She is also survived by two brothers, Dr. V. Parkhill, of Hillsboro, Ill., and William Parkhill, of Dalvin, Ill., and five sisters, Miss Sarah Parkhill, Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Mrs. Maggie C. Mitchell, Darven, Wis.; Mrs. Eva Cross, of Arkansas; Mrs. Belle Tolly, of McLeansboro, Ill., and Mrs. Ida Underwood, of Dahlgren, Ill.

Mrs. Johnson was a member of the Christian church at Owensville her former home. Short funeral services will be held from the residence of Dr. Johnson Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock, the Rev. L. C. Howe, pastor of the First Christian church officiating. The remains will then be taken to Owensville and services will be conducted from the Christian church there Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Burial will be made in the Saulman cemetery at Owensville.

Petersburg Youth Who Recently Joined Navy to Escape Arrest, Has Narrow Escape From Being Nabbed

(Special to The Commercial) Petersburg, Ind., March 8.—Admiral Hays, a young man wanted in this county for house-breaking recently joined the navy after escaping from officers here, but yesterday returned to visit friends for several days, and Sheriff Reece Burns, and Guy Wilkins, becoming informed of his whereabouts, went to Winslow, Indiana to arrest him on the old charge, but Hays saw them coming, and outran the officers.

He ran through people's houses, through alleys, yards and outbuildings and finally eluded the officers. Citizens who witnessed the chase joined with the officers, believing that young Hays was a deserter from the U. S. Navy.
