Will copied from Key and Allied families by Julia Lane

In the name of God, Amen. I, Marshall Key, of the county of La Rue, and State of Kentucky, hereby make and publish this as my last will and testament, viz:

1st. I direct all my liabilities and funeral expense to be paid.

2nd. By proper deeds of conveyance, etc., I have made provision for my beloved wife, and I now own no property except some promissory notes and money which I devise to my two daughters, Mary S. Underwood and Rebecca Louise Macauley to be equally divided between them. If they or either of them should die before I do, leaving children, then their child or children to take what their mother would take under this will.

In witness whereof I have affixed my signature this 20th day of August, A. D., 1877.
