The following was copied from "Key and Allied Families" by Mrs. Julian Lane pages 324 and 325.

March 15, 1929.

The records of this office show that one Landon Key served in the Revolutionary War as a private of a company of the 8th Virginia Regiment in a battalion composed of the different regiments of the Virginia Line, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Posey. Neither the date of his entry into service nor the date of his separation therefrom is shown by the records on file in this office. His name first appears on the company muster roll for the months of January to April, 1782, dated April 16, 1782, and is last borne on the company muster roll covering the period from April 1 to September 1, 1782, dated September 10, 1782, which last roll shows that he was sick in hospital.

The records also show that one Landon Key, possibly the same man, served in that war as a soldier of Virginia Infantry. Rank and organization not further indicated. His name appears on a record under the heading: "A List of Soldiers of the Virginia Line on Continental Establishment who have received Certificates for the balance of their full pay Agreeable to an Act of Assembly passed November Session 1781," which shows that on May 15, 1783, the sum of L18 S4 (pound & shilling) was received by one French Strother.

The records further show that one Price Key served in said war as a private in Captain George Stubblefield's Company, 5th Virginia Regiment, command successively by Colonel Charles Scott and Lieutenant Colonel Josiah Parker. The date of enlistment is not shown. His name appears on the pay rolls of that company covering the period from September 28, 1776, to May 1, 1777, and on the company muster roll covering the period from August, 1776, to May 31, 1777, dated June 11, 1777, which muster roll bears remark: Light Horse.

The records also show that one Price Key (surname also borne as Keys) served in the Revolutionary War as a corporal, a sergeant and a quartermaster sergeant in Captain Moors Fauntleroy's Troops, 4th Regiment Light Dragoons, commanded by Colonel Stephen Moylan. A roll of that company dated Phillips Mannor September 23, 1778, shows that he enlisted March 4, 1777, for the war, and that he was recruited from Virginia. Another record shows that he enlisted in February, 1778, for 3 years; was mustered as a sergeant September 1, 1777, and as a quartermaster sergeant in September, 1778. The date of the termination of his service has not been found.

Elisha, William, John and Jesse Barker, brothers, and James Stewart, a half brother--all natives of Kentucky--moved here in 1807, and settled in the Montgomery neighborhood, near Owensville. They all had families when they came but Jesse. He married Elizabeth, the daughter of William Key, who was an early resident of Gibson County. Jesse settled on the southwest 1/4 of Section 1, Township 3, Range 11, a little north of Owensville, where he lived until his death in 1863. Mary J., wife of Samuel Davis, of Patoka Township, Sarah, wife of Joseph Mhear of Johnson County, and Hiram Barker, born in 1824, now living on the old home place, are all the descendants of the original Barker family, living in the county.

Copied from "History of Gibson County, Indiana," by Tartt page 197.

Elias, William, John and Jesse Barker, brothers, and James Stewart, a half brother, all natives of Kentucky, also arrived and located in the Montgomery settlement in 1807. They all had families but Jesse, when they came, and he married Elizabeth, daughter of William Key, an early settler about three miles north of Owensville, and made his farm just at the north edge of that village, where he died in 1863. Mary J., wife of Samuel Davis, in Patoka Township, Sarah, wife of Joseph Mhear, and Hiram Baker, who was born February 25, 1824, on the old place and still continues to reside there, are all of the descendants of the Baker family in the county.

The following is taken from a family memoir, written by Wilson Hopkin Barker in October 15, 1901, while staying at the home of his son, B.F. Barker, Hood County, TX.

Birth and Native State I was born in Princeton, Gibson County, Indiana, February 19, 1819 My father's name was William Barker; my mother's maiden name was Abiah Hopkins They married in Kentucky about the beginning of the last century. Immigration About the same time my father and three of his brothers and two of his full sisters and one half-brother and one half-sister immigrated to Indiana, Gibson County. His brothers names, John, Elias, and Jesse; his sisters, Mary who married Joseph Skidmore who subsequently moved to White County, Indiana; and Mrs. Grishem, her given name I have forgotten; his half brother, James Stewart; his half sister, Polly, married William Hanks, a Primitive Baptist preacher. About the same time two of my mother's brothers moved to Indiana in Warrick County, their names Frank and Henry Hopkins. She had a cousin in William Hopkins, who came with them. He died soon after. His widow married Charles Juco.

Family Record:

John Barker, the oldest, I know but little about his family. He moved to the lead mines in Missouri as far back as I can remember. He had three sons, William, Allen, and Jackson who came back to Indiana. Uncle John froze to death in Missouri.

Elias Barker married Miss Polly Fitzgerald. They had five sons, James, John, Jesse, Stewart, and William. I remember but two daughters - their names forgotten. The oldest married Long John Woods as he was called. The other married Will Lagrange. Financially Uncle Elias was just a good liver. He died in Gibson County at a ripe old age.

Aunt Polly Stewart and William moved to Illinois about 1841 and settled on the Little Wabash where they were in 1846. William was cross-eyed; James had but one eye. John moved to Texas in 1844 or 5 and he saw a moccasin track, it was said, and he loaded his wagon and went back to his old neighborhood where he was last heard from, an influential citizen and successful farmer. He said he left Texas to save his wife and children from the scalping knife of the Indians.

William, John Barker's son, moved to Texas from Missouri in 1848 and was drowned in Little River.

Jesse Barker, the youngest of the four brothers, married Miss Elizabeth Kee, by which was born four sons, and as many or more daughters. The boys were William, Stewart, Jackson, and Hiram; the youngest, was in Mount Vernon on the Ohio River, county forgotten, and a banker and rich when I last heard from him. The other two boys I know nothing about. Uncle Jesse lived 12 miles S.W. of Princeton, Gibson County, Indiana. He was a successful farmer and a lover of fine stock of all kinds, and did much in improving the same in that country. He and wife died on the place where I first knew them at a ripe old age. I will say here that Aunt Betsy as we called her had a brother, William Kee, who was employed in building the first steam mill at Princeton when he lost his balance and fell from the top of the building and broke his back from which he recovered but he could never walk. He learned the shoemaker's trade.

At the beginning of my sketch, I spoke of William Barker, my father, his marriage, etc. He and my mother had twelve children, nine girls and three boys.

Mary Barker, my father's sister, married Joseph Skidmore. They moved from Kentucky to Indiana before I could remember and settled in White County. They had 22 children...One son, named William, lived in Warrick County. They had a daughter her name, I have forgotten, she married Moses McKinney...

My father had another sister, name forgotten. She married Thomas Grishem in Kentucky and moved to Warrick County, Indiana in about 1836 or 7. They had a large family, mostly girls; names forgotten, except 3 boys, James, Thomas and David.

James Stewart, my father's half-brother, had 5 boys and 2 girls -- William, John, James, Harrison and Robert; the girls names forgotten. One married Jacob Johnson, the other a Mr. Simpson. William sold goods and shipped produce at Mt. Vernon, on the Ohio, Indiana. He was a cripple.

SAMUEL HENDERSON DAVIS is an enterprising farmer whose life has been a busy and useful one, and who, through earnest effort has overcome the difficulties and obstacles in his path and worked his way upward to success. He was born in Pennsylvania County, Virginia, March 7, 1819, a son of Joshua and Sallie (Green) Davis, the former a native of Pennsylvania County, and the latter of Lulenburg County, Virginia. The father received a common school education and was reared by his mother for his own father had died when he was twelve years of age. When twenty-eight years of age he married Sallie Green, and they became the parents of eight children-Parthenia, Louisa and Agnes, all deceased; Samuel H., Joshua, Wm. J., Sallie Ann and George, who have all passed away. In 1826 Joshua Davis removed to Western Tennessee and in 1828 came to Gibson County, where he followed farming until his death, which occurred March 19, 1843. His wife died in October of the same year. Though he came to this county a poor man, he acquired a comfortable competence and at his death was the owner of a good farm of one hundred and sixty acres. Samuel H. Davis was a child of six years when he came with his parents to Gibson County, and here, amid the wild scenes of the frontier he was reared to manhood, experiencing the usual hardships and privations of pioneer life. He assisted in the development of the home farm until twenty-four years of age, when he started out in life for himself as a farm hand. he was married January 28, 1848, and onto the marriage were born eight children, namely: George W., Louisa, Elizabeth, deceased; John H., Mary Ann, Samuel, deceased: Ella Jane and William J., deceased. The mother of this family, who to her husband was a faithful helpmeet through many long years, is now totally blind. For a near after his marriage Mr. Davis operated the old home farm, and then purchased one hundred and sixty acres of land upon which he has since resided. The early days formed a period of hardship and earnest toil, but he courageously worked on. and as the years passed his financial resources increased, enabling him to add new comforts to the home and supply his family with better advantages. He has given to each of his children a quarter section of land at the time of their marriage, and yet retains a comfortable property, from which he derives a good income for himself. He is truly a self-made man and in his life there is much that is worthy of emulation.

ALLENTA/ALLANEY WHEELER BROKAW (1828 -)

From the Census records the families of Wheelers, Brokaws, and Ingrams are related by marriages. While Elizabeth Ingram was thought to be a Wheeler (daughter of James and Elizabeth Welch Wheeler) no document has been found as certain evidence. There is very strong circumstantial evidence for it. First, her mother is also Elizabeth; second, she was born in Virginia. Third she is listed in the 1850 census with the Paten Wheeler family, also born Virginia. Finally, listed with George (brother of Isaac ?) & Sarah on the 1870 Census is Charles Wheeler (he is listed on the 1880 census as adopted). Also two Ingram children are enumerated with her, Bell and Columbus.

Allenta-Allaney Caroline WHEELER and Issac J. BROKAW were married on 17 Aug 1847 in Gibson Co., IN.²⁹ Issac J. BROKAW¹⁰, son of Abraham BROKAW and Elizabeth EVERSOLE, was born about 1821 in Gibson Co., IN.²⁸

ANDREW JACKSON WHEELER [1831 -1896]
 Gibson County, Knox County, Indiana
 New Madrid County, Missouri.

Father: Samuel Wheeler
 Mother: Nancy Key

Andrew Jackson Wheeler was born in 1831, the son of Samuel and Nancy Key Wheeler and grandson of James and Elizabeth Welch Wheeler of Buckingham County, Virginia and pioneers of Gibson County, Indiana. He is listed as Jackson on the 1850 Census with his father.

Andrew Jackson Wheeler served in the Civil War from October 1861 to January 24, 1864 as private in 58th Indiana Volunteers Co. C Commanded by William A. Downey. He re-enlisted as a veteran and served under Capt. Augusta Milburn, 58th Regiment Indiana, Vet. Company C. He mustered out July 25, 1865 at Loudon County, Tennessee.

A "Delclaration for Original Invalid pension" was made, New Madrid County, Missouri on August 3, 1895 at age 64. He stated that he suffered from rheumatism in back legs and shoulder. His pension claim number was 955.786.

The following affidavit was given in New Madrid County, Missouri, March 26, 1892:

"that he lost his hearing in the heavy cannonading at Chattanooga, Tenn., in the fall of 1863. Source is not due to vicious habits and is of a permnant disability. He further states that the instigation was first caused by the signal cannon of 100# was fired to advance and then kept up by artillery firing until the fight was over, the older I get the worse my hearing gets."

March 26, 1892" I futher declare I never have applied for a pension since 1891. I futher declare, I made application before Dr. Peck of Vincennes, Ind. and do not know his report. It was in the year 1867 and I had to travel for my health and could not attend to it.

"Civil War Soldier Wrote family Just before death."

"With the advent of Memorial day interest will attach to the following letter received by the late Minerva Wheeler from her husband, Harrison Wheeler a former resident of Princeton, while he was serving with the 58th Indiana Volunteer Infantry in the Civil War during 1862.

'Dear wife and children: I received your letters dated March 12 and 20 and was glad to hear you were all well. I am stouter and healthier than I have been in six months. I weight one hundred and thirty-six pounds in my shirt sleeves and gaining all the time now. I think the hard time is over now with us. I have sent my short coat home and your pictures and comfort and one pair of mitts for I could not carry them. And one tactic book in care of David Archer. Take good care of the tactic book. I am going to send my overcoat in two or three weeks. The paymaster is here now and we will get our money in a few days. We have drawn a new suit of clothes and will send all home that is worth sending. I want to come home when we draw our money if I can get a furlough but I don't know how it will be. Tell Mr. Sterns that I would like to see him and Mrs. Sterns. Tell William Archer I want to come home at hay harvest to beat him a-mowing. Tell Mr. Archer my best respects for him and all the rest. Friendship has stood true with them and I could live and die with them. I know that no better neighbors could ever be. I got one letter from Mont yesterday and was glad to hear from them. He said they were all well but had had a hard winter. His letter was dated March 7. I have written seven letter to him and got two from him. If Jack is still living, I would like to know it. You said that Sarah DePriest was sick and that George said if I was sick that he would come after me or send money to me. I don't need any money, if he has any to spare tell him to help you some. Now something to Caroline and John Riley. I want them to be pretty children and read their books and tell John Riley not to go with bad boys. Try and make a little garden if you can, it will be some help to you. Write when you can and I will do the same. So no more for the present but remain your true husband till death.

HarrisonWheeler to Minerva Wheeler and Caroline and John Riley and little Lisey, my dear little baby.-- P.S. I sent two letters by Hugh Green and told him to stop and tell you all about me and all the rest and the true state of facts. That is all, write often and soon.'

"The soldier who wrote the above letter was soon sent to a hospital where he died. Whether he ever expected to see his loved ones again when he wrote the letter is a matter of conjecture. The baby, Lisey alluded to in the letter is Nancy Elizabeth Mounts known as Aunt Lisey who now lives at 22 1/2 N. West St." (Princeton, Gibson County, Indiana--rwjr)

It left for the field in December, crossing the Ohio at Louisville. Being assigned to Wood's division of Buell's army, it marched, during the winter of 1861 and 1862, through central Kentucky, stopping a few weeks at Bardstown, Lebanon, Spring Garden and Bowling Green. March 1 it arrived at Nashville, remaining there until April 1, when it started for Pittsburg Landing, reaching there on the evening of the second-day's battle of Shiloh. It engaged in the siege of Corinth and after the evacuation of that place, marched into northern Alabama, and thence to Shelbyville, Tenn. From here it moved to Decherd, where it lay for a few weeks, marching thence with Buell's army via Nashville to Louisville, where it arrived October 1. From here it immediately counter-marched to Nashville, in pursuit of Bragg's army, reaching there in the latter part of November. November 26th the regiment moved toward Murfreesboro, and the day following charged the rebels at Lavergne. It participated in the battles of Stone River, December 31 and January 1 and 2, 1863, being attached to Hascall's brigade of Wood's division of the Twenty-first Corps, losing eighteen killed, eighty-seven wounded and five missing, making a total loss of 110. The regiment remained in the vicinity of Murfreesboro until the movement against Tullahoma was commenced, when it moved with the army in that direction. It was in the brigade that was first to enter Chattanooga, and was engaged in the battle of Chickamauga, losing in killed, wounded and missing, 171, out of an aggregate of 400 engaged.

The regiment then fell back with the army to Chattanooga, and was engaged in the battle at that place on the 23d of November, and was in Wagoner's brigade of Sherman's division, in the charge on Mission Ridge, on the 25th of November, losing five killed and sixty-one wounded.

Jasper was one of those killed or mortally wounded in the charge on Mission Ridge.

The Regiment (550 men) mustered out July 25, 1865 at Indianapolis. During the term of service the regiment lost in battle and disease 268 men.

Rebecca Ann Lamb Wheeler is listed on the 1870 Census with her father's family. The marriage to Lewis Long in 1869 may be a different Rebecca Wheeler. With her father, John Lamb, she is still listed as Wheeler. Children listed after her are John, age 6, Dorry J., age 4 and Rebecca, age 5 months (born in January of 1870). A letter in the possession of Bette Millaway (descendant of Mary Jane Wheeler Davis) states that Andrew J. Wheeler died 29 October 1866, nearly 3 months before Dorry J. was born. Rebecca died when Dorry J. was 5 years old. There is therefore a question about a second marriage and who was the father of the younger Rebecca born in January of 1870. The Census still lists her as "Wheeler" as well as the three children. The Census may be in error or perhaps Lewis died before the Census and she retained the Wheeler name.

Andrew Jackson WHEELER and Rebecca Ann LAMB had the following children:

- 223 i. John W. WHEELER¹⁰ was born on 2 Apr 1864 in Gibson Co., IN.⁴⁸ He died in Sep 1941 at the age of 77 in Billings, OK. Information from Bette Millaway, Corrine, Utah.

Gabarrella may not have children of her own. Children of George are by two previous marriages. John W. and Robert were Sarah Wheeler and George's children. At least three other children were by his first known wife Cynthia Ann (maiden name unknown) of Kentucky. John W. may have been a son of James Bridges listed together with DePriest family in 1860 Census.

SYLVESTER B. ROBINSON.

Sylvester B. Robinson, a farmer and influential citizen of Gibson county, was born here September 15, 1852, the son of James A. Robinson, who was born in Warren county, Kentucky, August 20, 1826. The father of James Robinson was John, a native of Virginia, who after his marriage to a Miss Daugherty, went to Kentucky, where they secured a large tract of land on which they made their home and where he died. After his death, his wife came to Gibson county, Indiana, about the year 1847, and here she died in 1861. They were the parents of seven children, namely: Sarah, William, Earl, Milton, James A., Robert and John. This entire family is now deceased. James A., one of the sons, came to Gibson county about the year 1847 and was that year married to Louisa Benson, a native of Gibson county, born in 1833. She was a daughter of William Benson, of Hardin county, Kentucky, who had come to Gibson county and married Margaret Leach, who was born in Virginia in 1803. William Benson was originally from Virginia and came here in 1816, where he died in 1878. The wife's death occurred in 1866. Mr. Benson was a wheelwright by trade, quite skilled in that day when all sorts of farm implements and vehicles were hand made. He was also a farmer, owing and cultivating a large tract of land. Their children follow: Mary Jane, deceased; Sylvester, who died on March 31, 1914; Martha, deceased; Ellen, wife of Amasa Wilson, of Montgomery township; Louisa (mother of the immediate subject of this sketch), of Owensville, Indiana; Sarah, deceased; William C., who was killed at Kingston, North Carolina; and Lemyra, deceased.

James A. Robinson, after his marriage to Louisa Benson in 1847, located on a farm in Gibson county, where he remained until 1856, at which time he moved to DeWitt county, Illinois. He remained there ten years, and in 1866 returned to Gibson county, where he farmed until 1903. He was always anxious to introduce new and helpful methods into his agricultural work and has the distinction of having brought the first corn planter into Gibson county. He was a man of genial disposition who made scores of friends. Always a staunch Republican, he was active in the politics of his county and filled an office or two. He and his wife were the parents of nine children, seven of whom are now living. Their names follow: Martha, born September 20, 1850, deceased, the wife of Elisha L. Pritchett, a farmer, furniture dealer and funeral director; Sylvester B., subject of this sketch; George C. died in infancy; Woodfin D., born January 27, 1857, in DeWitt county, Illinois; graduated from State University at Bloomington in 1879, taught school for a while, later attended law school at Ann Arbor, Michigan, from which he was graduated in 1882, was admitted to the bar and took up the practice of his chosen profession in Princeton. In 1884 he was elected county superintendent of the schools of Gibson County. He and A. P. Twineham operated the Gibson County Leader for about a year. He was first elected judge in 1895 and served twelve years on the appellate bench. He also represented his district in the state Legislature. In 1909 he removed to Evansville, Indiana, where he took up the practice of law with a partner under the firm name of Robinson & Stilwell. His wife was Jessie Montgomery. The fifth child in this family was William C., born June 28, 1859 residing at present in Colorado Springs, Colorado. In his earlier years he was a dealer in grain at Oakland City, Indiana, and later went to Kansas, where he started in banking business, and still later to Holyoke, Colorado, where he practiced law and engaged in real estate business. He was also made judge in the county courts there. Later he removed to Colorado Springs, where he has since practiced law. He is a staunch Republican and was elected senator of his district. His wife was Lida Dorsey. The sixth child is Minnie Belle, born June 30, 1862, wife of Henry Matick, of Owensville, Indiana, a farmer and stock dealer; Dove, the seventh child, born in October, 1866, wife of Osborn Lockhart, dealer in coal and building materials at Owensville; Ada, the eighth child, born in August, 1869, wife of John A. Mauck, a salesman traveling out of Fort Smith, Arkansas, and Anna, the ninth and last child, born in 1875, wife of Orville McGinnis, of Evansville, Indiana, a graduate of DePauw University and now an attorney. He has served in office and was referee in bankruptcy.

Sylvester B. Robinson received his elementary education in the schools of DeWitt county, Illinois, later attending the high school at Owensville, Indiana, and the Normal College at Lebanon, Ohio, from which he was graduated in 1872. He taught school for five years in the schools of Gibson county and then took up farming in Patoka, township. Here he remained for two years, when he went to Miller, South Dakota, took up a homestead claim and was there three years. At the end of that time he returned to Gibson county and was interested in the coal business at Owensville for about eight years, since which time he has carried on farming and stock raising in Patoka township.

Sylvester B. Robinson was first married on August 12, 1875, to Mary Barker, of Owensville, daughter of Hiram and Eliza

(Fitzgerald) Barker. He was a farmer and pioneer of Gibson county. To their union was born one child, Pearl, wife of E. D. Fletchall, of Poseyville, Indiana, dealer in live stock. To Mr. and Mrs. Fletchall have been born four children: Emily (deceased), Virginia, E. D., Jr., and Robert I. Mrs. Robinson's death occurred June 28, 1878. Mr. Robinson's second wife was Hattie Jaquess, whom he married September 29, 1892. She was a native of Owensville, Indiana a daughter of William A. and Mary A. (Pollard) Jaquess. Her father was a hotel man and was originally of Poseyville, Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Jaquess had a family of eight children, namely: Roxanna, wife of Richey Summers, of Owensville; Emma, wife of W. A. Stewart, of Vanderbilt, Texas; Lora, wife of Henry Baird, of New Albany, Indiana; Fletcher P., a farmer of Owensville; Hattie, wife of Mr. Robinson; Retta, wife of Charles W. Heistand, of Stamps, Arkansas; Ada B., unmarried, a milliner in Connerville, Indiana, and Minnie, the wife of U. G. Teal, of Owensville, Indiana. By his second marriage, Mr. Robinson has one son, James J., born July 14, 1893, who attended the State University at Bloomington and graduated with the class of 1914.

All through life Mr. Robinson has been a staunch Republican and has taken some active interest in politics, but has never aspired for office as have other members of his family. Religiously, his sympathies are with the Methodist Episcopal church, of which Mrs. Robinson is a member and to which he gives his support. Of undoubted honesty and integrity, Mr. Robinson enjoys the high esteem of all with whom he comes in contact. The members of the family move in the best circles of the community and because of their genuine worth and splendid qualities they enjoy the high regard of all.

SIMON FRENCH.

The gentleman whose name heads this paragraph is widely known in Johnson county and is one of the honored citizens of Union township, where he is living in honorable retirement after a strenuous life of activity in connection with agricultural pursuits. His well-directed efforts in the practical affairs of life, his capable management of his business interests and his sound judgment have brought to him prosperity, and his life demonstrates what may be accomplished by any man of energy and ambition who is not afraid to work and has the perseverance to continue his labors in the face of any disaster or discouragement that may arise. In all the relations of life Mr. French has commanded the confidence and respect of those with whom he has been brought into contact and a biographical history of this locality would not be complete without a record of his career.

Simon French was born March 5, 1846, on the old French farm in Patoka township, Gibson county, Indiana, and has spent practically his entire life in this locality. The father, Phillip French, was born on February 12, 1807, in the state of New Jersey. In early manhood he went to Danville, Kentucky, where he was employed at his trade of brick mason and plasterer. On October 7, 1837, in Kentucky, he married Ann DeMott, a native of that state, born on November 22, 1816, and eventually they came to Gibson county, Indiana, by wagon and he entered forty acres of wild land, on which they erected a typical pioneer log cabin. The land was covered with a dense typical growth of timber and efforts of the most strenuous character were necessary in order to put the land in shape for cultivation. Mr. French put a puncheon floor in his cabin, made a stick chimney, and in every respect their home was a typical frontier place. Mr. French cleared and improved this place and lived there until the end of his life, his death occurring on November 5, 1855. His wife survived her husband many years, dying in 1894. Mr. French was a successful farmer, raising also a great deal of live stock and, in addition to his agricultural pursuits, he was frequently employed by the neighbors as a mason and brick-layer. At the time of his death he was the owner of one hundred and forty acres of good land. He was a Democrat in his political views, and in religion his wife was a member of the General Baptist church. Widely known throughout this section of the country, he was highly respected and esteemed by his entire acquaintance. To him and his wife were born the following children: Peter, born September 11, 1838, lived in this county and also in Kansas, where he followed agricultural pursuits. He is now deceased. He married Melinda Keys, and after he died she became the wife of Squire Weed, of Fort Branch. John J., born January 15, 1839, died in early youth. Mary Ellen, born January 30, 1840, died unmarried. Martha Jane, who died April 24, 1841, became the wife of William Landfair, of Maxim Station, Indiana. Ephraim, born November 24, 1843, died at the age of nineteen years. Simon, the immediate subject of this sketch. William, born December 29, 1850, is a farmer near Dyersburg, Tennessee. Philip B., born February 9, 1856, is a farmer in Union township, this county.

Simon French had but little opportunity to secure a school education, but, being studiously inclined, he acquired a large and accurate fund of general information, being considered a well-informed man. He remained with his parents until he was twenty-five years of age, when he was married, and soon afterwards bought a farm of fifty-three acres in Patoka township. The land was partly improved, but Mr. French at once went to work and brought it up to a high standard of agricultural excellence. He also bought the old homestead farm, on which he lived for ten years, when, in 1903, he moved to Fort Branch, where he is now living retired from active labor. He owns a number of valuable farms in this county, and has in all, in Patoka and Union townships, seven hundred acres of fine land, being numbered among the most substantial citizens of his section of the county. He has always followed farming and stock raising as a vocation, and has met with phenomenal success in both of these enterprises. Starting in life in a small way, he has, with most persistent industry, steady perseverance and good management, gained quite a competency and is numbered among the county's wealthy citizens.

In 1871 Mr. French married Louisa Davis, a native of Patoka township, Gibson county, Indiana, the daughter of Samuel and Jane (Barker) Davis, the mother a native of Owensville, Indiana, and the father of South Carolina. The latter was a farmer during his active life, his later residence being in Patoka township, this county. They were the parents of six children, namely: George; Louisa; Bentley; Mary, who lives on the old home place; Ella, who married Frank Kimmer, of Princeton, and John, who also lives on the old home farm. To Mr. and Mrs. French have been born seven children, of whom six are living, namely: Rosie, the wife of Henry Martin, a farmer in Union township, this county; Vada, who died in early youth; Jesse, who lives on a part of the old homestead farm; Samuel, also a farmer on part of the subject's farm; Stella, the wife of Owen Stephens, of Patoka township, this county; Mary, the wife of Wilbur Strickland, of Princeton, and Barney, a farmer in Patoka township.

Politically a Democrat, Mr. French has for many years been an active participant in local public affairs, though never actively seeking office on his own account. Religiously, he and his wife are earnest and faithful members of the Regular Baptist church. Personally, Mr. French is greatly esteemed by his neighbors, and his name stands for upright conduct and a high standard of manhood and citizenship.

OBITUARY, HENRY GIBSON WHEELER DIED FEBRUARY 14, 1895

[Father: William H. Wheeler]

[Mother: Sarah Ann Neill]

[Grandparents: Payton Wheeler and Catharine Key]

[Great Grandparents: James and Elizabeth Welch Wheeler]

Thursday morning, about 8 o'clock, Henry Wheeler, an old and respected citizen, departed this life, after a sickness of several weeks with typhoid fever, aged nearly 56 years. His life was spent in this county, being mainly engaged in farming, though at one time he was engaged in the sawmill business. In 1860 he was married to Miss Mary B. McClure, who with one son--Lon, now is business in Hazleton--survives him. At the time of his death Mr. Wheeler was and had been for many years a member of Enon G.B. Church. He was a man of positive character who made warm friends and will be long and sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. The funeral was held Saturday morning, interment being in Odd Fellows Cemetery.

After many days suffering with typhoid fever, all that was mortal of Henry G. Wheeler, at 7:40 o'clock this morning, ceased to be and his soul took its flight to God, who gave it. He had been quite low for many days and the family and friends had hoped for the best but the weary body could not withstand the ravages of the dread disease.

Mr. Wheeler was born April 26, 1839. In 1860 he was united in marriage to Mary B. McClure and of this union two children, a son and daughter were born. The daughter, Alma, was called home when just budding young womanhood; the son, Lon, a prominent young businessman of Hazleton, together with the wife and mother, still surviving.

Mr. Wheeler was a member of the Enon General Baptist church, having joined that church many years ago. He was a man of excellent business qualifications and possessed of an indomitable will. While possessed of some peculiar traits of character--as who is not--he was a man of many generous impulses, a good neighbor and a kind and indulgent husband and father.

The stricken mother and son have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement and by none is sympathy more sincerely extended than by the NEWS.

The funeral will take place from the residence on West State Street Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in Odd Fellows Cemetery.

ALMA WHEELER (1861-1879)
Gibson County, Indiana

Father: Henry Gibson Wheeler
Mother: Mary B. McClure

Alma Wheeler died August 14, 1879

Our community was startled, Tuesday, by the report that Miss Alma Wheeler, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of our respected citizen, Henry G. Wheeler, living about 2 miles south of town, had been thrown from a buggy and seriously, and probably fatally injured.

Mr. Wheeler had started, Monday, to go over to Pike Co., along the line of the new railroad for the purpose of purchasing timber, and took his daughter along for company. When they arrived at the farm of Henry Brenton, about 4 miles from Petersburg, Mr. Wheeler left his daughter in the buggy and went up to Mr. Brenton's house to see him about some timber in that vicinity. During his absence a flock of geese came up behind the buggy making a great noise, at which the horse took fright and started to run. It seems Miss Wheeler held on to the horse until he had run about a hundred yards when coming to an embankment she was thrown out striking her head on the ground with great violence. She was still entangled in the vehicle, and in this condition was dragged a distance of about 50 yards further. When her father reached her she was insensible, and on examination she was found to be very badly cut and bruised about the head and face, and was bleeding profusely from the mouth and ears. She was immediately placed in a conveyance and taken to Petersburg and medical aid summoned. This unfortunate affair occurred about 5 o'clock Monday evening, and at 9 o'clock yesterday morning there was no improvements. There is no hope of her recovery.

Miss Wheeler was a young lady held in high esteem by a large circle of acquaintances about Princeton. She was one of the graduating class of 1878, of Princeton High School, and her sad fate makes a gloom ending of what promised to be a bright and happy life as well a life of usefulness.

Roy,

I have an 1870 census for Robert and Nancy Short in Scott Twp. of Vanderburg Co. It shows--

Robert Short, 29, Farmer, Ind

Nancy, 28, Ill

Elisabeth, 25, Ill

Walter 2, Ind

The Elisabeth puzzles me. With no last name, you would assume that it was Short, but Robert's sister Elizabeth was 13 years older than him. Did Nancy Wheeler have a sister Elisabeth, and were they born in Illinois?

The only other info I have on Robert is from the Mt. Vernon Democrat 6/16/1887, when his brother John M. Short died. It's sort of amusing, and I'll type it here, for your file. It indicates that he had a wife then.

"On Thursday morning last, the body of John Short, of Point township, was being brought to the city for burial and as the funeral was crossing the Templeton bridge, about two miles south-west of here, Robert Short, a brother of the dead man, became temporarily insane, jumped headlong into a ravine 30 feet deep, sprang to his feet and seizing his pocket knife cut an ugly gash in his throat. His friends sprang to his side and took his knife away from him but could not hold him. He ran a long distance through thickets and wheatfields and as he reached the river bank became rational. In the meantime a large number of his soldier friends searched for him, but in vain, and concluded he had died, but in the evening he came marching up Second Street to learn what was the matter. He did not remember anything about the sad affair and when told what he had done appeared much distressed. His wife and friends consoled him the best they could, and he began to regain his strength at once. He has our sympathy."

Here are the census listings for William O. Short in the 1860 and 1880 censuses--

1860 Vanderburg Co (Scott Twp.)

Oldham Short, 29, farmer, Ind.

Dotia, 25, Ind.

William Fulweiler, 7, Ind. (Don't know who this child was--Is name familiar to you?)

1880 Barton Co MO (Golden City)

Short, William O, 49, minister, Ind, NC, Ind

Short, Dotia C., 46, Ind, Ind, Ky

I'm interested in the William O. Short in Barton Co MO in the 1900 census, but I don't believe it was the same guy. The Methodist Archives told me William was born July 18, 1830, which agrees with the 3 censuses (1850,70 & 80). The Methodists have no record of him after 1880. Normally, they put obituaries in the Methodist annual report for deceased pastors, but there is no record of his death with them.

There were 3 other Short families in Barton Co. in 1880, one the man born in Del., another in Ind., and the other in Ky. Puzzling! I may do a little more exploration on the net in Barton Co. There is so much more stuff coming online all the time. By the way, I have Wm. Oldham's Methodist assignments from his ordination in St. Louis. You may know that, in Evansville, the family were members of Kratzville Methodist Church, which disbanded in 1902, and no one knows where their records went. Shame!

Jane Wheeler Warrick Boling sent me quite a bit on the Wheelers, back when she and I were working on our Kirkpatrick/Massey families. I know how Dotia and Nancy fit into the Wheelers, but was hoping for more on their later lives.

Thanks again for your help. If I can help you anymore with the Shorts, let me know.

NAPOLION B. WHEELER (1849 - 1893)

Napoleon B. Wheeler was the son of James and Elenor Milburn Wheeler. His father died when he was about 3 years old. His mother married Thomas Williams 18 July 1854. He was living in White River township in 1880 at a Hotel run by Robert A. Hindman. He worked as a railroad engineer. He married Emeline Briscoe 12 October 1873. He died June 1893. The following is taken from a Princeton newspaper dated June 15, 1893--

Instantly Killed

The fatal accident that befell N. B. Wheeler, which is briefly referred to by our Hazelton correspondent, is a most distressing affair. He had been to Wheatland on business and was on his return to Hazelton. He boarded the south bound limited express which leaves Vincennes about 11:30 and makes no stops until it reaches Princeton. But the train slows up a little at Deckers before crossing the White River bridge and Mr. Wheeler being aware of that fact, and being himself a railroad engineer, thought he could easily leave the train at that point and walk the short distance from there to Hazelton. But in attempting to carry out his purpose he was thrown against a small house used by the bridge watchman with such force as to crush his skull, causing instant death. Mr Wheeler was about 40 years old and was engaged in the photograph business at Wheatland. He was a son of Mrs. Ellen (Elenor) Wheeler (Williams), and has several relatives in this place. He leaves a wife and one son.

Mrs. Wheeler was removed immediately to the home of her daughter, Mrs. [Minnie] Samuel Crowder, where medical attention was given by a Patoka physician. But she never rallied from the attack and death came about 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Wheeler was about 52 years of age and is survived by as husband and several children. The 6th child of Golden and Elizabeth (Ruff) Heaps was Charles Golden Heaps born 6 September 1859 in Gibson County and he married Elzina Wheeler on 7 Oct. 1879 in Gibson County. Elzina (Elzinie) Wheeler was born 18 August 1861 in Gibson County the daughter of Andrew Jackson and Narcissus (Mitchell) Wheeler. Narcissus Mitchell was born at Princeton Indiana in 1833 and married Andrew Jackson Wheeler ca. 1855. Andrew Jackson Wheeler was born at Hazleton Indiana in 1831.

The first child of Charles Golden and Elizina (Wheeler) Heaps was Joel Olephant Heaps born 13 September 1880 in Gibson County. Charles and Elizina (Wheeler) Heaps left Gibson County Indiana ca. 1886 for Nebraska taking Charles two nieces Lena Ann and Hattie Harris with them. They settled in Adams County NE.

Thanks for the info on Charles G. Heaps. The G. is for Golden. His father was Golden Heaps b. at Doddington of Cambridge of Cambridgeshire England. Golden was b. ca. 1820 - 22. He m. Elizabeth Ruff on 15 Nov. 1846 at Doddington. Golden and Elizabeth were the parents of 9 children. The first was Harriet Heaps christened on 5 Sept. 1847 at Llandilo Fawr. Carmarthen Wales. (She was my ggrandmother). The 6th child was Charles Golden Heaps b. 6 Sept. 1859 in Gibson County IN. He m. Elzinia Wheeler on 7 Oct. 1879 in Gibson County. I see one child of Charles and Elzinia was Ada b. in Gibson County. Strange that I have never found a record of that birth.

Harriet Heaps m. John D. Harris in Gibson County in 1865. I have been looking for over 20 years for the parents of John D. John D. and Harriet (Heaps) Harris first daughter was Salina (Lena) Ann Harris b. in 1866. Harriet d. in Gibson County in 1879. Lena is my grandmother. Golden and Harriet (Heaps) Harris youngest child was Hattie b. May 1878.

Then, sometime in the 1880's my grandmother (Lena) with Hattie went to NE. I never could figure out how a young woman of about 20 and her sister about 8 could just up and go to NE. Then, I found that her uncle Charles Golden and his wife Elzinia went sometime in the 1880's and assumed that my grandmother and her sister went with them. My grandmother worked in Adams County NE (Hastings) for Harrison Swartz. Harrison's wife d. about 1890 and my grandmother m. him. I can't figure out where Hattie was living at this time. Wonder if she stayed with Charles? Wonder if Charles ever lived in Adams County? Anyway, my mother Dora Swartz was b. in Adams County NE in 1895. The family returned to Gibson County in 1900. Hattie never came back. Somewhere, probably in Adams County she m. Albert McIntire. When my grandmother d. in Jan. 1945 her obit listed her sister Hattie McIntire as living in Ekalaka MT. Haven't been able to find anything else about her. As far as I know my grandmother never saw her sister again after she returned to IN in 1900. Yes, I could have asked my grandmother all kinds of questions when I was a child but never did. My mother d. on 17 July 1946 when I was 14.

There were two Andrew Jackson Wheelers living in Gibson County. The one who m. Elzinia I believe was b. in 1825 and the other was b. in 1831. The Andrew Jackson Wheeler b. in 1831 m. Sarah Balch. I believe the two Andrews were first cousins.

[My Note: Jackson Wheeler did not marry Sarah Balch; married Sarah C/S/eals]

Here is some more on the family of Charles Golden and Elzinia (Wheeler) Heaps. Another child by the name of Clarence Rex was b. 20 June 1901 at Broken Bow in Custer County NE.

John Franklin Heaps son of Charles Golden and Elzinia (Wheeler) Heaps was b. 15 Aug. 1885 at Broken Bow. He m. Katherin Mary Bamesberger on 14 Jan. 1912 at Broken Bow. A daughter of John Franklin and Katherin Mary (Bamesberger) Heaps was Virginia Frances Heaps b. 2 March 1914 at Weissert, Custer County NE. A son of John Franklin and Katherin Mary (Bamesberger) Heaps was Robert Edward Heaps b. 5 Jan. 1916 at Broken Bow.

William E. Heaps son of Charles Golden and Elzinia (Wheeler) was b. 8 March 1888 at Broken Bow.

Margaret Elizabeth Heaps daughter of Charles Golden and Elzinia (Wheeler) was b. 27 Oct. 1890.

Charles Leon Heaps son of Charles Golden and Elzinia (Wheeler) was b. 5 Sept. 1897 at Broken Bow.

A Clarence George Heaps b. at Broken Bow f. was Earl Heaps and mother Velma (Smith) Heaps. My guess is that this Clarence wasn't b. at Broken Bow. A Clarence Heaps m. Grace Hyde and had a son Clarence Shayne Heaps b. 20 Jan. 1935 at Freedom, Lincoln NE. (My guess is that this isn't Clarence Rex Heaps.)

A Clarence Joseph Heaps b. 11 July 1905 at Freedom, Lincoln NE son of Joseph and Mary Ellen (Nelson) Heaps m. 7 April 1934 to Grace Hyde at Auburn, Uinta WY.

Hope you can untangle the above.

UTAH HEAPS

The Utah Heaps are related to the Gibson County Heaps. I have the relationship in my Heaps Genealogy but I don't know if they corresponded with each other after arriving in the U.S. The Utah Heaps m. into the Mormons before they left England and with multiple wives things get confusing. The Heaps of Franklin County IN also are related and at least one went to Utah.

There were Heaps in Lincoln County NE before Charles Golden arrived in 1885 therefore maybe he wrote to some of them and that is the reason he went. I would think that he must have known someone or why would he have left IN with a wife and 2 children and go that far away? And, I believe my grandmother age 19 and her younger sister Hattie went with them. Hattie was b. in 1878 and her mother Harriet (Heaps) Harris d. in 1879. Thus, Hattie was only 6 when she left with an older sister to go to NE never to see her other sisters or her father again. Her father John D. Harris didn't die until 1895 in Gibson County. I am not sure that John D. Harris was a very nice person but my grandmother always talked highly of him. Of course she never saw him after 1885 until he died in 1895. I doubt that she came back for his funeral. John D. Harris is buried at Providence Cemetery in Center Township in Gibson County. I remember my mom taking her out there on Memorial Day to lay flowers on his grave. Well, he didn't have a marker so my grandmother would stand at the back door of the church and take so many steps and then turn right and take so many more steps and then lay the flowers down and state that is where her father was buried. No one ever told her that as she got older her steps got shorter and she was placing the flowers in a different place each year and over a period of 45 years it was anybody guess how far she was off.

Oh Well,

Onward and Upward

Dan

MAURICE WHEELER -- DEATH OF A LITTLE CHILD

Infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Wheeler called away.

The angel of death laid hands on Maurice Wheeler, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wheeler, of this city Saturday evening and a happy home was left in sadness. The little son was just ten months old. Death occurred at Hazleton where the father is engaged in business, and resulted from congestion of the lungs after a sickness of several weeks during which time every effort known to human skill was made to restore the little one to health. The remains were brought to this city this morning and the funeral held at 3 o'clock today at the Wheeler home in West Broadway. The little casket was draped with beautiful floral offerings presented by friends. Rev. Dr. T. G. Cocks of the First Methodist church, conducted services. During his remarks he paid a most touching tribute to the little one departed saying, "Ten months ago today our Father favored this home with his divinest blessing. His gift of baby Maurice on the 21st of June last welcomed with joy and thanksgiving by his parents. And the little one immediately found the tenderest place in the hearts of all who became acquainted with his infantile loveliness. Every claim which could endear a child to those around it belonged peculiarly to this one. Sunny tempered, happy hearted, patient in spirit and of a most loving disposition, he was the perfect embodiment of the Redeemer's thought of such is the kingdom of heaven."

After the services the little body was tenderly laid to rest in the Odd Fellows cemetery. In this sad hour the bereaved parents have the sincere sympathy and condolence of their large circle of friends."
