1. William KEY¹⁻³ was born on 17 Sep 1767 in VA.¹ He died on 23 Oct 1855 at the age of 88 in Patoka, White River Twp., Gibson Co., IN.¹

The KY IGI page 13,090 lists William as born abt 1771 in Warren Co, KY. This is believed to be in error since the Keys didn't move to Warren Co. until after 1790. It is further believed that when IGI states Warren,,OF they mean VA. William's statement in the 1850 census confirms that he was born in VA. William was a millwright by trade. He was employed in building the first steam mill in Princeton when he lost his balance and fell from the top of the building and broke his back from which he recovered but he could never walk. He learned the shoemaker's trade.

The following is my analysis and conclusion about for placing each the three Elizabeth's with the correct line.

Confusion on the three Elizabeth Key's.

The issue is determining which Elizabeth belongs to which parent. They were most likely daughters of Landon, William and Simon, Jr.

There are two Elizabeths (nee Key) listed in the 1850 Gibson County census. One is in the Isaac Hedspeth household. The other is in the William Allen Spain household with her daughter Jemmia. The third, Elizabeth Barker, was not listed in the Barker household. She is believed to have died in 1843.

Indiana Marriage Records:

Elizabeth Key married Joseph Adams in September 26, 1810 in Knox County. Joseph Adams died in 1814, probably due to the Black Plague which took a heavy toll in the Patoka, Indiana vicinity. Elizabeth Adams married to Daniel McFetridge in February 16, 1823 in Gibson County.

Elizabeth Key (1793-1843) married Jesse Barker on March 23, 1812 in Knox County.

Elizabeth Key married Isaac Hudspeth on 7 May 1815 in Gibson County.

Monroe Key in his collection of information had shown William Key's daughter Elizabeth married to Daniel McFetridge. I believe this to be true because he certainly would have known his aunt and her husband. I have possession of the original ledger which was written before 1925.

Simon Jr. sold his land holdings in Warren Co., Ky on Oct 1813 and June 1814. He lived Northwest of Columbia (Patoka). He was appointed superintendent of a road from Columbia to the rapids on White River on September 1815. The Hudspeth's lived in the Patoka neighborhood. The close proximity and these dates make his daughter available in the time range for the marriage to Isaac Hudspeth on May 7, 1915. Further, Isaac Hudspeth witnessed the deed of sale by Jesse Key in 1817 before he returned to Kentucky. Jesse was the son of Simon, Jr. and brother of Elizabeth.

The confusion is caused by the articles published in Tartt's History of Gibson County and Wilson Hopkins Barkers memoir.

Tartt's History of Gibson County (pages 57 and 197) published in 1884 states that Jesse Barker married Elizabeth Key daughter of William Key. The book further states that Jessie Barker settled on the SW quarter of Section 1, Twp 3, Range 11. This was located about 1/8 mile Northwest of Owensville

Copied from "History of Gibson County, Indiana," by Tartt page 57.

Elisha, William, John and Jesse Barker, brothers, and James Stewart, a half brother--all natives of Kentucky--moved here in 1807, and settled in the Montgomery neighborhood, near Owensville. They all had families when they came but Jesse. He married Elizabeth, the daughter of William Key, who was an early resident of Gibson County. Jesse settled on the southwest 1/4 of Section 1, Township 3, Range 11, a little north of Owensville, where he lived until his death in 1863. Mary J., wife of Samuel Davis, of Patoka Township, Sarah, wife of Joseph Mhear of Johnson County, and Hiram Barker, born in 1824, now living on the old home place, are all the descendants of the original Barker family, living in the county.

Elias, William, John and Jesse Barker, brothers, and James Stewart, a half brother, all natives of Kentucky, also arrived and located in the Montgomery settlement in 1807. They all had families but Jesse, when they came, and he married Elizabeth, daughter of William Key, an early settler about three miles north of Owensville, and made his farm just at the north edge of that village, where he died in 1863. Mary J., wife of Samuel Davis, in Patoka Township, Sarah, wife of Joseph Mhear, and Hiram Baker, who was born February 25, 1824, on the old place and still continues to reside there, are all of the descendants of the Baker family in the county.

Wilson Hopkins Barker (1819-1907) wrote a family memoir in 1901. He stated that Uncle Jesse lived SW of Princeton and was a successful farmer and lover of fine stock. He and his wife died on the place where he first knew them at a ripe old age. He further stated that Aunt Betsy had a brother William Kee, who was employed in building the first steam mill at Princeton when he lost his balance and fell from the top of the building and broke his back from which he recovered but he could never walk. He learned the shoemaker's trade.

Jesse Barker, the youngest of the four brothers, married Miss Elizabeth Kee, by which was born four sons, and as many or more daughters. The boys were William, Stewart, Jackson, and Hiram; the youngest, was in Mount Vernon on the Ohio River, county forgotten, and a banker and rich when I last heard from him. The other two boys I know nothing about. Uncle Jesse lived 12 miles S.W. of Princeton, Gibson County, Indiana. He was a successful farmer and a lover of fine stock of all kinds, and did much in improving the same in that country. He and wife died on the place where I first knew them at a ripe old age. I will say here that Aunt Betsy as we called her had a brother, William Kee, who was employed in building the first steam mill at Princeton when he lost his balance and fell from the top of the building and broke his back from which he recovered but he could never walk. He learned the shoemaker's trade.

I believe Barker confused Elizabeth's brother, William Key (1804-1836), with her uncle, William Key (1767-1855). The shoemaker part of the story is supported by the 1850 census which lists Uncle William Key, age 82, born in Virginia, whose occupation was shoemaker.

The Barkers and Landon Key lived Northwest of Owensville and Southwest of Princeton. Published books often contain inaccuracies in information because of the volume of material and lack of verification. Also, close proximity is the basis for Landon's Elizabeth being married into the Barker family.

For the reasons above, I believe the following:

Elizabeth Key who married Jesse Barker was probably the daughter of Landon Key

Elizabeth Key who married Joseph Adams and later married Daniel McFetridge was probably the daughter of William Key.

A Ghost City by Cunningham

You have read with interest of the ghost cities of the west. These were cities that sprang up and flourished around a rich strike of gold or silver ore. When this was worked out and no longer paid, the city was abandoned to the elements and the wild coyotes. Did you know there are ghost cities in Gibson County? These cities sprang up in the early days at advantageous points for navigation and transportation and were rendered useless by the building of the railroads, Buena Vista (Giro) is one such place in Gibson County.

In about 1800 three brothers, Joseph, Jacob, and Luke Decker settled in what is now Washington Township, Gibson County, on the site of the future Buena Vista. They established and operated a ferry there (White River) under authority of Knox County for all south-western Indiana was Knox County until 1813 when Gibson County was created. This ferry was operated for over a century and most of the time was owned by some member of the Decker family. The settlement was known as "Decker Ferry" and as early as 1816 there was a general store there owned and operated by John Claypole. This was the first store in what is now Washington Tp. There was considerable business transacted there until the 1840's when business began, to grow by leaps and bounds. These were the days of flat and keel boats. The site was a good one for a town. It was high above flood waters. It was surrounded by a territory rich in valuable timber and farm products. For these reasons Samuel Decker and wife had the town platted in March 1848.

Just why the town was named Buena Vista is unknown to the writer. Probably it was named for the famous battle of the Mexican war fought the year before the town was platted. Washington Tp. had one soldier, Logan Gasaway, in this war and he probably had something to do with naming the town. He became a resident and lived there several years.

This town grew rapidly and prospered for 8 or 10 years. There were located there during the early 1850's four large general stores, two packing houses, one saw mill, a hotel and several boarding houses, a blacksmith shop, a wagon and carriage shop, a saddlery, two cooper shops, one shoe maker, one shoe repairer, two doctors, one saloon, one church, and one school house. A postoffice was established there in 1853 and John Cunningham was appointed to be the first postmaster. One of the large stores and packing houses was owned by the Cunningham brothers and will be described fully in a separate chapter.

The saw mill was owned by Key & Sons. They furnished lumber for every purpose including coffins and flat boats, About the only kind of lumber the people would look at or use was walnut, oak, or poplar. This sold for $1.00 per hundred and a little higher for select grade.

The coopers were Neff Gray & David McRoberts. They made hundreds of lard kegs during the butchering season @ 40 to 45cents per keg. The lard was rendered and shipped to New Orleans along with the other products.

The ferry was owned in the 1850's by Thompson & Philip Decker, Tickets were sold at 5 cents each which were good for passage one way for a person on horseback. Heavier traffic required more tickets.

Wiley Jones seems to have been a boatmaker. Flat boats $90.00, Skiff $6.50. I.(or O.) P. Malott operated a wagon and buggy shop. 1 buggy $62.50. James M. White was shoemaker. It appears that materials were furnished him by the dealers and he made the shoes and boots for them. The usual price paid him was 50 cents per pair. These shoes and boots were very crude in comparison to the fine machine made footwear of today. The soles were pegged on with wooden pegs and the shoes & boots were so shapeless you could wear them on either foot without knowing the difference. Jackson Wright was shoe repairman, Charges were from 5 cents to 40 cents according to amount of material and work required.

John Catt was the official miller, He furnished the stores with meal at 40 to 45 cents per bushel.

Boarding houses were operated by Hiram Hartley, Logan Gasaway, and Catherine Adams, This was an important business at this time as many men were employed in the packing houses and in making flat boats. Often the employer would include board in the wage paid his employee. Also many flatboatmen and raftmen coming down the river from above would stop for the night especially if it was a dark and stormy one. Board was $1.75 per week. The writer is unable to state if one of the above operated the hotel.

The school was operated on a subscription basis. Mariah Stones was the teacher in 1853. In the ledger for that year is this notation: $5.00 paid to Mariah Stones for "schoolin". This was paid the teacher by John Cunningham as tuition for his children.

Paragraph on John W. Ewing

His father, John Ewing was a native of Ireland, whence he emigrated to America in his boyhood, locating with his parents in Maysville, Kentucky, where he grew to manhood. For many years he was a resident of Gibson County, but his last days were spent in Pike County, Indiana, where he died in 1859, at the age of sixty years. Throughout life he followed farming and milling, and was a successful business man. He amassed considerable wealth and at his death owned about twelve hundred acres of land. He was twice married, his second union being with Sarah Brunner, widow of William Key. She had three children by her first marriage and two by the second. She was born in Kentucky, and now in her ninetieth year is living with the subject of this sketch.

William KEY and Sarah BRUNER had the following children:

- +53 i. James Wesley KEY, born 10 Mar 1832, Hazleton, White River Twp., Gibson Co., IN; married Ellen Jane MCCLURE, 28 Sep 1858, Hazleton, White River Twp., Gibson Co., IN; died 10 Feb 1919.

James was living alone in 1870 census. His age is believed to be in error. His children Mary, Theodore and Delia were living in the Henry Geskie household.

Notes from W. J. Thomas:

Birth date is from the Federal census of Gibson County Indiana, Patoka Township, Page 1058 Line 30 which list him as being 63 years old in 1860 which would make him being born in 1797. James M. Thomas, Josephine (Gerdes) Ross, Margaret and Mary Grace Dumm and the other cousins whom I have spoken to say he was from Bath England as do my two Aunts Josephine (Thomas) Gerdes and Jane Thomas, who I spoke to on a trip to Pittsburgh in 1975. I have a letter dated August 19, 1996 from Mr. Adam Green the County Archivist of the Somerset County Council, Taunton England which holds all the church records for Bath, which states that James the son of Francis and Eleanora Thomas was baptised in Walcot parish on 23rd of July 1797. As there were no other James Thomas's baptised in Walcot parish for the years before and after (1796, 1798) and none in the surrounding parishes I believe this is our James Thomas.

Steven K. Smith, a descendant of Henry W. Thomas, James Thomas's first child by Cynthea Key, while doing some research in the Somerset County archives in Taunton England found an Indenture dated the " Twenty sixth day of March 1807 in the forty seventh year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third putting forth James Thomas, a poor child of the Parish, as an apprentice in Husbandry or some other lawful employment ". James might have been apprenticed to a gunsmith. Francis Thomas died the eighteenth of May in 1798 just nine months after James Thomas was born. Eleanora might have been under some financial pressure, hence she put James out to learn a trade. Steven Smith thinks this might explain where James was send after his father died. Just speculation but it seems likely.

Francis and Eleanor were married in the area covered by the Avon/Bath Somerset index I spoke to my Aunts Josephine (Thomas) Gerdes and Jane Thomas in a visit to Pittsburgh in 1975 and they said that "the Thomas's were Welsh and from Wales". A book in the Princeton Public Library in Princeton Indiana by Gilbert R. Stormont titled History of Gibson County Indiana has a sketch on Theodore Fleming Thomas a son of James Thomas and Cynthea Key and a brother to our Grandfather David. This sketch says "James Thomas was a prominent civil engineer having been a foreman during construction of one of the large bridges built over the Thames River". This sketch further states that "James came to New York with a brother, (Francis born 14 March 1791 in Walcot parish, Bath England see letter of April 26, 2000 from Somerset County Council) and the two separated in New York and James came to Princeton Indiana where he located and engaged in the manufacture of firearms". They left a sister (Harriet Elizabeth born 17 March 1793) in Walcot parish, Bath, England. "James had a natural genius as a mechanic and was actively engaged until the time of his death at Owensville Indiana while living with his son". James was married twice and had two children by his first wife, her name unknown. The children of this first marriage were Franklin and Helen. The library in Washington County Indiana has an article on a Frank Thomas who was also a gunsmith. Washington County is the county just east of Gibson County. This is probably Franklin. I have no information on Helen who lived in Sparta Illinois. James Thomas was a gunsmith and also a blacksmith.

History of Gibson County Indiana and Descendants of Simon Key Sr. is another source for information on James Thomas and Cynthia Key. Descendants of Simon Key Sr. is by John Earl Key of Merritt Island Florida. The above information is in the Princeton Public Library, Princeton Indiana.

From the Vanderburgh County Indiana Circuit and Superior Court Book H Year 1850-53. Evansville, Indiana. "James Thomas declares his intention under oath to become a citizen of the United States October 8, 1852". James probably did not follow through on this as I could not find any naturalization papers in the court records.

BOOT PRINTS IN THE ORCHARD by Jane Power

It was a time of turmoil for the country and the hearth. As the Civil War raged, so did the battles of the home front. Lt. Achilles M. Brown was far from Crawford County with his Illinois Infantry Company. Several letters had been received indicating things were not going well back in Oblong, Illinois. Mrs. Brown was apparently socializing a little too much with Dr. George W. Routt and the neighbors were talking. Achilles resigned his commission as a lieutenant and headed home to "make things right."⁽¹⁾

Dr. Routt's background would indicate Mr. Brown had something to worry about! In 1853 Routt married Margaret Stewart⁽²⁾, but Margaret died⁽³⁾ shortly after their daughter Florence was born. George and Florence may be found in the 1860 Crawford County⁽⁴⁾, Illinois census living with Alexander Stewart.

George was forced to marry Judith Hockman on January 22, 1858⁽⁵⁾. He had "courted Judith a few months back" and she had gotten pregnant. After compromising on a bastardy suit by agreeing to marry Judith, George left the county. And stayed away. The child, Emery Birtus Routt, was born April 2, 1857⁽⁶⁾. William Hockman, seeing his sister's distress and serving Lawrence County, Illinois as constable, gathered a few friends to bring Dr. Routt to justice⁽⁷⁾. While Hockman waited on the Lawrence County line, William Blackburn went into Crawford County to Alex Stewart's home where Routt resided. Blackburn told the doctor he was needed to help a sick woman and please come with him. The following is Mr. Blackburn's account of their short journey:

"I was the man who told Routt that there was a sick woman over in Lawrence County who desired his services. He told me that he had understood that they were going to force him to marry Judith Hockman and said he was not going to do it. If any man attempted to arrest him he would shoot him down with his revolver, that he had compromised with her six months before by promising to marry her but was not going to do it. After I and Dr. Routt got down into Lawrence County we saw some of my party coming and he started off but I caught his horse by the bridle and told him to hold on that he was the man that made that woman sick, and he must now go and marry her and take care of her and would do so that night if I wished him to." On cross examination, Blackburn continued his story: "I went by myself over into Crawford County and at my request Routt went over the line into Lawrence County. I let on to him that it was a great crime he said it was not so great as I might suppose it was, that he had courted a girl over in Lawrence County at one time and that she had become pregnant and they wanted him to marry her and he should not do it. The officer and two others remained in Lawrence County consealed about two or three miles north of Chauncy until I went for Routt and got him over the line into that county and got near them. It was after night but the moon was shining. When I arrived at Alexander Stewart's in Crawford County where Routt was boarded it was about dusk. After the officer and men came up behind us after we got over the line, they took Routt. After they arrested him, referring to his threats I said to him now DocK (sic) where do you bury your dead? He replied, 'O you know we all say a great many things that we never intend to do.' I then left them and went no further with them."

Once across the line and into Lawrence County, Constable Hockman had his man. The group proceeded to Justice of the Peace, Isaac Pott's home and then on to the Hockman family home for the wedding. Justice Pott's had this to say:

"I have seen Dr. Routt twice in his life time. The first time I saw him he was brought before me on an arrest on a warrant for Bastardy to compel him to marry Judith Hockman. The suit was compromised by him promising to marry her. Shaw, myself, Brower and others were present at the time. The next time I saw him he was brought to my house at a late hour in the night. I then went with them to Hockman's one of Judith Hockman's brothers, and I then married Dr. Routt and Judith Hockman and he was discharged from the arrest. There was no coercion used on Routt if there had been I would not have married them. He was free to marry her or not as he pleased. They then returned to my house in a buggy that night Judith Hockman Dr. Routt and the babe. Routt was stubborn and set by the fire all night. The woman and the child went to bed in another room. The next morning he went into her room and talked with her. He complained to her of her not keeping her promise to him. He claimed that she was not to prosecute him. She said that she did not want to do so, but her friends compelled her."

There is no indication Dr. George, Judith and Emery ever lived together as a family. In 1860 Judith is back in court, with Aaron Shaw as her attorney, filing for a divorce on grounds of abandonment(8). Seems as though George chose to live in Crawford County. George, being "thrice times called" never bothered to show up for the court proceedings; Judith was granted her divorce (calling Routt a "heartless rascle") and $120.00 per year in alimony on April 6, 1860. Judith went on to marry Smiley Sumner on February 19, 1862(9). She and Emery may be found with him in the 1870 Crawford County(10), Illinois census.

George took as his third wife Isabella Price on March 22, 1866(11), and opened a dry goods business with Achilles Brown. But rumors of a dalliance between Dr. George and Mrs. Brown persisted.

One fall evening in 1873, Mrs. Brown made an excuse to go out to the orchard. Mr. Brown followed her out, whereupon she came right back inside. The next morning while inspecting the orchard, Mr. Brown found boot prints he suspected of belonging to Dr. Routt(12).

Mr. Brown got his gun, went into town, met and chatted with several friends, walked into Dr. Routt's office, shouted, "I'll teach you to make a Hore (sic) of my wife," and in front of Wilson Price shot Routt in the chest. As Routt lay dying on the floor, Brown walked over and "shot him in the ear with the bullet exiting the other ear(13)." (Mr. Brown was jailed for his own protection and after several changes of venue and "oratory that made grown men weep," he was acquitted of the crime. He went back to Oblong and lived on his farm with half of his children, Mrs. Brown living in a house in town with the rest of the children(14).)

In September, 1874, Emery Birtus Routt, the almost illegitimate son of Dr. George and Judith Hockman Routt, filed suit on his father's estate as an heir(15). Smiley Sumner, his step-father, served as his next friend. Belle Routt had returned from an extended trip to Texas to guard her dower. Emery presented several depositions to prove his parentage and we are told Judith had passed away the previous year on October 22.

Next we find Emery Routt paid taxes on his farm in Larna, Illinois in 1879(16). He then married Alice May Fitch(17) (daughter of Charles DeWitt Fitch and Cynthia Longmore). They moved to Gage County, Nebraska(18) where their seven sons were born -- one of which was my grandfather, Ralph R. Routt. The family moved to Ft. Worth, Tarrant County, Texas in 1890 and many descendants reside in the old Handley township area today.

Obituary from local newspaper

MONROE KEY DEAD
LAST CIVIL WAR VETERAN, PATOKA

FORMER sheriff of Gibson County, Prominent and active in public and party affairs - Funeral, Thursday, 2:00 P.M., Patoka

Monroe Key, age 90, well-known Civil War veteran and former Gibson county sheriff, died at 9:15 o'clock Tuesday night at his home, three miles north of Princeton, on the old Patoka road.

On Feb. 8, Mr. Key went to Patoka to view the remains of the fire and while there fell and fractured his hip; later pneumonia developed which caused his death.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Patoka Methodist church. Rev W. A. Warner, in charge. Burial in the Patoka cemetery.

Archer Post G. A. R. and the Woman's Relief Corps will take part in the funeral services.

Mr. Key was born Sept. 4, 1841, in Gibson county near Shiloh church, the son of John L. and Polly Lathom Key. He was the last of a family of five sons and four daughters. He had lived in this county his entire life. He was united in marriage to Eliza Somers on November 9, 1871, and to this union six children were born. On last Nov. 9th, Mr. and Mrs. Key celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. Two daughters, Una and Carrie Key, died when children.

Surviving to mourn the death of Mr. Key, is the widow, Eliza Somers Key, two daughters, Misses Nellie and Anna Key, both at home, Charles Key, of Patoka, and John F. Key of Princeton, Mrs. J. Wesley Lewis, of Indianapolis, Monroe, John Logan, Charles Warren and Patricia Key of Princeton.

A sister of Mr. Key, Mrs. Mary J Murphy, of Golden Gale, Ill. Passed away Monday, Feb. 15th at her home.

Mr. Key was widely known through Gibson county, being sheriff during 1888-1892. He was a carpenter contractor and farmer during the active years of his life. Since 18 years old he had been a member of the Methodist church at Patoka. Mr. Key was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Patoka, and Archer Post G.A.R. of this place.

During the Civil War Mr. Key served as Second Lieutenant Co. C 58th.

The following was copied from "History of Gibson County Indiana" by Elia W. Peattie pages 43 and 44.

MONROE KEY. - Among those whose devotion to the duties of public and private life have made them valued citizens of Gibson County is numbered Mr. Key, a prosperous and popular farmer of Patoka township. On southern battlefields he demonstrated his loyalty to the Union, and in the more quiet walks of business life he has displayed those sterling qualities of integrity and straightforwardness which everywhere command respect. Mr. Key is a native of Gibson County, born September 4, 1841. His father John L. Key, removed from Scottsville Kentucky, to this county in 1808 and followed farming and merchandising. Leasing his farm for ninety-nine years, he afterward removed to Georgetown, Illinois, where he died in 1874, at the age of seventy-four years. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Mary Latham, died in Gibson County in 1880, aged, seventy-four years. Their children are Monroe, Mrs. Mary Murphy, and John. The father had five children by a former Marriage, of whom four are living, as follows: S. C. of Concordia, Kansas; William, also of Concordia; Marion, of Pike County, Indiana; and Hannah, wife of J. W. Harris, of Patoka. Monroe Key was educated in Patoka and at the age of twenty years enlisted in the Union army as a member of Company C, Fifty-eighth Indiana Infantry. On the 12th of March, of that year he was married in Princeton. In July, 1865, he was discharged and mustered out at Indianapolis. During the first year after his return home Mr. Key engaged in the lumber business. He then learned the carpenter trade, and followed contracting and building from 1867 until 1888. In the latter year he was elected Sheriff of Gibson County, and in 1892 was reelected, serving for four years. He was one of the most efficient officers ever in that position and his promptness in carrying out the law won him the highest commendation. Since his retirement he has engaged in the operation of his farm, which comprises two hundred and forty acres of rich and valuable land. Mr. Key was married March 9, 1871, to Eliza Summers, and their children are Charles S., Nellie, Annie and John L. In Politics Mr. Key is a staunch Republican, and is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. His life has ever been honorable and upright, displaying the same fidelity which he manifested on southern battlefields when upholding the cause of the stars and stripes.

Monroe KEY and Eliza A SOMERS were married on 9 Nov 1871 in Gibson Co., IN.¹⁶ Eliza A SOMERS¹, daughter of John SOMERS\SOMMERS and Anne MCCRACHEN, was born on 24 Jun 1847 in No. Ireland. She died on 9 Sep 1939 at the age of 92. She was buried in Oak Hill Cem., Patoka, White River Twp., Gibson Co., IN.

Mrs. Eliza Key Celebrated
92nd Birthday June 24

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Eliza Key celebrated her ninety-second birthday Saturday at her beautiful country home south of Patoka.

A bounteous dinner was spread at the noon hour. Mrs. Key's maiden name was Eliza Somers. She is the widow of the late Monroe Key and was born in Ireland, June 24, 1847. She with her parents and brother immigrated to the United States when she was a small child and lived in Cincinnati, Ohio, for some time. Later, while still a small child, she lived at Princeton with her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hargrove, who after a while became Patoka residents where Miss Somers was married to Monroe Key November 9, 1871, in their home which is now Sibert Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Key made their first home across the street from the Sibert Inn where were born their six children: Charles S., Patoka; Miss Nellie, residing with her mother; Carrie and Una who died in early childhood; Anna, who departed this life October 27, 1934; and John L., Sr., living in Terre Haute.

Mrs. Key has four living grandchildren: Monroe Key of Hazleton; John L Key, Jr., stationed at Hawaii, Oahu, and serving in the division of the field artillery of the U. S army; Patricia Carolyn Key of Terre Haute; and Louise M. Key of Indianapolis. A grandson, Charles W. Key, was killed on Highway 41 three years ago.

Mrs. Key has lived a very active life and while at present her physical condition in some ways is not as good as once was, yet, her eye sight and hearing seems to be unimpaired, and her mind is clear and alert as in younger days. She enjoys telling experiences of her many years and relishes a good joke as much as anyone. She is cheerful and it can truly be said she is 92 years young.

Mrs. Key was the happy recipient of many lovely flowers and other gifts.

Guests for dinner were: Hostess Mrs. Eliza Key and daughter, Miss Nellie: Mrs. Mary Eskew of Kings Station; Mrs. Alice Stermer, Mrs. Fannie Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Key, all of Patoka; Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Key of Hazleton. Those who called to pay their respects: Charles Stermer, Sr., Mrs. Harvey Witherspoon, Mrs. Horace Witherspoon and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Harris of Patoka, Mrs. Mary Helen Montgomery of Kings Station.

Monroe KEY and Eliza A SOMERS had the following children:

- +197 i. Charles Sherman KEY, born 28 Aug 1872, Patoka, White River Twp., Gibson Co., IN; married Mary Daisy HUMPHREYS, 11 Apr 1906, Mt. Carmel, Wabash Co., IL; died 1956, Patoka, White River Twp., Gibson Co., IN.

- 198 ii. Nellie KEY¹ was born on 2 Sep 1874 in IN.¹ She died on 24 Jan 1961 at the age of 86 in Princeton, Patoka Twp., Gibson Co., IN. She was buried in Oak Hill Cem., Patoka, White River Twp., Gibson Co., IN.

JAMES W. KEY.

The life history of James W. Key, one of the well known and highly esteemed venerable citizens of Gibson county, now living in honorable retirement, shows what industry, good habits and stanch citizenship will accomplish in the battle for success in life. His record has been one replete with duty well and conscientiously performed in every relation of life. He has come down to us from the pioneer period and has noted the wondrous transformation from that time to this, playing his part in the drama of civilization. He has thus been an advocate of wholesome living and cleanliness in politics as well and has always stood for the highest and best interests of the community in which so many of his active years have been passed and which has been honored by his citizenship.

James W. Key is a native of Gibson county, born on the 10th day of March, 1832, near Hazelton. He is a son of William and Sarah (Bruner) Key, both of whom were natives of Kentucky and were among the earlier settlers of Gibson county. They were married in 1831 and William Key died August 12, 1836, leaving his young widow and three small children, the eldest of whom was James W., the subject of this sketch. William Key was born in 1804 and his death occurred on August 12, 1836. His widow afterward became the wife of John Ewing, who was of Irish stock and a pioneer settler in Gibson county, Indiana, owning a good farm in White River township. Mr. Ewing died on November 27, 1859, and was survived many years by his widow, who died on August 5, 1896, when past eighty-eight years of age. To Mr. and Mrs. Ewing were born two children, namely: Mary, who became the wife of Samuel Hargrove, of Pike county, and who died on March 11, 1885; she was the mother of two children, Minnie and John E. The other child, John W. Ewing, who was born February 14, 1850, in Gibson county, Indiana, died in February, 1909. The marriage of William Key to Sarah Bruner occurred in 1831, and at the time of his death he left, besides his widow, three small children, the eldest of whom was James W., the immediate subject of this sketch.

The subject's paternal grandfather, William Key, Sr., was a native of Kentucky, and to his marriage with Hannah Level were born a large family of children. William Key, Sr., was a man of industrious habits and was a genius in that he could do many things and do them all well. He was by trade a millwright, and after coming to Indiana made his home at Princeton. While building a mill on South Hart street, that city, he fell forty feet, sustaining injuries, from which, however, he recovered and lived to be past eighty-five years of age. In later life he took up shoemaking and coopering. He was a man of cheerful and jovial disposition and was widely known and well liked by all who knew him.

James W. Key is the only one of his father's family who is living today, and he has attained an advanced age well preserved in mind and body and with a keen interest in current events. His schooling in his youth was limited, partly owing to the limited circumstances of his mother and partly to indifferent opportunities at best. When quite young he took up the vocation of farming, which he has followed all his life and is at present living on his farm in White River township, Gibson county, in retirement from the active affairs of life, surrounded by his family.

On September 28, 1858, Mr. Key was married to Ellen J. McClure, daughter of Joseph E. and Katherine (Devin) McClure, both of whom were natives of Gibson county and passed their entire lives within its borders. To their union were born ten children, namely: James and Joseph P., deceased; Luella, Ada J., Sarah F., Katherine A. and Charles F., all of whom reside at home with the parents, the latter having charge of the operation of the farm for his father. William F. is engaged in farming in White River township, Gibson county; his wife was Eva Gouff, of Kentucky. Margaret E. is the wife of John Stewart, a farmer of Gibson county, and Robert S., whose wife was Geneva Harvey, is engaged in agricultural work in Patoka township. On September 28, 1908, Mr. and Mrs. Key celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage in a fitting manner and are still spared to each other. They have many interesting incidents to relate of the earlier life in the county before many of our present-day conveniences were thought of. Mr. Key has lived in the same place since he was three years old and well remembers when the first railroad was built through this section and when wood was the fuel used on the locomotive. The house they occupy was built in 1874. The subject and his wife have twelve grandchildren.

Mr. Key is a staunch Republican of the old school who has always been interested in the affairs of the party, and his religious membership is with the Methodist Episcopal church, in the progress of which society's affairs he takes great pleasure.

Personally, Mr. Key is a man of clean character and has ever exerted a healthful influence in the community, giving his support to every movement which promised to advance the welfare of the community in any way. Because of his genuine worth and the success which has crowned his life's efforts, he enjoys the sincere respect of all who know him and he is eminently entitled to representation in a work of the character of the one in hand.

HUGH MALONE.

The following is a brief sketch of the life of one who, by close attention to business, has achieved marked success in the world's affairs and risen to an honorable position among the enterprising men of the county with which his interests are identified. It is a plain record, rendered remarkable by no strange or mysterious adventure, no wonderful and lucky accident and no tragic situation, aside from his heroic services in the Union army. Mr. Malone is one of those estimable characters whose integrity and strong personality must force them into an admirable notoriety, which their modesty never seeks, who command the respect of their contemporaries and their posterity and leave the impress of their individuality upon the age in which they live.

Hugh Malone was born August 26, 1842, in Patoka township, Gibson county, Indiana, the son of James and Lucinda (Key) Malone. The father of James Malone was also named James. Hugh Malone's grandfather married a Miss Hunter. The grandfather came to Gibson county at a very early date and settled just north of Owensville. James, Sr., had a brother John: who accompanied him to this county. He was a prominent man of his time, being known far and wide for his geniality and wit, and as a story teller, he was often the center of an admiring group of friends. The Malones were great hunters in those early days and their table was always supplied with the best game of which there was an abundance. In later years, James Malone, Sr., lived with his son, Absalom, in the northeast part of Owensville, his death occurring while he was residing there. In his early life he was at one time captured by the Indians and forced to run the gauntlet, composed of two rows of redskins, armed with clubs and whips, his body bearing marks of this experience to his dying day. To James Malone, Sr., were born six sons and one daughter. The subject's father was born in Lexington, Kentucky; Thomas, a blacksmith, lived in Owensville and Poseyville, Indiana; John, a farmer in Montgomery township; Al was a physician, preacher and store keeper, at Palestine, Illinois, where he was quite prominent; Elijah lived at Owensville; Eliza married William Matthews, a tailor, at Owensville; Parmelia married Owen Jones, a carpenter and expert wood worker, of Owensville. James Malone, Sr., and wife were members of the Baptist church.

James Malone, the father of Hugh, came to Gibson county with his parents when he was but three years old, and lived in this locality until his death in his sixty-eighth year. On reaching mature years he worked for nine years, at the wage of nine dollars a year, his employer being John Browder. At the end of this time he purchased a suit of clothes at an outlay of three dollars, the suit lasting three years. He was united in marriage to Lucinda Key, of Kentucky, and, settled in the Stone neighborhood, in Montgomery township, later removing to the Robb farm north of Princeton, where Hugh was born. To the subject's parents were born the following children: (1) John is a physician. As a baby he was rocked in a cradle made from a sugar trough. He attended school at Greencastle and studied medicine under Doctor West, after which he took up the practice of his profession and made it his life work. He was an orderly sergeant in the Forty-second Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, but on account of disability was discharged. He died in 1892. His wife's maiden name was Harriet Trippett. (2) William was a farmer in Patoka township. He was the victim of an accident which caused his death. In cutting cord wood, he ran to get from under a falling tree and fell on an axe, so seriously injuring himself that his death resulted. (3) Hugh is the subject of this review. (4) Cynthia, deceased, married William M. Boswell and they lived in Gibson county; (5) Annie, deceased, was the wife of Isaac Mounts and lived in Patoka township. The subject's parents were faithful members of the Baptist church. His father was a Democrat.

The exceedingly limited early education of Mr. Malone was secured in the little log house of pioneer times, and he remained on the home place assisting in the farm work until his enlistment in the Union army, on August 11, 1862. He became a member of Company B, Sixty-fifth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, recruiting at Princeton, and under the command of Captain Stilwell, Colonel Foster and Lieutenant-Colonel Johnson. The command to which Mr. Malone was attached was sent to Evansville, Indiana, first being a part of the Twenty-third Army Corps, and its record of eighteen battles and innumerable skirmishes is one to be proud of. From Evansville they were dispatched to Henderson, Kentucky, and then up the Green River valley to Schuylersville, returning subsequently to Henderson, August 11th of that year the command was mounted and sent to Knoxville, Tennessee. From that place their operations extended as far as Bristol, Virginia, they being engaged at Smoky Mountain and Cumberland Gap. After being dismounted they took part in the great Atlanta campaign, and finally at the close of hostilities, took part in the Grand Review, at Washington, in April, 1865. After the review Mr. Malone was engaged in the fighting in North Carolina and was mustered out on June 9, 1865, and returned to his home.

September 7, 1865, Mr. Malone was married to Nancy C. Prichett, of Harrison county, Indiana, the daughter of John L. and Margaret (Jones) Prichett, he a native of North Carolina, and she of Indiana. John L. Prichett came to Indiana in 1862 and, in connection with farming operations, ran a mill and followed the cooper's trade. He was a very handy man with tools and his services were much in demand. He was a hard working and prosperous man, and at the time of his death was the owner of considerable valuable land. His wife afterwards lived with her son Hugh, until her death. To John L. Prichett and wife were born fourteen children, namely: Wesley, of Floyd county, Indiana; James, a saw mill operator at Fitzgerald, Georgia; Mrs. Hugh Malone; Frank, Jane and George, deceased; Bell, of Gibson county; Tena and Lydia, deceased; Charles, of Knox county, Indiana; Andy, resident of Gibson county; Annie, deceased, and Lucinda, of Gibson county.

To Hugh Malone and wife have been born the following children: (1) Lewis, of Evansville, Indiana, who married Stella Redburn, now deceased, and to them were born two children, Roscoe, deceased, and Leafy G., the wife of Ralph Zimmerman; (2) Will F., who died at the age of thirty six, married Theodosia Decker and they were the parents of children,

Charlotte, May and William H.; Will F. was a farmer logger and thresher; (3) Gertrude, who married Edward Weisgarber, a farmer and gardener of Montgomery county, and they were the parents of six children. Gladys, Herbert, Ruby, Isabelle, Rudolph and Delbert.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Malone located on his father's old homestead, in Patoka township, for seven years, and then went west overland with a team to Shawnee county, Kansas, where they remained for one year, returning thereupon to Gibson county and resuming the operation of the old home place. Mr. Malone, after another year, purchased thirty-seven acres of land from Thomas Morton, which he later sold and then bought his present fine home place at "Taft Town," just northeast of Princeton, where he has since engaged in gardening and the raising of fine fruit.

Mr. Malone is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, while his religious affiliation is with the General Baptist church.

1870 census, age 30, (Gibson, IN)

In the 1870 census for Gibson County, Indiana, page number 36, Mary Thomas Geisky was caring for Theodore and Dellia her younger brother and sister. Henry Geisky was a blacksmith. They were living in census house number 274. James Thomas was living in census house number 281 by his self. Key family genealogy says Cynthea did not die until 1890, other data says April 10, 1866 (from Steven K. Smith) this April date makes more sense. Josephine is listed in the 1860 and 1870 census and then no more. It is likely that she died before 1880. Mary is not listed in the census at all, but is mentioned in the History of Gibson County Indiana. This Josephine/Mary listings are very confusing. I feel sure that Josephine and Mary are two seperate persons. But Mary is not listed in the census at all, but she is listed in Stormont's History of Gibson County. This would make eight children for James and Cynthea, not seven as per Stormont's History. ????

Confusing.

Birth and marriage dates are from 1900 Census, Washington Township, Gibson County, Indiana Sheet 19.

Notes from W. J. Thomas

Savannah Thomas, was I believe married three times. Gibson County marriage records list her as marrying a Thorton Catt on July 30, 1863 in Gibson County Indiana. I have no other record of her until Theadore Fleming Thomas's obituary in the Princeton Clairon on July 9, 1925. She is listed as the wife of Van Pigman of Cincinnati, Ohio. A obituary in The Daily Democrat list her as Mrs. Van Tigman. Several inquires at the Ohio Historical Society, Columbus Ohio produced a death certificate for her. Her husband's name was George H. Pigman. There is also reason to believe that she had a marriage to a Thorton Bartholomew between Thorton Catt and George H. Pigman. The records at Spring Grove Cemetery Cincinnati, Ohio suggest that she had a daughter named Lillie Bartholomew. Lillie was married to a Joseph Valentine. Savannah, Lillie, and Joseph are all buried in the same lot at Spring Grove Cemetery Cincinnati Ohio.

Note 2004: The census records indicate Lillie's birth Surname was Catt. Lillie married Lymon Bartholomew.

Federal census of Gibson County Indiana Patoka Township for 1860 line 20.

Telephone conversation with Josephine (Gerdes) Ross, August 27, 1995 Prescott, Arizona.

David left home at a very early age probably about 15 years old (1870) and joined a circus. He worked as a trapeze artist, lion trainer, and also as a blacksmith. After his marriage to Margaret Harding he settled down in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. I have copies of newspaper or magazine advertisements from cousin James M. Thomas of Fort Pierce, Florida which indicates that he was in business as a Hot Air Balloon attraction for County Fairs and other argicultural societies. The ads show a trapeze bar hanging from a Hot Air Balloon called "The Graphic". He called himself "The Professor" and also "The Celebrated Aeronaut". Cousin Josephine (Gerdes) Ross has fond memories of David and Margaret since she lived with them during the summers on their farm. He was good with children. He entertained her by producing a quarter from behind her ear. A little magic. He operated a Skeet Shooting Club on weekends on the farm. He worked in the City-County Building in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. His death certificate says he was a Real Estate broker.

The census for 1860 is in very bad shape, with the ink faded badly and very hard to read. Our Grandfather is listed as Auson D. or Austin D. He is not called David, but the D. must be for David. The birth year 1855 is right. He is called David in the History of Gibson County Indiana.

I, W. J. Thomas, have talked to the Curator of the Barnun and Bailey Circus Museum in Sarasota, Florida and also to Circus World Museum in Baraboo, Wisconsin neither have a record of David. I have also talked to Mr. Steve Gossard a Professor at Illinios State University in Normal, Illinois who has a hobby of keeping information on trapeze acts in circus's. No record. Professor Gossard had me to look for a microfilm copy of The New York Clipper (1850-1920) a newspaper which was devoted to the entertainment business. Only 5 copies exist. One was in the Fine Arts Library at The University of Texas, so I made a trip to Austin in November of 1997. I looked at ten years of articles, from 1870 to 1880 about everything from Circus's to Opera's. Again no luck. David might have been a member of a larger group and only the groups name was used. I think David must have quit when he and Margaret were married in 1882.

I have elected to use the middle name Henry for him which I found on a baptismal record of the Thomas children at the Diocese of Pittsburgh to keep him separate from his son whom I am going to call David James. A question to Josephine Ross about the proper middle name for the son David, she said to take your choice Joseph, James or John. I think James after his Grandfather would be the proper choice.

Conversations with Josephine (Gerdes) Ross, Prescott Arizona.

The third child of five children of Joseph Harding of England and Jane Bridget Boyd of Ireland. She married David Henry Thomas on June 28, 1882 in Sacred Heart Church Sunnyside Pittsburgh Pennsylvania. From Josephine Ross, "She met David at a Ice Cream Social at the church". She has two brothers Thomas born in New York in 1848 and John born in 1856 in Pittsburgh. Two sisters Jane born in 1861 and Sarah born 1863 both in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania. Josie Ross says Jane married a William Meechan (sp.?) and lived in McKee's Rock's Pennsylvania and was in the insurance business. I think Sarah married a O'Leary and they were the parents of John O'Leary who with his wife Mary visited Mom and Dad in the nineteen fifties. They lived in Stubenville Ohio.

I, W. J. Thomas, have very little information on the Harding family, but they are supposed to be kin to President Warren G. Harding. Probably a distant cousin.

Auson (David) THOMAS and Margaret HARDING had the following children:

Her life was taking care of the sick and when people could not afford to pay for a nurse, she took care of them for nothing. She was a wonderful nurse and everyone had a good word for Jane Thomas. When Jane died she was one of the oldest alummi of the Pittsburgh School of Nursing.

Her hobby was painting china dishes. She painted a twelve piece place setting of china. In the 6 years that Aunt Jane was living with Mary Grace and me, we used her china every evening for dinner. She was so happy."

THEODORE FLEMING THOMAS

A review of the life of the honored subject of this review must of necessity be brief and general in its character. To enter fully into the interesting details of the career of Theodore Thomas Fleming, touching the struggles of his early manhood and the successes of his later Years would far transcend the limits of this article. He has filled a large place in the ranks of the public-spirited citizens of his day, and that he has done his part well can not be gainsaid, for his record has been such as has gained for him the commendation and approval of his fellows. His career has been a long, busy and useful one and he has contributed much to the material, civic and moral advancement of the community, while his admirable qualities of head and heart and the straightforward course of his daily life has won for him the esteem and confidence of the circles in which he has moved.

Theodore Fleming Thomas was born May 22, 1857, in Princeton, Indiana, the son of James and Cynthea (Key) Thomas, the former having been born in London, England, and the latter in Gibson county, Indiana, near the town of Princeton. The Christian name of subject's paternal grandfather is unknown, although efforts have been made a number of times to ascertain it, there being considerable of an estate to which subject would be entitled were he able to clear up this genealogical phase. It is only known that the grandfather was a resident of London, England. James Thomas, father of the subject of this biography, was a prominent civil engineer in England, having been foreman during the construction of one of the large bridges built over the Thames river. The family at that time consisted of two brothers and a sister. When James Thomas and his brother came to America the sister remained in England. On arriving in New York, the two brothers separated, subject's father coming to Princeton, Indiana, at an early date, where he located and engaged in the manufacture of firearms, he being an extraordinarily proficient gunsmith. In those pioneer days, before the advent of labor-saving machinery, almost everything was done by hand, and, it must be admitted, done in a more thorough and workmanlike manner than is the case nowadays. James Thomas, it is affirmed, made the best of guns complete, lock, stock and barrel, and built up a thriving business for those days. His natural genius as a mechanic won him a reputation far and wide, and a few of the firearms made by him are still preserved and highly prized by their owners. He was thus actively engaged until the time of his death, at the age of seventy-six years, his death occurring while he was living with his son at Owensville, Gibson county.

James Thomas was twice married, and to the first marriage were born two children, Franklin and Helen. Franklin was a gunsmith and lived at Washington, Indiana, where he died in 1862, single. He willed ten thousand dollars to the Cumberland Presbyterian church. He made lots of guns and was a celebrated workman. The daughter, Helen, died at Sparta, Illinois, several years ago.

To James and Cynthea Thomas were born seven children, namely: Henry died in 1874; Mary who married Henry Geisky, is now deceased; David is making his home in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; William is deceased; Susannah married Harry Pigman and lives in Cincinnati, Ohio; the subject; Dellia married Frank Kightly and lives in White River township, Gibson county.

The subject spent his boyhood days in Princeton, where he attended the district schools, after completing which he took up the task of learning the blacksmithing trade in the shop of Thomas Ewing and Henry Geisky. Upon completing his apprenticeship, he went to Louisville, Kentucky, where he worked at his trade for three years, learning the construction of engines and general machine work. Returning to Princeton, in 1882, he saw an opening for his talents in the town of Hazleton, and there he started in business on his own account. He has steadily increased his business, now handling farm implements of all kinds and having a machine shop in connection, where all varieties of repair work are done.

In November, 1878, Theodore Fleming Thomas was united in marriage with Berminnia Shreves, of Decker Station, Knox county, Indiana, daughter of John W. Shreves, a native of Scotland. To this union have been born nine children, namely: Oliver Morton resides in St. Louis and is superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph office there; Fay E. married Cleveland Morgan, of Atlanta, Georgia, where they reside; John F. is connected with his father's business; Louis R. is train dispatcher for the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad at Indianapolis; Leslie A. is now in Evansville, Indiana, and is assistant foreman of the Vulcan Plow Company; Franklin L. is employed by the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad Company as assistant agent and operator at Hazleton, Indiana; Blanche, May and Dale are still under the paternal roof.

Fraternally, Mr. Thomas is a member of the blue lodge of the Masonic fraternity, while in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows he has been through all the chairs and has been honored by selection a number of times as delegate to the grand lodge. He is a member of the city council, of which body he has served as president. Politically, he was a staunch Democrat, while in his religious belief, he was a loyal member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Additional notes from W. J. Thomas :

I have made a search for any descendants of Theodore and found only one. John F. Thomas was the third child of Theodore and Berminna Shreves. Berminna (Minnie) was of Decker Station, Knox County Indiana. Her father was a native of Scotland. John was in the farm implement business in Princeton with his father. John married Elsie McNeese and they had at least one child, a girl, named Iris, she married a Henry E Hauck, they had a daughter named Mary Ann. Mary Ann is unable to tell me anything about the Thomas family. Mary Ann lives in Avon, Indiana.

Theodore Flemming THOMAS and Vermina J "Minnie" SHREVES were married in Nov 1878. Vermina J "Minnie" SHREVES²¹, daughter of John W. SHREVES, was born about 1861 in Decker Station, Knox Co., IN. She died in 1939 at the age of 78. She was buried in IOOF Cem. (Old), Hazleton, White River Twp., Gibson Co., IN.

FRANK J. KIGHTLY - In a brief sketch of any living citizen it is difficult to do him exact and impartial justice. Not from lack of space or words to set forth the familiar and passing events of his of his personal history, but because a modesty that shuns anything egotistic prevents the enterprising business man from setting forth in bold outlines the history of his useful career. In Mr. Kightly, however, Gibson County recognizes one who has been an important factor in its development. He was born in Evansville, Indiana, August 13, 1849, a son of Josiah Kightly, one of the prominent business men of Hazelton. His father was born in Chatteras, England, in January, 1822, and at the age of twenty-three years sailed for the United States, landing at New Orleans. He made his way to Evansville, Indiana, where he secured employment with the firm of Babcock Brothers, in whose service he remained for seventeen years. In April, 1862, he came to Hazelton, where he embarked in merchandising, carrying on his store alone until 1875, when he formed a partnership and thus conducted it until 1884. He has large real estate interests in Hazelton, and owns valuable farming land in Gibson and Knox counties. From 1882 until 1888 he served as County Commissioner, and was a painstaking and trustworthy official, whose devotion to the public welfare was most marked. Josiah Kightly was married in Evansville in 1848, to Elizabeth Furnis, who died in 1867. The children of that union were Frank J.; William and Sarah J., both deceased; Mary E.; W. R.; and John R., deceased. In 1869 the father married Sarah Rowe, and their child is Lucy, wife of William Ennis, of Princeton. The grandfather of our subject was William Kightly, an English farmer. Frank J. Kightly spent the first thirteen years of his life in the city of his birth, and then removed with his father to Hazelton. At the age of seventeen he started out in life for himself and for four years worked as a farm hand at sixteen dollars per month. He then began farming on his own account, and has met success in his chosen calling. Industry and enterprise are his two dominate qualities and combined with sound judgment in his business affairs have brought to him a handsome competence, so that he is now numbered among the prosperous farmers of White River township. His political support is given the Republican party. Mr. Kightly was married at the age of thirty, September 2, 1879, to Mrs. Lue Edwards, a daughter of Adam Miller, and widow of Jesse Edwards. By her former marriage she had two children-Willis and Lillie, the latter wife of Columbus Austin.

FRANCIS J. KIGHTLY.

The life history of him whose name heads this sketch has been for more than three score years closely identified with the history of Gibson county, Indiana. Throughout the years his life has been one of untiring activity and it has been crowned with a degree of success obtained by comparatively few who aspire to leadership in their calling. Years of conscientious work as a farmer have brought him not only a comfortable competence, but the knowledge that he has been of great benefit to the social and moral welfare of his community as well. By a straight forward and honorable course he has been successful to a marked degree and his life affords a splendid example of what an American youth plentifully endowed with good common sense, integrity and determination can accomplish when accompanied by good moral principles. As a citizen he is public spirited and enterprising, and as a friend and neighbor he combines the qualities of head and heart that have won confidence and commanded respect throughout the county. His entire accomplishments represent the results of the utilization of the innate talents which are his and the directing of his efforts along those lines where mature judgment and rare discrimination have led the way. As a representative of one of the oldest families of the county, he has a heritage of all those good qualities which go to make up a good citizen.

Francis J. Kightly, the son of Josiah and Elizabeth Kightly, was born August 13, 1849, in Evansville, Indiana. His parents were both natives of England, the father's birth occurring January 1, 1822. His father was twice married. After the death of his first wife, October 29, 1865, he married Sarah Wroe on April 8, 1867. To the first marriage were born the following children: Francis Josiah, the immediate subject of this sketch; William Wroe; Sarah Jane; Mary Elizabeth; Samuel Wroe; Emma K. and John Russell. The second union was blessed with the following children: Lucy, Alice May, John William. Mr. Kightly's second wife died January 11, 1898. The sketch of William S. Ennes, elsewhere in this volume, gives additional facts of the Kightly family.

Francis J. Kightly, the eldest son by the first marriage, was educated in the district schools of Gibson county, and in his younger days worked on the farm and has spent his whole life in agricultural pursuits. As a farmer he has adopted all of the modern improvements in that line of endeavor and has five hundred acres of as well improved land as can be found in the state. At the present time he has several tenants on his farms and has retired from the active duties of farm life.

Mr. Kightly has been twice married. His first wife was Lucinda Edwards, of this county, to whom he was married on September 1, 1880. After the death of his first wife he was united in marriage, on April 28, 1903, to Dell Briner, the daughter of James and Cynthia (Key) Thomas. Mr. Thomas is a native of England and his wife a native of Kentucky.

Mr. Kightly has been a life-long Republican, but the fact that his township and county is overwhelmingly Democratic has kept him from being an office holder. He has been a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at Hazelton for more than thirty-five years, and has always taken a prominent part in the deliberations of that order. He has always affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal church at Hazelton and has been a liberal contributor to the support of that denomination. Mrs. Kightly is a member of the General Baptist church.

Mr. Kightly comes of a splendid family, one of the oldest in the county, and has always been strong for right living and industrious habits, for education and morality, for loyalty to the government and for all that contributes to the welfare of the community. Sheer force of personality and determination, coupled with soundness of judgment and keen discrimination, has brought him the success which he so rightly deserves. He has proved an honorable member of the body politic and in every relation of life has never fallen below the true dignity of manhood, nor in any way resorted to methods that invited the censure of his fellow citizens. As the scion of a most excellent family he has maintained the prestige of all the honored descendants of that family.

J. W. CUNNINGHAM.

Among the honorable and influential citizens of Gibson county, Indiana, is the subject of this review, who has here maintained his home for many years, winning a definite success by means of the agricultural industry to which he has devoted his attention during the years of an active business life. His career has been without shadow of wrong or suspicion of evil, and thus he has ever commanded the confidence and esteem of his fellow men.

Joseph W. Cunningham was born on July 2, 1853, at Giro, White River township, Gibson county, the son of John and Phoebe (Key) Cunningham, the former a native of White River township, Gibson county, and the latter born on North Hart street, Princeton. John Cunningham was a son of one of Princeton's township's early settlers, who came from Georgia about 1803, settling east of Hazleton, in the midst of heavy timber, which he cleared from the tract of land which he had secured and developed a splendid farm. His first home was a log cabin, and in this the family lived until able to erect a more substantial and attractive home. He was the father of five sons: Stewart, Samuel, Joseph, John and Giles, all of whom became farmers in White River township, except Joseph, who finally located at King's Station, this county. They also had two daughters, Cynthia, the wife of Joseph Hayes, and another one who became the wife of Joseph Decker. John Cunningham received only a common school education, and as a young man engaged in the mercantile business at Buena Vista, Indiana, and also became connected with the pork packing industry. He shipped large quantities of pork, produce, corn, walnut lumber, etc., to New Orleans on flat boats, and acquired a considerable quantity of valuable farm land. He died in 1860 while making a trip south with produce. His widow afterwards married David Robb in 1864, and they located seven miles north of Princeton, on the old Robb farm, where they both died. To John Cunningham and his wife were born the following children: Favilla, deceased, the Wife of Jasper N. Davidson, of Princeton; William Green, deceased, who married Mary Hitch, now living in Patoka; Joseph W., the immediate subject of this sketch; Arminta, deceased; John, who died at the age of twenty-one years. To Mr. and Mrs. Robb were born two children, Anna, the wife of Charles Parrett, of White River township, Gibson county, and Nora, the wife of Oscar Spore, who lives south of Princeton.

Joseph W. Cunningham received the advantages of a common school education at Patoka and Deckard, Indiana. He lived at home with his stepfather and mother until he was twenty-three years of age, when he located on the Barnes place in White River township, to the operation of which he devoted himself continuously, and with splendid success, until August 6, 1913, when he retired from the farm and moved to Princeton, establishing himself in a home at No. 219 South Main street. He is the owner of four hundred acres of land in White River township, which has been maintained at the highest standard of agricultural excellence, being numbered among the best farming tracts of the county. In addition to agriculture, Mr. Cunningham was engaged for many years in the buying of grain and stock and also assisted in the organization of the bank at Patoka, being at this time one of the directors of that institution. Starting in life with practically no assistance, he has achieved this splendid success entirely by his own efforts, and is entitled to his due share of credit for what he has accomplished.

When twenty-three years old Mr. Cunningham was united in marriage with Nan Tribbett, a native of Gibson county, Indiana, who was born on the old Tribbett farm north of Princeton and whose death occurred in 1906. On November 11, 1908, Mr. Cunningham married Christine Bennett, who was born in Jacksonville, Morgan county, Illinois, but resided in Gibson county at the time of her marriage. She is the daughter of Isaac and Martha (Latham) Bennett, her father a native of Morgan county, Illinois, and the mother of Gibson county, Indiana. By his first marriage, Mr. Cunningham became the father of the following children: Byron, who died April 12, 1910, was a school teacher for many years, and later cashier in the Patoka National Bank at Patoka. Gerald, who was educated in the schools at Patoka and the public schools at Louisville, Kentucky, and Indianapolis, Indiana, is now a successful dentist at Princeton. Roy T. graduated from the Patoka schools, and later attended a technical school at Boston, Massachusetts, in which he took the electrical course, and also took the musical course in the conservatory at Warren, Ohio. He went to Washington, D. C., where he became the leader of the Fourth Regimental Band, being assigned to Fort Monroe, Virginia. There he took up military studies and was one of the class of four who graduated, receiving his commission as second lieutenant in the coast defense department. He has been stationed at Fort Morgan for the last two years, having charge of the Thirty-ninth Regimental Band. He is an excellent musician, being a splendid performer on almost all the band instruments. George, who is unmarried and remains at home, is the owner of a farm in White River township, in this county, and is interested with his father.

In politics, Mr. Cunningham has always been allied with the Democratic party, and has always taken an interest in Democratic affairs in this locality. Religiously, Mrs. Cunningham is a member of the First Presbyterian church at Princeton. Mr. Cunningham is a man of splendid influence in his community, having been a very industrious man and having had an honorable career, setting a worthy example to the younger generation of this community and giving his own children a splendid training. He is regarded as a public-spirited man, and can always be counted on to support the right side of any movement involving the moral, educational or social welfare of his fellow citizens.

CHARLES K. PARRETT.

It is with pleasure that the biographer has an opportunity to place before the readers of this work the life record of the honorable gentleman whose name initiates this paragraph, for he is deemed eminently worthy of representation along with the best and most industrious citizens of Gibson county, owing to the fact that he belongs to the energetic and enterprising class that has made this favored section one of the most noted and richest in the great Hoosier state. Enjoying distinctive prestige as a farmer, he has achieved marked success, while his practical intelligence, mature judgment and sound business principles have had much to do in molding public sentiment in the community where he has long maintained his home.

Charles K. Parrett, who, for the past twenty-five years, has resided on his fine farm of three hundred acres in White River township, Gibson county, is a native of this county. He was born on May 4, 1867, a son of R. M. and Ann E. (Hudleson) Parrett, both natives of the Hoosier state and she of White River township. R. M. Parrett came to Gibson county before there were any railroads completed in this section of the state. He desired to attend DePauw University, then known as Asbury College, at Greencastle, Indiana, and made the journey from his home in Evansville to Greencastle on horseback. There he studied theology and was later ordained a minister in the Methodist Episcopal church. He was well known throughout Gibson county, having followed his calling in various sections. To him and his wife were born ten children, of which the subject of this sketch is the eighth in order of birth.

Charles K. Parrett received his elementary education in the common schools of Gibson county, later attending the normal school at Danville, Indiana. On February 23, 1888, he was united in marriage to Anna Robb, daughter of David and Phoebe A. Robb, born February 23, 1866. To their union were born three children, namely: Nora, wife of Ross Key, who resides on a farm in Patoka township, Gibson county; Eva M., at home, and Ruth, the youngest daughter, who is attending high school.

As an agriculturist, Mr. Parrett is numbered among the best in the county, his thorough methods and up-to-date ideas marking him as a man of mature judgment and wise discrimination. He is a man of good business principles and has so conducted his affairs as to reap a gratifying return for his labor. He is a man who takes an interest in the financial affairs of his neighbors and friends and his advice and material assistance is often sought along this line. In addition to carrying on general farming along modern methods, he pays special attention to raising high grade cattle and hogs. The farm he occupies is his old family homestead, endeared through many years' associations.

Mr. Parrett is a staunch Republican of the old school and has taken an active interest in politics, while not wishing office for himself. The family takes a part in the affairs of the Methodist Episcopal church, of which Mr. Parrett is a member, and does much to further the interests of that society.

Because of the part Mr. Parrett has taken in the upbuilding and progress of the community, he has merited the high esteem in which he is held among his fellow men. He has given his support to all movements which have had a tendency to advance the moral, educational or social interests of the people and among those who know him best, he is considered one of the best men in this section of the county.

Charles K. PARRETT and Anna ROBB had the following children:

Patoka sisters recall family, county history

By SUE CARNAHAN SMITH

History is a required class in Indiana schools. Most students read of events which took place long before their birth with great boredom. They have nothing with which to relate the dates, places, or wars.

There are two sisters in Gibson county, however, who are well-versed on their family's past and make history appear to be a modern class.

Mae Parrott and her sister Ruth Garrett live in their family home in Patoka. Their grandfather Richard M. Parrott bought the house and built the upstairs on August 1, 1865--the abstract on the house goes back to 1807.

A man named Griffith obtained the land and the abstract in 1807 for Revolutionary War militia service.

Richard M. Parrott came to America from England where his father was a minister. The crossing took six weeks, longer than expected--one sister was born on ship.

By government appointment, he was made governor of the Idaho territory. By the grace of God he became a missionary with his headquarters in what is now Idaho.

Richard and his sons built the first Methodist Church in Evansville--he had five daughters, all who married well, and five sons, three of whom became preachers and two who became lawyers.

Their grandfather and a man named Wright collected money, labor and materials to build a Methodist Church in Patoka. The day the church was to be dedicated, people ferried across the Patoka and White Rivers. That same day, however, word came that President Lincoln had been shot.

Miss Parrott enjoys talking about her family's past. Dates, names, and places are easily remembered from frequent recollection. Her favorite memories, however, seem to stem from the building across the way from her home--in the former orphans' home.

Lucius French built the home in 1888. The bricks were made and burned on the grounds. The basement had brick walls and floors. The house was built spaciouly to accommodate French's nine children.

Hard times hit French, however, and the Old National Bank in Evansville took over the house. Gibson county bought it for use as an orphans' home in 1894.

"The building contained the Orphans' Home from 1894 into the 1950s," Mae said.

"On Sunday afternoons, we'd roll the organ out on the porch. I'd play and everyone would sing. We weren't good, but we were loud," she recalled.

At the home the older children would work for a little spending money. Sometimes the younger boys would attempt the work at Parrott's house, too.

"We'd strike off squares in the lawn and the boys used a push mower to cut the grass. Each square was worth 25 cents. And we'd always have cookies and lemonade for them, too.

"We always had too many vegetables in the garden. When we'd tell them they could have them--and never before--the children would get the excess vegetables and ripe pears," Mae said.

The old home had the "most beautiful woodwork and oak stairs." The floors and stairs were said to shine and never have dust on them.

"The children were proud of the home. It was nicer than what they were used to," Mae said. "They never tore up the inside.

"Occasionally I would take two high school-age girls to town at night. Their beaus couldn't walk them home alone, though. They had to walk with all the children," she said.

The boys left the home by the time they were 17; the girls left by age 16.

"Some of the children come back to see us, yet," Mae says, "but it's hard to remember their names. I remember their nicknames."

The entire Parrott family enjoyed the children at the home. Mae's and Ruth's father, Charles, ordered barrels of food from a wholesale firm in Chicago. The food was shipped by train to Patoka and hauled from the train to the home by their father. It was after an order of food came in that Ruth and Mae first heard of Jell-O.

"Before 1894 (when the county purchased the home), old people and youngsters were kept together in the poor house," Mae recalled sadly. "It was located across from the south gate of the (Gibson county) fairgrounds."

The home had it's own schoolhouse at first. Later, though, the children attended Patoka schools. They always had "nice teachers."

The sisters miss the children and the sound of their laughter as they play. They do, however, keep busy. The sisters raise a large vegetable garden; they gather 60 dozen eggs each week from 140 chickens-some of the eggs have traveled as far as Alaska. From their flower garden come flowers for shut-ins and for their church each Sunday.

Mae claims they are lucky to have lots of friends and neighbors and no enemies. She also feels they are never slighted. During the long, cold winter, Mae and Ruth hauled water from their cistern when the city water line froze.

Considering Mae was born in 1891 and Ruth seven and one-half years earlier, the two sisters are extremely active.

WILLIAM C. MCFETRIDGE. --A little more than forty years ago--January 28, 1855--in White River township, Gibson County, was born the gentleman whose name begins this sketch, and who, through the greater part of his life has been numbered among the leading farmers of the community. His grandfather was one of the first settlers of this county, emigrating from South Carolina. His father, John Quincy McFetridge, was born in Gibson County in 1828, and spent his entire life here, a prosperous and progressive farmer. He married Cynthia C. Hargrove, who still survives him, his death occurred in 1890. Their children were William C.; Fannie, wife of Henry Steelman; Mollie E.; Laura, wife of William McGee; Edgar and Minnie. William C. McFetridge is indebted to the district schools for his educational privileges. He pursued his studies during the winter season, and in the summer months assisted in the labors of the home farm until his marriage, when he located on a farm which he had previously purchased and which since been his home. It comprises two hundred and thirty-four acres of valuable land, and the well tilled fields yield to the owner a golden tribute in return for his care and cultivation. In December, 1882, Mr. McFetridge wedded Fannie E. Knaub, daughter of Norman Knaub, of German lineage. They have five children--Charles W., Myrtle, Pascal R., Lester and Ernest. Mr. McFetridge is a supporter of the Populist party. He belongs to the Modern Woodmen of America and the Methodist Church. Coming of a family of pioneers,

BYRON S. SPAIN a leading farmer and influential citizen of White River township, is a descendant of one of the first settlers of Gibson County. His great-grandfather, Abraham Spain, was born in Dinwiddie County, Virginia, February 23, 1770 and was married to Betsey Allen, who was born in 1773, and was relative of the daring Colonel, Ethan Allen, who commanded the Green Mountain boys during the Revolutionary war. With their seven children, Mr. and Mrs. Spain started for the territory of Indiana in 1813, but circumstances led them to change their plans, and they went to Rutherford County, North Carolina. Two years later they again started for the Hoosier State, and eventually arrived in Gibson County, then forming a part of Knox County. On the journey they had a horse team and ox team and a cow. They located on Congress land, and the husband developed a farm. He died in 1813, and lies buried in the Holcomb cemetery, thirteen miles south of Princeton. Archibald W. Spain, the grandfather was born in 1798, and died in 1870. He married Sarah Garwood, and became a prosperous farmer. One of his ten children was William A. Spain, the father of our subject. He married Jemima McFetridge. He was born May 4, 1828, and died in 1886, leaving an estate of more than five hundred acres, which he had accumulated by his own well directed efforts. His children are Byron S.; Daniel C.; Plesant N.; deceased; J. W.; Dora J., deceased wife of William Carpenter; Emma B. and Harrison M., who have also departed this life; Florence E., wife of Charles Johnson, of South Dakota; Mary A., wife of Ellis Tichenor; William A.; Charles A.; and Lillie, twins; and Purvis A. Byron S. Spain was born December 12, 1849, and was reared to Manhood within a half mile of his present residence. He completed his education in Patoka, and then turned his attention to agricultural pursuits, which he has since followed. He first rented part of his father's farm for six years, and in 1878 purchased sixty-five acres of land, to which he has added from time to time as his financial resources have increased until he is now the owner of a valuable property of two hundred and seventy-five acres. He early formed habits of industry, which have had an important bearing upon his life, and making good use of his opportunities he has prospered from year to year. On the 1st of May, 1872, Mr Spain married Arvilla Decker. Her parents both deceased, and her brothers and sisters are Payton, James P., John, Howard and Marcellus. Seven children graced the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spain-Maggie M., wife of David Hazleton; Fred P., William W.; Nellie D.; Allen G. C.; Bessie and Ruth. Mr. Spain is a Democrat, and was the party's candidate for Sheriff in 1884, at which time he was defeated by only forty-six votes, although the county as an acknowledged republican majority of two hundred. He is a worthy representative of an honored pioneer family and well deserves representation in this volume.

BYRON S. SPAIN.

To write the personal record of men who have raised themselves from humble circumstances to positions of responsibility and trust in a community is no ordinary pleasure. Self-made men, men who have achieved success by reason of their personal qualities and left the impress of their individuality upon the business and growth of their place of residence and affect for good such institutions as are embraced in the sphere of their usefulness, unwittingly, perhaps, build monuments more enduring than marble obelisk or granite shaft. Of such, we believe, is the gentleman whose name appears above.

Byron S. Spain, who owns two hundred and sixty acres of finely located land in White River township, Gibson county, Indiana, and is now living quietly in his comfortable home, is a native of Gibson county, born within its borders on December 12, 1849. He is a son of William A. and Jemima (McFetridge) Spain, both of whom were natives of Gibson county. William A. Spain was among the earliest children born in this county, and passed his entire life here. He was born May 4, 1828, and died in November, 1886, having been engaged in farming all his life. The death of his wife occurred in April, 1911. They were the parents of eleven children, of which the immediate subject of this sketch is the eldest.

Byron S. Spain received his early education in the district schools of the county and remained under the parental roof until he reached manhood. When quite young he began to assist his father in his farm work, and has always continued in this line of business. His present spacious acres are well cared for; he employs up-to-date methods in carrying on his work, and his success attests his ability as an agriculturist. Besides carrying on general farming and the business incident to the successful operation of such a farm, he pays particular attention to the raising of a good strain of short horn cattle, Clydesdale horses and Poland China hogs.

On May 1, 1872, Mr. Spain was united in marriage with Arvilla Decker, a daughter of Henry and Margaret (Thompson) Decker. To their union have been born seven children, namely: Margaret, the wife of David Hazelton, who resides in Dalhart, Texas; Fred, who is engaged in farming in White River township; William W., who resides in Rockport, Indiana, and is cashier in the bank there; Nellie D., wife of E. E. Curtner, of Hazleton, Indiana; Allen G. C., who lives on the farm with his parents and assists in operating the farm; Bessie, who married Wilbur Fisher, of Patoka, Indiana, and Ruth, who remains at home.

Mr. Spain is a staunch Democrat, one who has always taken an interest in the affairs of his party and while not desiring office for himself, his influence is considered of value by those who have such ambitions. There is much that is commendable in his life's record, for he has been found true to every relation of life, and while energy and untiring industry have been salient features of his career, he is equally well known for his uprightness and the honorable methods he has always followed, and for his loyalty to any trust imposed in him. Because of his genial and unassuming disposition and his genuine worth, he enjoys a well deserved popularity throughout his part of the county.

Byron Scott SPAIN and Arvilla DECKER were married on 1 May 1872. Arvilla DECKER³⁰, daughter of Henry Catt DECKER and Margaret THOMPSON, was born in 1852. She died on 22 Jan 1920 at the age of 68. She was buried in Oak Hill Cem., Patoka, White River Twp., Gibson Co., IN.

WILLIAM S. ENNES, one of the progressive citizens of Princeton, claims Gibson County as the place of his nativity. He was born November 28, 1862, a son of Embree and Martha (Kirk) Ennes. His father was a native of the county, and died at the early age of twenty-one. In August, 1862, he had entered his country's service as a member of Company B, Sixty-fifth Indiana Infantry. He faithfully followed the stars and stripes until illness overtook him and he was brought home, but the next day he died. The paternal grandparents were John and Nancy Ennes, the former a native of North Carolina, and an early settler of Washington township, Gibson County. The Ennes family is of Scotch-Irish origin. Mrs. Martha Ennes, mother of our subject, was born and reared in Gibson County, and still makes her home here. She is a daughter of Robert and Susan (Redman) Kirk, also pioneers of this locality. William S. Ennes was an only child. He was reared on the farm in Washington township, and spent his boyhood midst play and work. His elementary education was obtained in the common schools, and he was afterward graduated on the completion of the teacher's course in the Indiana Central Normal College at Danville in 1883. In 1886 he embarked in general merchandising in Hazleton, Indiana, where he remained for a year and a half, after which he spent three years as a salesman in a hardware store in Princeton. In September, 1889, he was appointed deputy county treasurer, in which capacity he served until November, 1894, since which time he has been engaged in the real estate and general insurance business. He is a wide-awake, enterprising man, possessed of the true progressive spirit of the west. In 1889 was celebrated the marriage of Mr. Ennes and Miss Lucy Kightly, of Hazleton, Indiana, a most estimable lady, and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. They have two children - Vesper and Darle. Mr. Ennes is also an active member of the Methodist Church, and socially is connected with the Knights of Pythias and Masonic fraternities. In politics he is a stalwart Republican, and in the fall of 1896 became the Republican candidate for Treasurer of Gibson County, and made a very creditable race, being defeated by a very small majority, and by such means as has induced a contest of such election. Mr. Ennes is a popular young man, and all he has accomplished has been by individual effort, and to him belongs much credit for the success he has achieved in life.

WILLIAM ENNES.

Among all branches of history, there is none more instructive or more eagerly sought after than that which truthfully delineates the rise and progress of the state, county or community in which the reader lives. There is pleasure as well as profit to every intelligent mind in contemplating the of the early settlers in every portion of the great West; how they encountered and successfully overcame every species of trial, hardship and danger to which men in that stirring period were subjected. But these things strike us more forcibly and fill our minds with more immediate interest when confined to our own locality where we can yet occasionally meet with some of the silver-haired actors in those early scenes, men whose bravery in encountering the manifold troubles and misfortunes incident to frontier times has borne an important part towards making Indiana what it now is, and whose acts, in connection with hundreds of others in the first settling of our vast domain, have compelled the world to acknowledge us an invincible people. The early, settlement of Gibson county was marked by as much heroism and daring as characterized the frontier history of any other section of the state. Her pioneers were men of invincible courage, undaunted by the obstacles which confronted them, and the results of their self-sacrificing labors are today seen in the wonderful achievements they wrought in laying the foundation upon which their successors have builded wisely and well.

William S. Ennes, ex-county treasurer and retired merchant of Princeton, Indiana, was born November 28, 1862, in Washington township, Gibson county, Indiana, son of Embree and Martha J. (Kirk) Ennes, both of Washington township, this county. The father was a son of John and Elizabeth (Key) Ennes, of South Carolina, and who were among the pioneer settlers, of Washington township. Here they secured wild land, which they cleared and made a home, reared a large family and died there. They were buried in Mt. Olive cemetery. Embree Ennes had only a limited schooling in the schools of those days and lived at home until August, 1862, when he enlisted in Company B, Sixty-fifth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, at Princeton. Shortly after joining his command, he was taken sick at Henderson, Kentucky, and his wife brought him home, where he died in 1863 at the age of twenty-one years. He was a farmer and he and his wife were members of the Methodist Episcopal church. His wife was married a second time, to John Sullivan, a farmer (deceased), of Buena Vista, Washington township, in this county. She resides in Oakland City. To John Sullivan and wife (Mrs. Martha J. Ennes) were born: Jasper S., a farmer in Knox county, Indiana; U. S., a jeweler at Vincennes, Indiana; Ada, deceased; Perry O., with the Waltham Watch Company at Waltham, Massachusetts, since 1892.

William S. Ennes, who was the only child by his mother's first marriage, was educated in the home schools and also at the Danville Central Normal College. After he left school he clerked in a hardware store at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and was also with Barrett & Stokes, hardware dealers at Princeton, Indiana. He was appointed deputy county treasurer in 1889 and was then appointed county treasurer to fill out an unexpired term in 1897, serving three months, after which he was elected county treasurer, taking office in 1900 and serving four years. After the expiration of his term he was in the grocery business in Princeton, Indiana, for eight years, selling out in 1911, and since then he has looked after his farm interests.

William S. Ennes was married November 14, 1889, to Lucy Kightly, who was born in White River township, Gibson county, Indiana, and is a daughter of Josiah Kightly. To Mr. and Mrs. Ennes have been born four children, namely: Vesper D., born March 9, 1891, who graduated from the high school of Princeton, and is now a steam fitter at Crawfordsville, Indiana; Darle, born July 11, 1893, who is attending Indiana University at Bloomington, and is in the second year; Raymond, born August, 1902, and died in October, 1902, and Lowell K., born October 4, 1903.

For the past ten years Mrs. Ennes has been on the board of charities and for the past four years has been president of guardians. She takes a great interest in lodge and charity work and is a splendid woman and mother.

The following is a story of the life of Josiah Kightly, the father of Mrs. Ennes, as written by himself just following his eightieth birthday, and dedicated to his children and his children's children:

"I was born in Chatteras, Cambridgeshire, England, in the closing hours of January 31, 1822. My father was William Kightly. My mother's maiden name was Mary Elizabeth Phillips. I was one of eight children, there being seven boys and one girl in the family. My father was a farmer and my early life, until I was ten years of age, was passed as childhood days were usually passed in that time in a farming community, helping and hindering about the home. When I was ten years of age I decided I would go to work instead of going to school. I had no trouble in securing work and I want to say right here that I have worked from that day to this (seventy years), but I now feel that I am entitled to a rest for the balance of my earthly days. As I was saying, when I was ten years old I hired to a neighbor to herd his sheep and lambs and for this I was paid sixpence a day--twelve cents in our money. After working a long time for this man, he was so pleased with my work he told me he would give me sixpence every two weeks for my own in addition to my regular wages, which he knew went to my parents to help pay my board and clothing. I am proud to say that I saved the extra sixpence and soon had plenty of money, all of which I carefully saved until I decided to come to this country. I worked for the same boss eight years, then I went home to my father and worked for him four years, driving his team or whatever there was to do in the daytime and at night I often enjoyed myself going to see the girls.

"I had long had a growing desire to seek something better and my thoughts naturally turned to America. When I was twenty-two years old, strong and healthy, in the fall of 1844, the last of October, I bade farewell to home and kindred and set sail on the sailing vessel 'Frankona' bound for New Orleans. Shortly after we set sail the fun began. Before we were out of the Irish channel, we--the passengers one and all--were 'pumping ship' in great fashion, for we were all sea-sick. We had a good time and sailed very fast and the rolling salt waves looked like fire. It was a beautiful sight had we been in condition to enjoy it. However, we went to bed and stayed there until the seasickness wore off. While that sickness lasted I will confess I wanted back to the old home and the friends I had always known, but after recovering from the sickness life put on many charms and from that time on I saw all the enjoyment I could out of the voyage. We were forty-seven days making the trip and during that time I saw many strange sights that were new to me. Besides having lots of fun we saw sea hogs, flying fish in great numbers, also one whale. To my practiced eye the whale looked to be as large around as a big horse and more than thirty feet long. I guess he got mad at our vessel for he went off a little ways and blew up water as high as we could see it. While passing one of the Bahama islands our vessel hove to and there I had my first sight of a black man. That was what we called him then, but after we got to the United States I found the general term used for black man was 'nigger.' To many of us he was a great curiosity. All he had on was a gunnysack with a hole cut in the bottom through which his head came. The captain told the sailors to throw a rope down to him. He had a skiff load of fine fish and he rowed close to our ship side. They threw the rope to him and the darky filled a sack full of the fish and the sailors hauled it on deck. Then the darky came up and he was a sight for us to see--a black man in a gunny sack! The captain told the steward to take what fish he needed for the cabin and let the passengers have the rest. The fresh fish were a great treat to us. After the darkey went back to his skiff our vessel went on as best it could, but we had sea grass and hot winds to contend with, and we got along very slowly. I remember an incident that occurred about that time. There was an old dog on the vessel and one day as the first mate was on deck the old dog came along and the mate kicked at him. The mate happened that day to be wearing a pair of old slippers and in his kick he missed the dog and the old slipper went sailing into the sea. With that the mate gave the other foot a kick and, telling both the slippers to go to Hades, he stood and watched the last slipper follow its mate. There were many nice days and many awfully rough days and nights. Some days the captain would walk the deck and call all hands to action, declaring there was a storm coming. Then all sails had to be taken in until the storm was over, then another fresh start taken and so it went until we got in sight of the light houses at the mouth of the entrance of the great Mississippi river, where we waited for tow boats to take us up the river to New Orleans. Our vessel drew sixteen feet of water over the sand bar at the mouth of the river. Our tow boat towed three ships up the river to New Orleans and we landed at the dock at four o'clock on the morning of December 12, 1844, and then we green horns began to see the sights. I worked at different occupations at New Orleans for several months and did well working, for what seemed to me, a poor boy, lots of money. In 1845, as there was much talk of yellow fever in New Orleans, I improved the opportunity to go up the river, left the city and finally landed at Evansville, where I decided to stay. I promised my friend Thomas Ruston to go back to New Orleans with him in the fall, but being assured work as a clerk in the store of Babcock Brothers in Evansville I did not go. I stayed with the firm thirteen years. I began work with them August 4, 1845, my wages being eleven dollars a month and board. After I stayed with them three years I married Mrs. Elizabeth Furnas of Evansville and went to housekeeping and my wages were increased. They were gradually advanced until I got fifty dollars per month, which was considered exceptionally good wages for those days. Having received what I consider an exceptional offer, I went to work for M. W. Foster as clerk in the old warehouse that stood on what was at that time the canal, but is now known as Fifth street. I remained there about two years, then came up to Hazleton, Indiana, where I purchased from Mr. Foster a stock of merchandise, This was in March, 1862, but I did not take possession of the stock until April of the same year.

"On the 19th of April, 1862, I moved my family from Evansville and took up my residence at Hazleton, Indiana, and began the mercantile business and here I have ever since made my home. I was then about forty years of age and will have been here forty years next April if I live to see that day. During the forty years I have lived at this place I have witnessed many changes. When I came here there was no church or Sunday school and I was lost on Sunday. When I came to Evansville and began life there Father Parrett and Joseph Wheeler were local preachers at the Locust street Methodist church, and there I attended service. In 1860, I think it was, while Brother Gillett was our preacher, we had a big revival meeting and many of the boys, myself among the number, were converted and joined the church and we truly enjoyed religion. So when I moved to Hazleton and found no devotional services to attend I interested myself in starting a Sunday school which, I am indeed glad to say, was very successful and is still showing a continued and healthy growth, both spiritually and in increased members. Since I came here there have been great chances for the better. Churches have been established and Sunday is now a day of spiritual strength and thanksgiving.

"In conclusion I want to say to my children and my friends that I know that my days on earth are drawing to a close, but my mind is serene in the comforting thought that I have made my calling and election sure with my heavenly Father and I am now ready and waiting with all I have and am to make the change from this life to a seat in Glory 'where moth and rust doth not corrupt and where thieves do not break through nor steal'--there to remain with my beloved ones gone before--forever and forever."

As the preceding autobiographical history of Mr. Kightly has treated in a general way of his life from early childhood, this sketch will deal with such details and matters as have not been there related. He was twice married, his first and second wives being sisters. They were both born in Ramsey, Huntingdonshire, England. The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Kightly occurred October 29, 1865, and she was buried at Oak Hill cemetery, near Evansville. She was a most estimable woman, home loving and domestic in her tastes, and her death was a bereavement indeed to her husband and family. On April 8, 1867, Mr. Kightly was married to Sarah Roe of Hazleton, Indiana. Mrs. Sarah Kightly died January 11, 1898, at her home in Hazleton, Indiana, and was buried at Oak Hill cemetery. She was a kind Christian woman, a fond wife and a loving mother and her loss was deeply felt, not only by her husband and family, but by all who knew her. In each of these wives the husband found a true companion and helpmate and their deaths left him sadly bereaved. After the death of his last wife in 1898, one of his granddaughters, Miss Mary A. West, assumed the duties of housekeeper for his home. In the following August she was married to John Knaub, and those two made their home with the aged man until his final summons. In this connection it may be said that to their loving care and devotion much of the happiness of his latter days was due. He was the object of their kindness, care and solicitude and his interests and happiness were their first thought.

Coming from Evansville, where his first job of work had been the clearing of trees from the present site of the Union station to make way for a hay press, Mr. Kightly was a continuous resident of Hazleton from 1862 until his death, except six months in 1864, when, thinking he could better his conditions, he disposed of his business interests in Hazleton and engaged in the same line in Friendsville, Illinois. This being off a railroad line, he had to freight his goods from Evansville by wagon, crossing the Wabash river at Mt. Carmel, Illinois. He soon became aware that, for his business, he should be located on some railroad, and coming back to Hazleton, he repurchased the store he had owned there and settled down to make that place his permanent home. Having made this decision he began to invest his savings in land in that section of the county and before his death he was owner of several hundred acres of the best land in Gibson county. For many years Mr. Kightly passed his life peacefully and quietly as a country merchant, but in 1875 his landed interests having become of large proportions, he retired from his mercantile business and devoted his time to looking after his farm. Ever an ardent Republican, he did not refuse when in 1882 his party asked him to fill the office of county commissioner, and served two terms. During his term in office the magnificent county court house at the county seat was built and to his watchful care may be credited much of the good work there is to be seen on that building. He was the same careful, conservative business man when looking after the affairs of the county that he was in his own personal affairs, and he retired from that office with the confidence and respect of all with whom he had official dealings. Mr. Kightly was ever interested in the material progress of his home town, and in 1903, realizing that the business of Hazleton and the rich surrounding country lacked the advantages of a bank near at home, he was one of the first to set about the establishment of an institution of that kind. The result was that the Citizens State Bank of Hazleton, Indiana, was founded. He was elected its first president and took an active interest in its affairs until a short time before his death. At the time of his death he was a member of the order of Odd Fellows and until his death was a strong defender of the principles of that order. In personal appearance Mr. Kightly was about five feet four inches in height, weighing about one hundred and sixty-five pounds. His complexion was normally fair, but owing to his love for outdoor life he was continually tanned until he had a swarthy appearance. He was always close shaven. He was very energetic and active and fond of walking and horseback riding and it was his great pleasure in his old age to mount his favorite horse "Molly," a beautiful black, and ride to his farm dally. He loved his home and was a hospitable and entertaining host. Faithful and constant in his attendance at his church his life was that of an honest man who desired to serve his Maker and his deserving fellow men. He was a Methodist and gave freely of his time and means to further the advancement of that church and the gospel in general. He was honest in all of his dealings: was charitable, but was disposed to know that his charity was well directed. He wanted to live in peace with all mankind and yet was quick to resent an attempt to perpetuate upon him a wrong. In all his dealings he tried to observe the precepts of the Golden Rule, nor did he look with any degree of charity upon a dishonest act. Personally, Mr. Kightly was sociable and genial with all, and, while possessed of a quick and violent temper, he was quick to recover from such outbursts and, if in the wrong, to make ample apology. He looked on the habit of worrying as a sin and his philosophical advice to the man who worried might well be followed by all. To such an unfortunate he would say: "Don't worry; if what you are worrying about can be helped, go to work and help it; if it can't be helped, what is the use of worrying?" No more truthful and sensible advice was ever given.

In 1850 Mr. Kightly had taken out his naturalization papers in Vanderburg county, Indiana. He never returned to his English home and never saw any of the family of his youth except his sister and his two brothers, John and Francis, who later came to this country. At his death in 1907 Mr. Kightly left the following surviving children: Mrs. Lucy Kightly Ennes, of Princeton, Indiana, wife of William S. Ennes, who served two terms as county treasurer of Gibson county, Indiana, being elected by the Republican party; and Francis J. Kightly, one of White River township's most progressive farmers, who lives on a splendid four-hundred-acre farm two miles southwest of Hazleton, Indiana. In his later life, Mr. Kightly celebrated each birthday anniversary by having his children and his children's children meet with him to observe the day. On these occasions he delighted in gathering about him his descendants and relatives and relating humorous and often pathetic incidents through which he passed his younger days. He knew that his period on earth was drawing to a close, yet his desire as he grew older was to make those about him joyful and contented. Often when the cares of the day were heavy he would lie down upon his couch, draw his familiar old cap down over his eyes and softly croon or sing his favorite hymn, "Blessed be the Name of the Lord," until the tired eyes would close and sleep would softly hold him in its gentle embrace.

Mr. Kightly had all his life been of rugged and sturdy constitution and as age fastened its ruthless hand upon the sturdy frame the vital tissues of life began to wither and give out. His last sickness, if sickness it could be called, was of comparatively short duration and through it all there was no suffering. It was simply the quiet, invisible dissolution of the mortal body and the end drew gradually near, January 1, 1907, he began to fail. From that time there was a gradual decline until he became perfectly helpless, though free from any suffering. His mental faculties remained strong and clear until within a few hours of his death. He knew those around him and not the least shadow of doubt clouded his mind as to the happy ending of the final summons. The last words he ever uttered on earth were a line of his favorite hymn, which he no doubt realized to the fullest extent, "Blessed be the Name of the Lord." At half past one on the morning of March 6, 1907, his spirit bade adieu to its mortal clay and joined the loved ones who had preceded him to the golden shore. His death was peaceful and painless and the loved ones who stood about his dying bedside could not mourn as those who have no comfort, for they knew he was at rest. Another favorite hymn of his was "When I Can Read My Title Clear to Mansions in the Skies." His funeral took place on Thursday, March 7, 1907 at two-thirty P. M., and it was one of the largest ever held in Hazleton. It was from the Methodist Episcopal church and the services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Reynolds, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, assisted by the presiding elder, Rev. Dr. J. W. Duncan, of the Methodist district, and the Rev. J. R. Edwards of the General Baptist church.

The life history of Mr. Kightly would not be complete without mention made of one who for many years made her home with him, his only sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Knowles. She married in England and was the mother of three children, all of whom died in infancy. Her marriage proving an unhappy one, she came to this country in 1863, and from that time to her death she lived with her brother. By her gentle ways and kindly heart she became established in the affections not only of the family, but of all who knew her. "Aunty Knowles," as she was known to all, was a mother to the children of the family, when they were indeed motherless, and to her brother in his many bereavements she was a tower of strength and a source of great comfort. She died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Lucy Ennes, at Princeton, Indiana, whom she was visiting in 1892, lacking one month of being eighty years old. Her body was laid at rest at Hazleton, Indiana.

Following is given the genealogical history of the family of Josiah Kightly:

Josiah Kightly was born January 31, 1822; married Mrs. Elizabeth Furnas, October 3, 1848. To this union were born: Francis Josiah, born August 13, 1849, married, first Lucinda Edwards, September 3, 1880, and then Della Briner, April 28, 1903; William Roe, born August 8, 1852, died May 15, 1868; Sarah Jane, born April 11, 1855, married A. CYRUS N. ESKEW.

The science of agriculture--for it is a science as well as an art--finds an able demonstrator as well as successful practitioner in the person of Cyrus N. Eskew, who is widely known in Gibson county, maintaining a very productive and desirable farm in Patoka township. He comes of a very highly honored pioneer family, members of which have played well their parts in the general development of this favored section of the great Indiana commonwealth.

Cyrus N. Eskew was born on February 5, 1857, in Boone township, Warrick county, Indiana, the son of John and Annie (Carter) Eskew, both born and raised near Bowling Green, Kentucky. John Eskew came to Indiana in early manhood with his parents. James Eskew and wife, who obtained a wild tract of land in Boone township, Warrick county, to the clearing and cultivation of which they devoted their sole attention. James Eskew followed farming throughout his active life, and was a man of sound principles, persistent industry and genuine worth. John Eskew was reared on the paternal farm in Warrick county, and had but little opportunity to go to school, his early years being required in the strenuous labor of the frontier farm. However, he was ambitious to secure an education, and by hard and persistent home study he became a well-informed man. After his marriage he acquired a tract of land adjoining his father's farm, which, when cleared, developed into a splendid farm. In the spring of 1869 he located near Oakland city, Gibson county, where he lived until his death, which occurred in January, 1911. His wife had died many years before, passing away in 1860. For his second wife he married Martha J. Wakeland, the widow of Samuel Wakeland, who is now living near Oakland City. By his first wife John Eskew is the father of the following children: Delia C., who died March, 1912, was the wife of Daniel Tracer, a farmer in Gibson county; Julia also deceased, was the wife of Shedrick Parker a Gibson county farmer; Thomas B., who is a farmer in Warrick county, Indiana, married Melinda Robison; Cyrus, the immediate subject of this sketch; Jasper, a farmer at Francisco. To John Eskew's second marriage were born four children, namely: Sylvester, deceased; Sarah J., the wife of William Collins, a farmer near Oakland City; John Franklin, a farmer near Oakland City, who married Mattie Spore, and Emma, the wife of James Harbison, who lives near Francisco.

Cyrus N. Eskew had but little opportunities for securing an education and remained under the parental roof until nineteen years of age. He then began farming on his own account near Patoka, but four years later moved to Patoka and there followed agricultural pursuits for a like period. Mr. Eskew maintained his residence in Patoka until 1888, when he moved to King's Station, Indiana, where he rented land and farmed for eighteen years. At the end of this period he bought the sixty-four acre tract on which he now lives and also forty-three and one-half acres in another tract, and has since given his attention to its operation. He has also for the past three years been engaged in the grain and coal business at King's Station, in which he has met with pronounced success, his treatment of his customers being such as to retain their friendship and patronage. By his persistent efforts and good management Mr. Eskew has been enabled to gain a distinctive success in the various lines of effort to which he has applied himself and won a large following of warm and loyal friends since locating in Gibson county.

On December 14, 1882, Mr. Eskew married Mary C. Harris, who was born in Patoka, the daughter of John Wesley and Hannah (Key) Harris, the father born in 1833, near Chattanooga, and the mother a native of Gibson county, Indiana. John W. Harris came to Gibson county in 1860, settling in Patoka, where he followed the trade of carpentry. Mr. Harris was a member of the Baptist church, his wife holding membership in the Methodist Episcopal church. The Harris family has for many years been prominent in the various localities where its members have lived, and was among the early settlers of Harrisburg, Dauphin county, Pennsylvania. Prior to her marriage to Mr. Harris, Mrs. Harris was the wife of William Johnson, of Patoka, and to them were born three children, Alice Melinda, the wife of William Stermer, of Patoka, Lizzie Etter, the wife of Newton Etter, and Charles, who died in 1912. To Mr. and Mrs. Harris were born the following children: Mary C. (Mrs. Eskew); Fannie, the wife of John Jones, of Patoka; John, who has been a member of the fire department of Memphis, Tennessee, for several years, married Kate Burbank; Frank, of Indianapolis, a traveling salesman, married Pearl Hitch; Nora is the wife of Preston Milburn, of Patoka; Wallace, a grain dealer of Patoka, married Stella Trippert, and Minnie, who died in early youth. To Mr. and Mrs. Eskew have been born two children, Estella M., the wife of Arch Whittaker, a farmer at King's Station, and they have two children, Mary Helen and John L.; Marjorie Geraldine is at home with her parents. Estella, who graduated from the Princeton high school with the class of 1903, was a teacher for three years. Mr. Eskew has always taken a deep interest in educational matters and has served efficiently as school director at King's Station, and as a staunch Republican he has always been active in the support of his political party. He and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal church, to which they give earnest support. They are well known throughout the community and enjoy the friendship and esteem of all who know them.

PRESTON MILBURN.

The following is the sketch of a plain, honest man of affairs, who by correct methods and a strict regard for the interests of his patrons has made his influence felt in Patoka and won for himself distinctive prestige in the business circles of that city. He would be the last man to sit for romance or become the subject of fancy sketches, nevertheless his life presents much that is interesting and valuable and may be studied with profit by the young, whose careers are yet to be achieved. He is one of those whose integrity and strength of character must force them into an admirable notoriety which their modesty never seeks, who command the respect of their contemporaries and their posterity and leave the impress of their individuality deeply stamped upon the community.

Preston Milburn, a successful merchant and prominent citizen of Patoka, was born in Lynn county, Missouri, on May 1, 1867, the son of Captain Augusta and Belle (Devin) Milburn. The father was born on the old Milburn homestead in Gibson county, Indiana, on December 23, 1838, and the mother was born in Gibson county about 1841 on the old Tichenor homestead. The father was a farmer, and was a veteran of the Civil war, having served as captain of Company C, Fifty-eighth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, in which he saw service from 1861 to 1865. At the battle of Missionary Ridge he was severely wounded, the bullet striking his nose and passed through his face and right jaw, coming out through the neck. He was in the battle of Shiloh and all the other important battles in which the Fifty-eighth Regiment took part.

He received his education in the public schools at Patoka, and in 1866 the family went to Missouri. In 1874 they returned to Gibson county, where he followed farming up to the last few years, when he retired from active labor and his death occurred in August, 1907. His wife died in 1899. They were the parents of five children, of whom, Preston, the subject of this sketch, was the first born, the others being Alexander D., deceased; Harvey; Sue, the wife of Oscar Witherspoon; and Mary, the wife of D. R. Trippett, of Memphis, Tennessee.

Preston Milburn, after completing his education in the common schools, engaged in teaching for five years in White River township, and then for some time was employed as clerk in a store at Patoka. On May 1, 1897, he became postmaster of Patoka, in which position he served for eleven consecutive years, giving eminent satisfaction not only to patrons of the office but to the postoffice department. Since March 10, 1904 Mr. Milburn has been engaged in the general mercantile business in Patoka, he and his brother, Alexander D., buying the property from F. A. White. Eventually his brother died, February 27, 1910, and the subject has since conducted the business on his own account. He has been very successful in his enterprise and has also, acquired the ownership of a farm of three hundred and forty-five acres of bottom land in White River township, which has proven a comfortable source of income.

On June 10, 1896, Preston Milburn married Nora Harris, the daughter of J. W. and Hannah (Key) Harris, of Patoka, and to them have been born three children: Alexander, Almyra and Josephine.

Politically, Mr. Milburn has been a life-long Republican, and has taken a deep interest in the success of his party. Religiously, he is affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal church to which he gives earnest support. Fraternally, he is affiliated with the Modern Woodmen of America and the Free and Accepted Masons at Patoka. His career has ever been an honorable one, his relations to his fellowmen have always been above reproach, and his good name beyond criticism. He wears the proud American title of "self-made man" and being in the most liberal sense of the term the architect of his own fortune, he may well feel a sense of pride in his achievement and the honorable position to which he has attained among the enterprising citizens of the county, in which the busy years of his active life have been passed.

Note written by John L Key

Up to the present time we have not been able to trace back any farther than Wm Key Sr (Br 9-17-1767). Have found that he had two Bros., Landon & Jack. That one went to Ky and the other to Ill (from Mrs J W Key)

William was supposed to come to this country from England and it is supposed he brought his wife Hannah Lovell from England. Although there was a Lovell family which was prominent in the early history of Boston

His second wife Delilah Johnson (married at 16 years of age) was from a wealthy southern family and was disowned for marrying a working man (northerner & tradesman). Her brother Alex was the only member of the family who ever came to visit her and he came once every year by horseback bringing his saddle bags full of various articles for the children. She was a rather small woman and was younger than her step-daughter Nancy (Ennis). She made her wedding trip on horse back carrying her step-son George (a baby) buried in Humphry Cemetery, Hwy 41 north of Patoka.

Princeton fire claims victim

A Princeton woman who was found on the floor of her smoke-filled home during a fire Sunday morning has died as a result of smoke inhalation, according to her physician.

Mrs. Faye Seaton Key, 75 died early Thursday morning at Gibson General Hospital where she was taken following the fire at her home at 615 W, Emerson St. around 8 a.m. Sunday.

Princeton firemen were credited with saving the invalid women's life when they found her lying on the dining room floor while fighting the fire. They removed her from the house and immediately gave her oxygen and treated her for shock before she was taken to the hospital.

Ross Key Dies; Hurt in Crash One Week Ago

Ross Key, 83, a well-known Gibson County farmer, died today at a.m. in the Gibson General Hospital.

Descendants of William KEY

11 March 2011

Mr. Key was born north of Princeton March 31, 1878, and lived in Patoka Twp. all his life. He was a member of the Patoka Methodist Church.

Mr. Key had been a patient at Gibson General Hospital since Nov. 1 when he was injured in a car-truck accident north of Princeton on U.S. 41. An autopsy was to be held this afternoon to determine the cause of death.

The decedent was hurt when the car he was driving was struck broadside by a gravel truck when he pulled onto the highway from Lyles Rd.

Surviving are the widow, Nora Parrett Key; a daughter, Esther at home; two son, Richard and Robert both residing west of Princeton; a sister, Mrs. Ida White also of Princeton; and four grand children, Robert, Evelyn, Martha and James Key.

The funeral will be Friday at 2 p.m. in Colvin and Son Chapel with Dr. L. C. Jeffrey officiating. Burial will be in I.O.O.F. Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 3 p.m. Thursday.

David Ross KEY and Nora Inez PARRETT were married on 6 Nov 1912 in Gibson Co., IN.¹⁶ Nora Inez PARRETT^{1,16}, daughter of Charles K. PARRETT and Anna ROBB, was born on 19 Jul 1889 in IN. She died in Apr 1979 at the age of 89 in Princeton, Patoka Twp., Gibson Co., IN.

1900 census, age 10, (Gibson, IN)

1910 census, age 20, (Gibson, IN)

Note: Nora Parrett's mother was Anna Robb and her grandmother was Phoebe Ann Key.

Robb had Eva Mae Key and Ruth Key as children of Nora's. He was in error they were Nora's sisters.

Catherine Ford listed Arthur Albert Key as a possible son of Clarence. The census records support this belief. At one time I had listed Constance Ramone Titcomb, wife, and son Lowell Thomas in this line. However, the Utah cemetery records indicate the father of the Arthur who married Constance as George Key. Because of this, I have elected to remove Constance Ramone Titcomb, wife, and son Lowell Thomas in this line.

Clarence KEY and Louise OLSEN were married on 4 Mar 1913 in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake Co., UT. Louise OLSEN¹, daughter of Christian Martinus OLSEN and Bertha Marie HANSEN, was born on 5 Dec 1889 in Coalville, Summit Co., UT. William James THOMAS Sr. and Emilie (Amilie Bessie) (Ruegg) DE LESDERNIER were married on 20 Apr 1914 in Houston, Harris Co., TX. Emilie (Amilie Bessie) (Ruegg) DE LESDERNIER²¹, daughter of Johann RUEGG and Louisa ZOLLINER, was born on 19 Jul 1881 in Basel, Switzerland. She died on 4 Feb 1963 at the age of 81 in Houston, Harris Co., TX. She was buried on 6 Feb 1963 in Forest Park Lawndale Cem., Houston, Harris Co., TX.

Mother's headstone at Forest Park Cemetery on Lawdale lists her as Emily Elizabeth Thomas. I have been unable to confirm the middle name of Elizabeth. Ruth (Thomas) Maxwell says that she thought mother told her that her middle name was Elizabeth, hence she had Elizabeth put on her headstone.

Mothers's Geburtsschein (Birth Certificate) from Basel Switzerland says only Emilie Ruegg. Also a letter from Staatsarchiv Des Kantons Zurich list her as Emilie Ruegg born 19 July 1881 in Basel Switzerland.

Dad used to call mother Bessie, which I guess is short for Elizabeth. I think mother just assumed the middle name Elizabeth.

William James THOMAS and Emilie (Amilie Bessie) (Ruegg) DE LESDERNIER had the following children:

- +630 i. Ruth THOMAS, born 24 Jul 1921, Houston, Harris Co., TX; married Hayden Donald MAXWELL, Houston, Harris Co., TX.
- +631 ii. Elisabeth 'Betty Jane' THOMAS, born 8 Feb 1923, Houston, Harris Co., TX; married Jack J. WILLIAMS, 17 May 1944, Williamsburg, VA.
- +632 iii. William James THOMAS Jr, born 29 Dec 1926, Houston, Harris Co., TX; married Katherine Gertrude ALVORD, 11 Sep 1949, Sulphur Springs, TX.
- +633 iv. Lee Roy THOMAS, born 31 Aug 1928, Houston, Harris Co., TX; married Delores Theresa PONTIUS, 3 Nov 1950, Houston, Harris Co., TX.

Source: Letter received from Josephine (Gerdes) Starr Ross December 16, 1999. " Josephine Marie Thomas was the 4th child of David Henry Thomas and Margaret Harding. she was born February 11, 1890 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She grew up on a large farm and liked to ride horses with out a saddle, sitting down or standing up. She also liked to paint watercolors. Josephine went to work for the Pennsylvania Railroad as a telephone operator, that is where she met her husband Earl W. Gerdes. Josephine and Earl were married in August of 1908. Earl was transferred to Chicago, Illinois. Josephine and Earl had their first child Josephine March 1, 1912 a girl named Josephine Lagora Gerdes. At age two and one-half, young Josephine became ill with Poliomyelitis. Josephine and Earl came back to Pittsburgh because they thought the Doctors in Pittsburgh knew more about this illness. Josephine recovered. They had their second child March 27, 1912, a boy William E. Gerdes. Earl Gerdes opened a car repair shop. In 1920 Earl went to Moline, Illinois to get a contract to sell R & V Knight Motor Cars. There was an accident and Earl was badly injured. He died of his injuries. In 1920 Josephine and her friend Cellia Bell, who was also a widow and had two children, rented a house and lived together not far from The University of Pittsburgh. Josephine went to night school and took a course in Business Management and Public Speaking. In 1921 she went to work for Rosenbaum Department Stores in the Dress Department. In 1923 she went to work for Joseph Horne Company in the womens Coat Department on a Commission contract. She was one of the highest paid people in the store as a sales person. In 1929 she bought a house on Woodland Drive in Pleasant Hills, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She and her son William E. Gerdes lived there until he was called into the Armed Services. He was killed on March 24, 1943 in a training accident. at Camp Swift, Bastrop, Texas. Josephine retired from Joseph Horne Company on February 11, 1955 at age sixty five. Her sister, Jane fell and broke her pelvis bone and when she was able to come home from the hospital Josephine brought her to her home and they lived together until September 1977, when they both were hospitalized. Jane recovered. Josephine Gerdes died December 31, 1977. Jane Thomas went to live with her nieces Margaret and Mary Grace Dumm". Quote from letter received December 16, 1999.

John F. Thomas was in the farm implement business in Princeton Indiana with his father.

As a child in the 1940's, I (John Key) frequently visited the John Thomas blacksmith shop in Hazleton, IN. I remember being impressed by the forge and the large drop hammer which was driven from a line shaft. In my time the lineshaft was powered by an electric motor. However, in earlier times the line shaft would have been driven by either steam or an early gasoline engine. The forge and hammer was used to shape plow points. Many times I was allowed to crank the fan which pushed the air through the forge. Later the shop was sold to the Scott's who changed the business to a welding shop which derived much of their business from the Autolite battery factory in Vincennes. The business was finally closed and the building torn down.

Funeral Rites Conducted For Purvis T. Briner

Funeral rites for Purvis Briner were conducted by Rev. L.A. Donaldson at the Methodist church Saturday morning Feb. 13. Miss Barbara Spafford at the organ accompanied Mrs. Gertrude Armstrong and Mrs. Charles Barnes who sang "In The Garden" and "I Won't Have To Cross Jordan Alone."

Pallbearers were John, Edgar and Ted Murray, Forest Armstrong, Russel VanEtten and Gervase Miller. Flower bearers were members of the Do For Others class. Burial was in the I.O.O.F. cemetery with Harrison Hitch and John Hudelson leading the Masonic Lodge in the ritual of that order.

Obituary

Purvis T. Briner was born October 25, 1887. In the home of his paternal grandfather. George A. Briner in Hazleton, Indiana. His parents were George and Della Thomas Briner, both deceased.

He supplemented his public school education with special study in telegraphy.

On August 10, 1912 he was married to Miss Georgia Murray. Their first home was in Indianapolis. Later they moved to Newman, Ill., returning in 1913 to Hazleton where for the rest of his life he was engaged in farming.

Four children blest the home he loved so well. Two sons, Eugene of Elwood and George of Hazleton; two daughters, Ann at home and Norma who is at present in Indianapolis. Four grandchildren also survive. He gave his heart to God in early manhood and soon thereafter united with the Methodist church. Until ill health hindered him, he served as a trustee of the official board of this church, being for the past few years a honorary trustee.

He was also a member of Gibson Lodge No. 420, F. & A. M.

A long and tedious illness was ended on Wednesday evening, February 10, at the Briner farmstead on highway 41 south. This date was exactly fourteen years from the date of his mother's death.

His life span was sixty-six years, four months and sixteen days.

Those here for the obsequies included Pat Wilton, June McCoy, Nancy Williams, Joanne Johnson, Ada Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Early, Vera Faught, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Grundman of Vincennes; Mrs. Lora Briner of Pimento; Homer Wood, Neil McKinney, Earl Hollen, Maurice Wood, Vernon Woodruc, Harrison Hitch, John Gabbert, E. Subject: Re: adams

Now you're getting the "skeletons out of the closet"....Homer Marvin Adams' biological father was Joseph Wright Cunningham, (a big dark family secret.) That's how Phoebe Ann Key became another great-great grandmother of mine.

David Robb paid James Walter Adams to marry his daughter! Mother's sister Lucile denied all of this when I asked about it. She died in 2008 at age 95.

Ross Key Dies; Hurt in Crash One Week Ago

Ross Key, 83, a well-known Gibson County farmer, died today at a.m. in the Gibson General Hospital.

Mr. Key was born north of Princeton March 31, 1878, and lived in Patoka Twp. all his life. He was a member of the Patoka Methodist Church.

Mr. Key had been a patient at Gibson General Hospital since Nov. 1 when he was injured in a car-truck accident north of Princeton on U.S. 41. An autopsy was to be held this afternoon to determine the cause of death.

The decedent was hurt when the car he was driving was struck broadside by a gravel truck when he pulled onto the highway from Lyles Rd.

Surviving are the widow, Nora Parrett Key; a daughter, Esther at home; two son, Richard and Robert both residing west of Princeton; a sister, Mrs. Ida White also of Princeton; and four grand children, Robert, Evelyn, Martha and James Key.

The funeral will be Friday at 2 p.m. in Colvin and Son Chapel with Dr. L. C. Jeffrey officiating. Burial will be in I.O.O.F. Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 3 p.m. Thursday.

WILBUR F. FISHER.

The men most influential in promoting the advancement of society and in giving character to the times in which they live are two classes, to-wit, the men of study and the men of action. Whether we are more indebted for the improvement of the age to the one class or to the other is, a question of honest difference in opinion; neither class can be spared and both should be encouraged to occupy their several spheres of labor and influence, zealously and without mutual distrust. In the following paragraphs are briefly outlined the leading facts and characteristics in the career of a gentleman who combines in his makeup the elements of the scholar and the energy of the public-spirited man of affairs. Devoted to the noble and humane work of teaching, he has made his influence felt in the school life of Gibson county and is not unknown to the wider educational circles of the state, occupying, as he does, a prominent place in his profession and standing high in the esteem of educators in other than his own particular field of endeavor.

Wilbur F. Fisher, superintendent of the schools of Gibson county, was born on July 21, 1876, at Patoka, this county, and is the son of John B. and Sarah Jennie (Marsh) Fisher, the father a native of Patoka and the mother of Mt. Carmel, Illinois. Both are now deceased. John B. Fisher was a farmer by vocation, and was a veteran of the Civil war, having served for thirty-nine months in the Seventeenth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He took part in the great battle of Chickamauga, and many others of almost equal prominence, and was with Sherman on his celebrated march to the sea and at the fall of Atlanta. He was a man of prominence in his community and served efficiently as a justice of the peace. His death occurred on November 1, 1910, having survived his wife a number of years, her death having occurred on March 26, 1883. They were the parents of the following children, Carrie, Herbert, Harry, deceased, Ralph, Roy, deceased, Wilbur, Henry and Chester, deceased.

Wilbur F. Fisher received his education in the common and the high schools of Patoka, and then was a student in Indiana University. He had taught some before entering the university, and after attending that institution he took up pedagogical work, in which he has during the subsequent years achieved a pronounced success, being numbered among the leading educators of southwestern Indiana. His work embraces six years in the common schools in White River township, this county, and ten years in high school work, four years as superintendent at Hazleton, Indiana, and six years as superintendent at Patoka. While incumbent of the latter position, Mr. Fisher was elected county superintendent of schools on June 5, 1911, and is the present incumbent of this position. As a teacher, Professor Fisher met with merited success and in his capacity as principal of schools he has met with a series of successes and advancements. He pursues his present calling with all the interest of an enthusiast, is thoroughly in harmony with the spirit of the work, and has the proper conception of the dignity of the profession to which his life and energies are so earnestly devoted. As superintendent of schools, his work has been characterized by greater efficiency and closer grading in the schools. He has done much to raise the general standing of education and scholarship in Gibson county, and his work stamps him as a man of unusual ability. A polished gentleman and possessing the traits of character necessary to insure success, the services thus far rendered bespeak for him a wider and more distinguished career of usefulness in years to come. Unlike so many of his calling who become narrow and pedantic, the Professor is distinctly a man of the times, broad and liberal in his views, and has the courage of his convictions on the leading public questions and issues upon which men and parties divide. He also keeps in touch with the trend of modern thought along its various lines and, being a man of scholarly and refined tastes, is acquainted with the literature of the world in general, while his familiarity with the more practical affairs of the day makes him feel at ease with all classes and conditions of people whom he may meet. Deeply interested in the work to which his life is devoted, Professor Fisher has not been unmindful of his duties as a citizen, and to this end takes an active part in public matters and lends his influence and support to all matters having for their object the advancement of the city and the intellectual and moral good of the people.

Wilbur F. Fisher was married October 25, 1907, to Bessie Spain, who was born near Hazleton, Indiana, the daughter of Byron S. Spain, a prominent citizen of that community, and to this union has been born one child, Jennie Louise. Religiously, Professor Fisher is a member of the Presbyterian church, while, fraternally, he is a member of the Free and Accepted Masons. He is a Democrat of the Bryan type and takes a deep interest in the success of his party. Personally, Professor "Fisher is a popular man, possessing to a marked degree the characteristics which win and retain warm friendships. He is a member of one of the old pioneer families of Gibson county, his paternal grandfather, Jonathan Fisher, being one of the first settlers of Patoka, and here the family early became prominent and influential in local affairs. Jonathan Fisher engaged extensively in the pork packing business and ran a flat boat down the Mississippi river to New Orleans, Professor Fisher's father assisting him in this work. He married Polly Milburn and reared a family of eight children. From such sterling stock, the subject of this sketch inherited qualities which have enabled him to gain success, namely, perseverance, industry, and the strictest ideals of integrity and honesty. By his kindness and courtesy he has won an abiding place in the esteem of his fellow citizens and by his intelligence, energy and abiding spirit has made his influence felt among his associates during his residence in this county, and as a result occupies no small place in the esteem of the public.

WILBUR F. FISHER.

The men most influential in promoting the advancement of society and in giving character to the times in which they live are two classes, to-wit, the men of study and the men of action. Whether we are more indebted for the improvement of the age to the one class or to the other is, a question of honest difference in opinion; neither class can be spared and both should be encouraged to occupy their several spheres of labor and influence, zealously and without mutual distrust. In the following paragraphs are briefly outlined the leading facts and characteristics in the career of a gentleman who combines in his makeup the elements of the scholar and the energy of the public-spirited man of affairs. Devoted to the noble and humane work of teaching, he has made his influence felt in the school life of Gibson county and is not unknown to the wider educational circles of the state, occupying, as he does, a prominent place in his profession and standing high in the esteem of educators in other than his own particular field of endeavor.

Wilbur F. Fisher, superintendent of the schools of Gibson county, was born on July 21, 1876, at Patoka, this county, and is the son of John B. and Sarah Jennie (Marsh) Fisher, the father a native of Patoka and the mother of Mt. Carmel, Illinois. Both are now deceased. John B. Fisher was a farmer by vocation, and was a veteran of the Civil war, having served for thirty-nine months in the Seventeenth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He took part in the great battle of Chickamauga, and many others of almost equal prominence, and was with Sherman on his celebrated march to the sea and at the fall of Atlanta. He was a man of prominence in his community and served efficiently as a justice of the peace. His death occurred on November 1, 1910, having survived his wife a number of years, her death having occurred on March 26, 1883. They were the parents of the following children, Carrie, Herbert, Harry, deceased, Ralph, Roy, deceased, Wilbur, Henry and Chester, deceased.

Wilbur F. Fisher received his education in the common and the high schools of Patoka, and then was a student in Indiana University. He had taught some before entering the university, and after attending that institution he took up pedagogical work, in which he has during the subsequent years achieved a pronounced success, being numbered among the leading educators of southwestern Indiana. His work embraces six years in the common schools in White River township, this county, and ten years in high school work, four years as superintendent at Hazleton, Indiana, and six years as superintendent at Patoka. While incumbent of the latter position, Mr. Fisher was elected county superintendent of schools on June 5, 1911, and is the present incumbent of this position. As a teacher, Professor Fisher met with merited success and in his capacity as principal of schools he has met with a series of successes and advancements. He pursues his present calling with all the interest of an enthusiast, is thoroughly in harmony with the spirit of the work, and has the proper conception of the dignity of the profession to which his life and energies are so earnestly devoted. As superintendent of schools, his work has been characterized by greater efficiency and closer grading in the schools. He has done much to raise the general standing of education and scholarship in Gibson county, and his work stamps him as a man of unusual ability. A polished gentleman and possessing the traits of character necessary to insure success, the services thus far rendered bespeak for him a wider and more distinguished career of usefulness in years to come. Unlike so many of his calling who become narrow and pedantic, the Professor is distinctly a man of the times, broad and liberal in his views, and has the courage of his convictions on the leading public questions and issues upon which men and parties divide. He also keeps in touch with the trend of modern thought along its various lines and, being a man of scholarly and refined tastes, is acquainted with the literature of the world in general, while his familiarity with the more practical affairs of the day makes him feel at ease with all classes and conditions of people whom he may meet. Deeply interested in the work to which his life is devoted, Professor Fisher has not been unmindful of his duties as a citizen, and to this end takes an active part in public matters and lends his influence and support to all matters having for their object the advancement of the city and the intellectual and moral good of the people.

Wilbur F. Fisher was married October 25, 1907, to Bessie Spain, who was born near Hazleton, Indiana, the daughter of

Descendants of William KEY

Byron S. Spain, a prominent citizen of that community, and to this union has been born one child, Jennie Louise. Religiously, Professor Fisher is a member of the Presbyterian church, while, fraternally, he is a member of the Free and Accepted Masons. He is a Democrat of the Bryan type and takes a deep interest in the success of his party. Personally, Professor Fisher is a popular man, possessing to a marked degree the characteristics which win and retain warm friendships. He is a member of one of the old pioneer families of Gibson county, his paternal grandfather, Jonathan Fisher, being one of the first settlers of Patoka, and here the family early became prominent and influential in local affairs. Jonathan Fisher engaged extensively in the pork packing business and ran a flat boat down the Mississippi river to New Orleans, Professor Fisher's father assisting him in this work. He married Polly Milburn and reared a family of eight children. From such sterling stock, the subject of this sketch inherited qualities which have enabled him to gain success, namely, perseverance, industry, and the strictest ideals of integrity and honesty. By his kindness and courtesy he has won an abiding place in the esteem of his fellow citizens and by his intelligence, energy and abiding spirit has made his influence felt among his associates during his residence in this county, and as a result occupies no small place in the esteem of the public.
