MARIAH MENDENHALL'S CASE BOOK

OF

MIDWIFERY CALLS

1862 - 1900

This is an indexed copy of the original "case book" used to record the midwifery calls of Mariah (Bowersock) Mendenhall. The original book was in the possession of her granddaughter, the late Harriett M. Smith of Penn Township, Jay County, Indiana. It was believed to have been one of three such record books.

Mariah Mendenhall could neither read nor write, her school attendance having been limited to no more than six months. Notwithstanding the fact that she had to depend upon others to make her entries, the book is remarkably accurate. One lapse appears (July 10, 1881 to June 13, 1892). It was believed by her grandchildren that entries for that 11-year period were in another book.

Born May 2, 1813 in Adams County, Pennsylvania, Mariah Mendenhall was the daughter of Jacob and Mary Bowersock. She was reared in Columbiana County, Ohio, and in 1831 was married to William Farrington (1811-1842), by whom she had seven children. Her second marriage in 1844, was to William Mendenhall (1800-1882), by whom she had one son.

William and Mariah Farrington removed from Columbiana County, Ohio, to Jay County, Indiana, in October, 1838, settling on an 80-acre tract in Section 18, Jackson Township, entered from the government. After the death of her first husband she removed to nearby Penn Township. She was a nurse and midwife 60 years. Her death occurred May 19, 1911.

My first call as a midwife was by a family by the name of Whitacre in the year 1840. Since then up to this date I have attended 980 cases. In all these cases I have never had a woman to die while under my care. In two instances I have waited on three generations, grandparent, parent and child. I always went when called upon. Went through rain and cold, many times wet to the skin.

One night I started home by myself at 11 o'clock at night from north of my home. The man peeled me a hickory torch some three feet long. I took off my garter and tied it around my torch and away I went with old Charley on the gallop. When I got to where Sam Williams lives the horse kept shying at something in the woods so I could hardly make him go. I threw away my torch, garter and all, put the whip to the horse and went home on the run.
