

Lee Everett, the eleven-week-old son of James Tharp and wife, three miles south of Portland, died from an abscess in the head Thursday night, the result of a severe cold.

The funeral services were held this morning at ten o'clock at the Antioch Methodist Church by the Rev. Fred Stovenour. Burial at Antioch.

The Portland Sun, Jay County, IN; Saturday, March 25, 1905

Contributed by Jim Cox