

The Portland Sun, Jay County, IN; January 19, 1900

Emaline, wife of Samuel Sutton died Monday afternoon at her home near Bluff Point. For the past two years she had been a sufferer from cancer, and it was that insidious disease that caused her death. She leaves a husband and five children to grieve for her as well as numerous other relatives.

Funeral services were held at Bluff Point Wednesday at 10:00 AM by Rev. Huffman, followed by interment at the same place.

Contributed by Jim Cox