

LEON M. LANNING, 78, died Tuesday at Jay County Hospital, Portland. He was a World War II Army veteran and had worked for the city at Portland's electrical and water plants. After retirement, he owned and operated Lanning's Metal Salvage. Surviving are his wife, Audrey; a son, Larry L. of Goshen; four grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. A daughter, Deloris F. Straley, died in 1983. Services at 1 p.m. Friday at Williamson & Spencer Funeral Home, Portland Chapel, with calling from 2 to 8 p.m. Thursday. Burial at Center Cemetery, west of Portland, with American Legion military rites. Memorials to Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Association.

Journal Gazette, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Wednesday, January 5, 2000

Contributed by Jane Edson