

The one year old child of Frank Tharp, living a mile south of Center in Greene Township, was found dead in bed Friday morning about 8:30 o'clock.

When the parents went to their breakfast Friday morning, the child was awake and well. They went about their work until about 8:30 o'clock when one of the members went upstairs and found the child dead.

Portland Weekly Commercial, Jay County, IN; Thursday, June 25, 1903

Contributed by Jim Cox