

SELMA--Lisa J. George, age 49, of Selma, Indiana, passed away Monday, March 12, 2012 at St. Vincent Hospice in Indianapolis.

She was born in Portland on June 25, 1962, the daughter of Basil and Helen (Parkinson) Hendrix. She was married to Merrell George who survives. She was a homemaker and member of Memorial Drive Wesleyan Church where she was active in children's programs.

Surviving are her husband, Merrell; three sons, Jason Adamson (wife-Melissa) of Danville, IN, Jonathan Adamson (wife-Susan) of Avon, IN, and Jarrod Adamson of Indianapolis; step-son, Jason George (wife-Christian) of Gas City; two brothers, Duane Hendris of New Castle, IN, and Robert Hendrix of Mechanicsburg, MD; four sisters, Mrs. Mark (Betsy) Eger of Oklahoma City, OK, Mrs. David (Cathy) Osenbaugh of Portland, Mrs. Michael (Jennifer) Cook of Danville, IN, and Mrs. Larry (Julie) Miller of Bryant; two grandsons, and one step-grandson.

Funeral services will be Thursday at 11 a.m. in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home with David Sewell presiding. Burial will follow in the Gravel Hill Cemetery west of Bryant. Visitation will be Wednesday from 3-8 p.m.

Memorials can be directed to the family to help with expenses.

THE MUNCIE STAR PRESS, Muncie, IN; WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 2012

Contributed by Jane