

Mary A. Bennett was born in Meigs County, Ohio, January 10, 1844 and died at her home west of Antiville, April 20, 1901; aged 57 years, 3 months and 10 days.

She was married to Samuel Haffner on March 4, 1866. Four children blessed their union, one having preceded her to the heavenly land.

Her sickness was neuralgia of the stomach and bowels. In her departure the husband, three daughters, three brothers, three sisters and many other relatives are left to mourn a loss to them that time can never heal.

The funeral was held at Liberty Church, where Rev. J. J. Coleman preached the sermon.
