

The remains of Mrs. Anna M. Hammitt arrived in the city Monday forenoon from Jonesboro, Indiana and were taken from here to the home of her son, J. M. Hammitt at Mills Corner.

The lady died at noon Saturday at the home of her son, John Hammitt, of Jonesboro. Death was due to lagrippe and the infirmities of old age, she being ninety-two years, five months and two days old.

Besides the above mentioned children, she leaves two sons and a daughter, Martin Hammitt of Mills Corner, Samuel Hammitt of Redkey and Mrs. Jon Poling of Marion.

The funeral services will be held at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon at Mills Corners with burial in Gravel Hill Cemetery.
