

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Wednesday, December 5, 2007

Homer Jones, 66, 5457 East 900 North, Bryant, died Thursday at his home.

Born on Aug. 3, 1941, in Randolph County to Homer C. and Eva (Bradford) Jones, he was married on April 30, 1965, to Caroline Hough, who survives.

He had served in the United States Navy Reserves.

He had worked at Corning Glass in Bluffton and attended Riverside Mission Church.

Surviving besides his wife are two sons, Jeff Jones and Isaac Daniel Jones, both of Bryant; two daughters, Esther South, Bryant, and Matilda Everidge, Geneva; a brother, Paul Smith, Winchester; seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services are Monday at 1 p.m. in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home with Pastor David Stalker officiating. Burial will be in the Gravel Hill Cemetery, west of Bryant.

Visitation is Sunday from noon until 5 p.m. at the funeral home.

Memorials may be sent to the Jones family.

Contributed by Jane Edson