

Mrs. Mary McCoy, wife of Ed McCoy died from consumption at noon Sunday at the home of her uncle, Patrick Duffy at West Liberty. She was aged twenty-six years, six months and nineteen years and leaves her husband but no children. One sister, Miss Maggie Stout, West Liberty, also survives her.

The funeral services will be held at nine o'clock Wednesday morning at the Catholic Church in this city, conducted by Father Eberle; burial in Gravel Hill Cemetery.

Portland Semi-Weekly Commercial, Jay County, IN; Tuesday, August 8, 1906

Contributed by Jim Cox