

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Tuesday, November 11, 2003

John M. Snyder, 91, a resident of rural Bryant, died early Saturday at the County Hospital following a brief illness.

He was a retired Jackson Township farmer.

A 1929 graduate of Poling High School, he attended Indiana University for one year. He was a former Jackson Township Trustee for eight years, Republican Party Precinct Committeeman for many years, a member of the Farm Bureau, National Flying Farmers Association, and charter member of the Indiana Chapter of the Flying Farmers Association.

Born Dec. 22, 1911, in Jackson Township, he was the son of Marshal and Fay (Hammitt) Snyder. He was married in 1934 to Jeanette J. Houser, who died in 1991.

Surviving are two sons, Larry D. and Terry J. Snyder, both of rural Bryant; seven grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

Services are set for 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Portland Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home with Pastor Marty Wright officiating. Burial will be in Gravel Hill Cemetery west of Bryant.

Friends may call at the funeral home from noon until time of services Tuesday.

Memorials may be made to the Gravel Hill Cemetery Endowment Fund.
