

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Tuesday, October 12, 2004

Clyde Wayne Swygart, 94, AmeriCare Living Center, a former rural Portland resident, died early Saturday at the Portland center.

Born June 16, 1910 in Randolph County, he was the son of Elza C. and Mary E. (Welker) Swygart.

He retired from Haynes Milling Co. after working there for 30 years.

He served in the U.S Army during World War II and was also a member of the Portland American Legion Post 211.

He is survived by one sister, Beulah Hill, San Diego, Calif.; his caregiver, Ruth Eley, rural Portland, and several nieces and nephews.

Services are Tuesday at 10 a.m. in the Portland Chapel of the Williamson & Spencer Funeral Home with the Rev. Jim Huey officiating.

Burial will be in the Gravel Hill Cemetery, located west of Bryant.

The Portland American Legion will conduct military graveside rites.

Visitation will be held today from 5 to 7 p.m. and prior to time of services at the funeral home.
