

Services for Iris Mann Baker, 91, 513 W. Walnut Street, Portland, are set for 10 am Tuesday in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home, Portland, with Rev. Kris McPherson officiating. Burial will be in Green Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Baker died early Thursday at Portland Community Care Center West following an extended illness.

Born October 15, 1900, in Windsor, Canada, she was married in 1934 to Russell Baker who died in 1973.

Mrs. Baker was a member of the Portland American Legion Auxiliary.

Surviving is a nephew, David Baker, Fremont, California and a niece, Mrs. John (Merilyn) Graham, Jacksonville, Florida.

Friends may call at the funeral home prior to services Tuesday.

Commercial Review, Portland, IN; June 13, 1992

Contributed by Jim Cox