

Services for Maude R. Corle, 88, a resident of Portland Community Care Center East, and a former resident of 322 S. Meridian St., Portland, are set for 11 am Tuesday in the Portland Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home with the Rev. LaVene Brosher officiating. Burial will be in Green Park Cemetery.

Corle died early Friday at Jay County Hospital.

Born Jan. 6, 1905, in Jefferson Township, she was the daughter of Ward and Maggie (King) Heston. She was married July 4, 1925 to Chester Corle, who survives.

She had worked at the Jay Garment Co. for 25 years, retiring in 1954 and she and her husband owned and operated Corle's Shell Station on West Water Street from 1961 to 1970.

Surviving are her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Roy (Mary Kathryn) Wallace, West Carrollton, Ohio; one sister, Mabel Haviland, Jacksonville, Fla.; one granddaughter, two great-grandchildren, and one great-great granddaughter.

Portland Commercial Review, Jay County, IN; Monday, December 27, 1993

Contributed by Jim Cox