

Aaron A. Curry, RR 1, South Meridian St. Rd., Portland, died Friday afternoon at the Jay County Hospital following an extended illness.

Curry was born in Hartford City, the son of William A. and Florence (Armstrong) Curry. He was married to the former Helen House, who survives along with one daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Mary Ann) Shakespeare, San Francisco, Calif., and a granddaughter, Miss Susan Hall of San Francisco.

Curry had been associated with the Refiners Oil Co. and the Gulf Oil Co. in this area for 45 years. Before his retirement, he had owned and operated his own oil distribution company for many years.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Portland, Jay Lodge No. 87, the Scottish Rite and Fort Wayne Shrine and the Portland Elks Club.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home in Portland with Pastor Kent Keller officiating. Burial will be in Green Park Cemetery.

Callers will be received at the funeral home after 3 p.m. on Sunday.