

The funeral services over the remains of Will Gick, who was killed along the G.R. & I. Railroad track, near Decatur, Sunday morning, were held Wednesday afternoon at the Lutheran Church, in charge of the Rev. M. L. Smith; interment in Green Park Cemetery.

William Gick was the oldest of nine children, of which two were boys and seven girls. His father, Genry Glick, is one of the oldest section foreman of the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad.

Portland Semi-Weekly Sun, Jay County, Indiana; September 7, 1904

Contributed by Jim Cox