

Charm Gillespie, 76, Greynolds Park Manor, North Miami Beach, Fla., a former Portland resident, died Tuesday following an extended illness.

A member of the Asbury United Methodist Church in Portland, Mrs. Gillespie was employed in the cafeteria at Judge Haynes Elementary School before her retirement.

She was also a member of Asbury's Wesleyan Circle, the Jay County Chorus and the Jay County Hospital Auxiliary.

Born Jan. 23, 1916, in Jay County, she was the daughter of Harold and Mabel (Hines) Bost. She was married Feb. 14, 1936, to Harry Gillespie, who died April 20, 1991.

Surviving are one son, Roger Gillespie, Tembrock Pines, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. Richard (Evelyn) Bentz, Portland and Mrs. Richard (June) Amadio, Plano, Texas; and several nieces and nephews.

Services are set for 10 am Saturday in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home, Portland, with Pastor Sherrie Renner officiating. Burial will be in Green Park Cemetery.

Commercial Review, Portland, IN; Wednesday, October 28, 1992

Contributed by Jim Cox