

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Monday, October 8, 2007

Services for Jeannie S. Habegger, 66, 1311 Blaine Pike, Portland, are Sunday at 2 p.m. at Fellowship Baptist Church of Portland with Pastor Hugh Kelly officiating. She died Monday at Parkview Hospital in Fort Wayne following a brief illness.

Born on Oct. 18, 1940, in Portland, to Virgil T. and Marianna (Wheeler) Smith, she graduated from Portland High School with the class of 1958 and attended Ball State University.

She was married on Oct. 28, 1978, to Ted Habegger, who survives.

Retiring from Jay County High School in 2004 where she worked many years, she was first secretary in the dean's office and later secretary in the athletic director's office.

She was a member of Fellowship Baptist Church of Portland.

Surviving besides her husband are three daughters, Mrs. Todd (Joni) Penrod, Mrs. Max (Sheri) Ludy, and Mrs. Toney (Kristi) Pryor, all of Portland; a son, Shon Strausburg, Old Town, Fla.; three sisters, Jane Ann Thompson and Mrs. Rodney (Kim) Bye, both of Portland, and Mrs. Mark (Barbara) Tuttle, Eaton; and five grandchildren.

Visitation is Saturday from 3 to 8 p.m. at the Portland Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home and Sunday from 1 to 2 p.m. at Fellowship Baptist Church. Burial will be in Green Park Cemetery.

Memorials may be directed to the Young's Ministry of Fellowship Baptist Church or to the Jeannie Habegger Scholarship Fund through The Portland Foundation.
