

Dessie D. Halstead, 66, 1224 N. Franklin St., Portland, died Tuesday in her home.

Born May 26, 1939 in Uneeda, W.Va., to General and Maysel (Supthin) Halstead, she married Richard E. Halstead on Jan. 16, 1960. He survives.

She had worked at AmeriCare of Portland for more than 20 years and was a member of the South Side Church of Christ in Portland.

Other survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Jerry (Sandra M.) Quate, Pennville, and Mrs. Tony (Joyce) Bernal, Sapulpa, Okla.; a son, Sam E. Halstead, Poca, W.Va.; a brother, Ricky Halstead, Wadsworth, Ohio; three sisters, Carolyn Lawson, Parker City, Ollie Pridemore, Wadsworth, and Barbara Miller, Sumerco, W.Va.; eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

--Portland IN Commercial Review, 12/22/2005

*(Information provided by Findagrave member Jerry Reed)

Dessie D. Halstead, 66, 1224 N. Franklin St., Portland, died Tuesday in her home.

Born May 26, 1939 in Uneeda, W.Va., to General and Maysel (Supthin) Halstead, she married Richard E. Halstead on Jan. 16, 1960. He survives.

She had worked at AmeriCare of Portland for more than 20 years and was a member of the South Side Church of Christ in Portland.

Other survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Jerry (Sandra M.) Quate, Pennville, and Mrs. Tony (Joyce) Bernal, Sapulpa, Okla.; a son, Sam E. Halstead, Poca, W.Va.; a brother, Ricky Halstead, Wadsworth, Ohio; three sisters, Carolyn Lawson, Parker City, Ollie Pridemore, Wadsworth, and Barbara Miller, Sumerco, W.Va.; eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Portland IN Commercial Review, 12/22/2005

Contributed by Jerry Reed