

Richard Halstead, 74, Portland, passed away Friday at his home in Portland, IN. Richard was born in Peytona, West Virginia, the son of Callie and Myrtle (Halstead) Halstead. He worked for Verallia Glass in Dunkirk and retired in 1998. He attended Southside Church of Christ in Portland. Richard married Dessie Halstead on January 16, 1940, and she passed away on December 20, 2005.

Survivors include two daughters, Sandra M. Quate, Bluffton, IN, and Joyce Bernal (husband-Tony), Sapulpa, OK; one son, Sam E. Halstead, Portland, IN; one sister, Mary Cabell (husband-William) of West Virginia; eight grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren.

Visitation for Richard will be held on Tuesday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home in Portland, IN. Funeral services will follow at 2 p.m. on Tuesday with Flint Redwine officiating. Burial will follow at the Green Park Cemetery in Portland, IN.

Richard Halstead, 74, Portland, passed away Friday at his home in Portland, IN. Richard was born in Peytona, West Virginia, the son of Callie and Myrtle (Halstead) Halstead. He worked for Verallia Glass in Dunkirk and retired in 1998. He attended Southside Church of Christ in Portland. Richard married Dessie Halstead on January 16, 1940, and she passed away on December 20, 2005.

Survivors include two daughters, Sandra M. Quate, Bluffton, IN, and Joyce Bernal (husband-Tony), Sapulpa, OK; one son, Sam E. Halstead, Portland, IN; one sister, Mary Cabell (husband-William) of West Virginia; eight grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren.

Visitation for Richard will be held on Tuesday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home in Portland, IN. Funeral services will follow at 2 p.m. on Tuesday with Flint Redwine officiating. Burial will follow at the Green Park Cemetery in Portland, IN.

Contributed by Jane - no source listed