

Gladys Hanlin, daughter of Richard and Ida Hanlin was born August 13, 1886 and departed this life January 7, 1905, aged 48 years, 4 months and 24 days.

For ten long months she was confined to her home with that dread disease consumption.

Her father, mother, and little brother had preceded her to the spirit world. There remains yet but one member of the family, Mrs. William Wymer, of DeKalb, Ill., who owing to sickness was not present at the funeral.

The funeral was conducted at the home by the Rev. M. L. Smith.
