

Services are Pending for James Landers

James W. Landers, 80, 703 Creagor Ave., Portland, died early today at Portland Community Care Center West.

He was retired from Sheller Globe Corp. in Portland.

Born Aug. 16, 1910 in Bryant, he was the son of James and Martha (Chapman) Landers. He was married May 25, 1936, to Esther Jane McCurdy who died in 1997.

Surviving are two sons, James R. Landers, Honolulu, Hawaii, John A. Landers, Indianapolis; two daughters, Janice Landers, Elwood City, Pa., and Judy Corle, Portland; 12 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are pending at the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home, Portland.

Services for James W. Landers, 80, 703 Creagor Ave., Portland, are set for 10:30 a.m. Saturday in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home. Burial will be in the Green Park Cemetery

Landers died early Tuesday at Portland Community Care Center West.

Born Aug. 16, 1910 in Bryant, he was the son of James and Martha (Chapman) Landers. He was married May 25, 1936, to Esther Jane McCurdy who died in 1997.

Surviving are two sons, James R. Landers, Honolulu, Hawaii, John A. Landers, Indianapolis; two daughters, Janice (Daughtery) Landers, Elwood City, Pa., and Judy Corle, Portland; 12 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

Friends and family may call at the funeral home from 2 to 4 p.m. and 5 to 7 p.m. Friday and prior to services Saturday.

Memorials may be made to Mercer County Hospice.

Both contributed by genealogy guy 2012 - no source listed