

Newspaper clipping -- estimated date 1910

Miss Leora Gladys Loy

Had Been Ill Eighteen Days

Typhoid fever claimed another victim, when Miss Leora Gladys Loy, older daughter of Nelson and Florence Smith Loy died Friday morning at four o'clock at the late home six and one-half miles northeast of Portland. The child was taken ill eighteen days ago but her condition was not considered serious until a day before she died. Thursday she became unconscious, nervous symptoms developed and she grew worse rapidly until relieved by death.

She was born in Jay county in the (sic) 1898 and at the time of death was aged twelve years, six months and nine days. Besides the parents, one sister, Leona, age eleven years survives.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at one o'clock from the Belmore Baptist church, in charge of Rev. Fred Stovenour. Interment in Green Park cemetery.

Submitted by Mary Lou Hudson