

Glenious Cam Moses, 60, of Portland, Indiana passed away on Saturday, September 19, 2009 night at Ball Memorial Hospital in Muncie, following a brief illness.

Cam was born on February 1, 1949 in Portland, Indiana the son of Glenious Cam Sr. and Elisabeth (Middaugh) Moses. He graduated from Pennville High School in 1967 and then graduated in 1972 from Ball State with a Bachelor of Education degree. He worked for over twenty years in grocery retail between Ludwigs of Portland and Gerbers of Berne. Cam was a member of the Banner Christian Assembly of God Church in Portland where he taught a Adult Sunday School Class. He is survived by: Two Sisters: Gail Franks (husband Robert) – Portland, Indiana, Deborah Brinkerhoff (husband Larry) – Portland, Indiana, Several Nieces and Nephew.

Visitation for Glenious Cam will be held on Wednesday, September 23, 2009 from 4-6 p.m. at the Banner Christian Assembly of God Church, 1217 West Votaw St. Portland, IN. A funeral service will follow at 6:00 PM at the Church with Rev. Aaron N. Rowe officiating. With burial to follow at a later date at Green Park Cemetery of Portland, Indiana.

Contributed by Joan Shoffner - no source listed