

Services for Erma Myers Landwich, 87, Warren, a former Portland resident, are set for 2 pm Tuesday in the Portland chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home with Pastor Kris McPherson officiating. Burial will be in Green Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Landwich died Friday evening at the United Methodist Retirement Home, Warren, following a brief illness.

She was a member of the Trinity United Methodist Church in Portland.

A 1925 graduate of Portland High School, she attended Taylor University, Upland and worked for the Jay County Health Department from 1958 to 1971. She was a member of the Senior Citizens Club No. 1, Portland and the American Association of Retired Persons.

Born Feb. 19, 1906, in Jay County, she was the daughter of Isaac and Rebecca (Lands) Robinson. She was first married Dec. 1, 1928 to Dale Myers who died in 1979. She then married Ray Landwich on July 11, 1981 and he died in 1989.

Surviving are one stepdaughter, Mrs. John (Carol) Barth, Greenville, Ohio; one sister, Mrs. Edna Laurent, Marion; one nephew, and three step grandchildren.

Portland Commercial Review, Jay County, IN; Monday, October 25, 1993

Contributed by Jim Cox