

Services for Floyd W. Pratt, 78, 216 E. Arch St., Portland, are set for 11 am Monday in the Asbury United Methodist Church, Portland, with Pastor Gerald Hewson officiating. Burial will be in Green Park Cemetery in Portland.

Pratt died Thursday morning in the emergency room at Jay County Hospital following a brief illness.

He owned and operated Custom Made Cabinets in Portland from 1955 to 1971 and then owned and operated Display Craft in Portland from 1970 until his retirement in 1980.

Pratt was a member of the Asbury United Methodist Church where he had served as a trustee and usher for many years.

He was a former member and past president of the Portland Lions Club and was also a former member of the Jay County Antique Car Club.

Born September 3, 1915 in Saratoga, he was the son of William and Bessie (Long) Pratt. He was married August 8, 1959 to Della May Shaner Greene; who survives.

Surviving besides his wife are one daughter, Mrs. Don (Jane Ann) Spencer, Portland; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Max (Marilyn) Stafford and Mrs. Karen Gerard, both of Albany; two grandchildren; four step grandchildren; seven step great grandchildren and one step great-great granddaughter.

Portland Commercial Review, Jay County, IN; Saturday, November 27, 1993

Contributed by Jim Cox