

George W. Resur, 84, Heather Park Apartments, Portland, died Monday afternoon at Ball memorial Hospital, Muncie, following an extended illness.

Resur was a fuel distributor and jobber in Jay County and he and his wife owned and operated the Union 76 Restaurant and Truck Stop, north of Portland, for many years before retiring in 1975.

Resur was a member of the Portland Friends Church.

Born April 23, 1909, in Jay County, he was the son of George W. Sr. and Clara A. (Gibson) Resur. He was married September 11, 1936 to Mildred Shoemaker, who died in 1990.

Surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Jerry (Joyce) Beck, Portland; two granddaughters and one great-grandchild.

Services are set for 10:30 am Friday in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home with the Rev. Brian Daniels and the Rev. Doug Shoemaker officiating. Burial will be in Green Park Cemetery.
