

JACOB SONDAY

October 29, 1903

Portland Weekly Commercial

Jacob Sondag, pioneer of Jay County, is dead at his home on East Votaw Street, at the age of nearly sixty-nine years. Mr. Sondag has been ill for some time and the end was not unexpected.

Mr. Sondag was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, in the year 1835 and a few years later removed to this county where he has resided since. He has made his home in New Corydon since moving to this county. He was a veteran of the Civil War and was one of the best known of the older residents of Jay County.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday from the Methodist Church; interment at Green Park Cemetery.

---

Jacob Sondag, pioneer of Jay County, is dead at his home on East Votaw Street, at the age of nearly sixty-nine years. Mr. Sondag has been ill for some time and the end was not unexpected.

Mr. Sondag was born in Montgomery County, Ohio in the year 1835 and a few years later removed to this county where he has resided since. He made his home in New Corydon since moving to this county. He was a veteran of the Civil War and was one of the best known of the older residents of Jay County.

On January 3, 1869, he was married to Barbara Dickes. To this union nine children were born - six boys and three girls. One son preceded him to the better world.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday from the Methodist Church by Rev. M. A. Harlan, the pastor; interment at Green Park Cemetery.

Portland Weekly Commercial, Jay County, IN; October 29, 1903

Contributed by Jim Cox