

Helen Thomas, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Thomas, West Seventh Street, died Thursday morning at 4:30 o'clock. Three months ago, the child was taken very ill but after several weeks sickness it recovered and was in apparently good health for a couple of weeks and a short time ago took a relapse which resulted in its death.

The child's sickness was of such a peculiar nature that a post mortem examination was held Thursday morning, which reported the child's death was due to an abscess in the abdomen originating from the appendix.

The funeral services were held at the South Portland Congregational Church at three o'clock Friday afternoon; interment in Green Park Cemetery.

Portland Weekly Commercial, Jay County, IN; Thursday, October 5, 1905

Contributed by Jim Cox