

The Webster City Tribune; August 29, 1913, page one

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Trueblood of Lehigh are mourning the death of their infant son, Addison Earl, who passed away this morning following a week's illness with bowel trouble. The body will be taken to Portland, Indiana, for burial. Mr. Trueblood was employed for a time at the National Sewer Pipe plant in this city.

Contributed by Burt