

The Portland Semi-Weekly Sun, Jay County, IN; Wednesday, August 1, 1906

Lena Opal, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Walters of Center, Green Township, was drowned Saturday evening by falling over and submerging her head in a 10 gallon jar, half filled with water, which was standing in the yard where the child was playing. Mrs. Walters was also in the yard at the time, but for a moment had lost sight of her baby, not discovering its flight until the little one had become unconscious. After removing the child from the jar, Mrs. Walters summoned Dr. W. D. Schwartz of this city, but before the arrival of the physician, the baby was dead.

She was aged one year, 10 months and 11 days.

The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Center U. B. Church, the Rev. Charles J. Roberts of the city in charge. Burial in Green Park Cemetery.

Contributed by Jim Cox