

Redkey Native Dies At Muncie

Mrs. Harriett Burns, 65, of Muncie, died at 5:15 o'clock Friday morning at Ball Hospital after an extended illness. She was a native of Redkey, but had lived in Muncie for the past 36 years. Mrs. Burns was a member of the Methodist Church.

Surviving are a son, Kenneth Jones of Indianapolis, and three brothers, Will Bader of Matthews, Mell Bader of near Portland, and Emory Bader of Redkey.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Parson mortuary at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, the Rev. Roy Davidson in charge. Burial will be in Hillcrest Cemetery near Redkey. Friends may call at the mortuary after 7:30 o'clock Saturday night.

Portland Commercial Review, Jay County, IN; June 10, 1950