

Everett Marvin Flesher, 97, died Thursday at his home. He was born near Redkey, but lived most of his life in Muncie. He attended Jay County schools. He was a farmer in Jay and Delaware counties, and he retired from Warner Gear, now Borg-Warner Automotive, in 1964 after working there for 20 years.

He attended Riverside United Methodist Church and was a member of the Warner Gear Sympathy Club.

Survivors include three daughters, Wanda Stanley, Martha Lou Shields and Diana Shank (Mike); six grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

His wife, Nilah J. Flesher; a daughter; and a brother are deceased.

Services will be at 3 p.m. Saturday in Parson Mortuary. Burial will be in Hillcrest Cemetery, Redkey. Calling will be an hour before services at the mortuary.

FATHER: Elias Flesher

MOTHER: Rosa "Hoppes" Flesher

Contributed by Jane - no source listed