

Clipping hand dated 1950

Redkey Resident has Fatal Stroke on Way to Morgue

Redkey, Ind., Nov. 18 - Earl Ville Hobbs, 68, died last midnight at Jay County Hospital, in Portland. He suffered a heart attack earlier in the evening while en route with relatives from Redkey to Portland, where the body of a half-brother, Russell White, lay in state at a funeral home.

Surviving are the widow, Jessie; five daughters, Mrs. Frances Conger of Traverse City, Mich., Mrs. Greta Hart of near Winchester, Mrs. May Hildreth of near Parker, and Mrs. Betty Harrell and Mrs. Ruth Ginter, both of whom reside in Redkey; three sons, Roy, of Woodland, Cal., Gerald of Madison, and Don of Kansas City, and nineteen grandchildren.

Mr. Hobbs was employed for a number of years at the Caar Canning Company in Redkey. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the E.U.B. Church in Redkey, the Rev. Lawrence West in charge. Burial will be in Hill Crest Cemetery. Friends may call at the Jones mortuary.

Portland Commercial Review

11-18-50

Earl V. Hobbs Dies Suddenly

Earl Ville Hobbs, 68, of Redkey, suffered a heart attack while enroute from his home to view the remains of his half-brother Russell White, and he was rushed to the Jay county hospital where he died at 12 o'clock Saturday morning.

The body was removed to the Jones mortuary in Redkey where friends may call after 6 o'clock Saturday evening. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Redkey E. U. B. Church in charge of Rev. Lawrence West. Burial will be in Hillcrest cemetery.

He is survived by the widow, Jessie; five daughters, Mrs. Frances Conger of Traverse City, Mich., Mrs. Greta Hart of near Winchester, Mrs. Betty Murrell of Redkey, Mrs. Larry Hildreth of Parker and Mrs. Ruth Skinner of Redkey; three sons, Roy of Woodlawn, Calif., Gerald of Madison, Ind., and Don of Kansas City and nineteen grandchildren.