

George W. Jacobs, 71, 44 N. Main St., Albany, a relative of area residents, died Tuesday at his home after a long illness.

Mr. Jacobs was born Jan. 5, 1922 in Coffee County, Tenn., the son of Walter and Fronti (Leath) Jacobs. He was a self-employed construction worker.

Surviving are four sons including Rick L. Jacobs, Ridgeville, and Larry G. Jacobs, Dunkirk, four daughters including Mrs. Kenneth (Shirley) Bullard, Mrs. Gary (Lola) Young and Mrs. Joe (Barbara) Steed, all of Redkey; nine brothers including Leighton Jacobs, Pennville; a sister, 17 grandchildren and five step-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 1 pm Friday at the MJS Mortuaries, Redkey Chapel with the Rev. Marion Donathan officiating. Burial will be in Hillcrest Cemetery.

Portland Commercial Review, Jay County, IN; Wednesday, April 21, 1993

Contributed by Jim Cox