

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Friday, May 23, 2003

Kathleen S. McIntire, 42, Alpharetta, Ga., wife of a former Redkey resident, died Wednesday at her home.

Born in Brighton, Mich., on May 2, 1961, to William and Carolyn (Dell) Busby, she married Mark McIntire on May 16, 1987, who survives.

She was a case manager with Harford Insurancedin Alpharetta, Ga., and a member of the First United Methodist Church, Alpharetta.

Other survivors include one daughter, Alexandria McIntire, Alphretta; a brother, Bill Busby, Bonita Springs, Fla.; a sister, Mrs. Charles (Barbara) Schlenderer, Dexter, Mich.; her mother-in-law, Sylvia McIntire, Dunkirk; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Jim (Connie) Miskinis, and Georgina Foth, both of Dunkirk; two brothers-in-law, Clay McIntire, Portland, and Troy McIntire, Dunkirk; and several nieces and nephews.

Services are Saturday at 2 p.m. at M.J.S. Mortuaries-Redkey Chapel. Burial will follow at Hillcrest Cemetery, on Ind. 1.

Visitation is Friday from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. at the mortuary. Memorials may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

Contributed by Jane Edson